SELECT AND SPLENDID ROSES,

Comprising all the new and most beautiful varieties which have been brought to notice in Europe during the three past years, and which have been sold there at $3 to $5 each. All the varieties, (except a few Moss,) are on their own roots, and not budded, as budded Roses are generally short-lived and of little value. Although catalogues of Roses are continually sent forth from all sides, there is no collection in the Union that is at all comparable to the present one; and it is to be regretted that venders are puffing and palming on the public the old and inferior varieties of Roses which have now been superseded by the great and important improvements of the newest varieties. We have priced all at very low rates, and in no case will any Rose be charged higher than the lowest rate at which it is obtainable of any other nursery.

REDUCTIONS IN PRICES.

N. B.—The selections of the assortments by the dozen are to be mostly our choice, but purchasers can send us lists of such as they already possess, and they will be omitted.
