FLOWERFIELD'S
BULB AND PLANT
CATALOGUE

Autumn 1947

Our 73rd Year

In this new edition, Flowerfield again offers you the finest bulbs and plants grown. Our plants are known for their superior root system, our bulbs for their superior size and vigor. Flowerfield grows and sells healthy products only.

Our plants and bulbs, guaranteed to reach you in good condition, are carefully packed in scientifically prepared corrugated boxes. Special preparations are made to protect deliveries to all parts of the world. Plants are freshly dug and packed in sphagnum moss and water-proof paper. Bulbs are kept in ideal storage conditions, are hand sorted and selected true to name for your individual orders.

In order to serve you better, Flowerfield suggests that you order your selections as soon as possible. This will allow our staff to prepare acknowledgements of your orders and allocate stock for shipment to you at the ideal time for planting.

Complete cultural directions will be included with acknowledgement of your order.

Autumn 1947

In this catalogue are listed all of the plants and bulbs that we advise to be planted in the autumn (from late August until mid-November). As each plant has its own cycle of growth, flowering season, and resting period, consideration must be given to its correct planting time. As a general rule, any perennial or hardy plant or bulb that blooms during the months of April, May and June, should be planted in the autumn. In short, autumn planting is just good, common garden sense—that's why we have included in these pages only those bulbs and plants which are best planted at that time.

These pages are arranged to show the sequence of bloom from early spring, page 1, to the late Lilies, page 40.

Earliest SPRING BULBS

CROCUS

Almost too well known to need description. The flowers appear in early March, with the petals huddling together for warmth. As the weather becomes milder, these gradually unfold wider and wider to become the cheery, cup-shaped flowers so well loved by all spring gardeners. Their bright golden anthers add the final crowning touch.

Enchantress. Soft pale blue.
Doz. 65c, 100 for $4.50

Golden Goblet. Golden yellow flowers.
Doz. 65c, 100 for $4.50

Niggerboy. Large, dark purple flowers.
Doz. 65c, 100 for $4.50

100 Bulbs for $ 3.00

1000 Bulbs for $25.00

CHIONODOXA (Glory-of-the-Snow)

Blooming with the Crocus, Chionodoxa gives to the early spring garden a graceful and informal atmosphere not possible with plants more formal in habit. The open sprays carry many starry flowers of bright appealing blue, set off by white centers. They grow about 5 inches high and are ideal for sunny spots in the rock garden, or partially shaded locations along the edges of shrubbery or borderings. Plant 2 inches deep and 4 inches apart. Doz. 65c, 100 for $4.00

ERANTHIS HYEMALIS (Winter Aconite)

Bright Buttercup-yellow flowers about 3 inches above the ground, blooming soon after the Snowdrops show through. For carpeting under trees, the shrubbery or for masses of color in the rock garden. They naturalize themselves freely and withstand the worst weather conditions. Illustrated. Doz. 65c, 100 for $4.00

GALANTHUS (Snowdrops)

The herald of spring, these charming plants with nodding bell-like flowers of pure white appear before the frost is out of the ground. If planted close to the shrubbery border, under trees or in places where they may be left undisturbed, they will require little or no attention. Plant the bulbs rather thickly for a massed or carpeting effect. Snowdrops bloom year after year, never failing to surprise and delight. Doz. 75c, 100 for $5.00

ERANTHIS HYEMALIS

CROCUS

SCILLA SIBIRICA Spring Beauty

In bloom with the Crocus and continuing to flower along with the early Narcissi, Scilla Sibirica Spring Beauty adds brilliance of color to the early spring garden. Drooping bell-like flowers of vivid blue on stems about 8 inches long. Excellent for edgings, woodland plantings and rock gardens. Most effective when 12 to 18 bulbs are planted together in clumps. (Illustrated.) Doz. 90c, 100 for $6.00

SCILLA SIBIRICA, SPRING BEAUTY

Flowerfield's Holland

Dutch Hyacinths—like many other Holland bulbs, are again available—and are presented here to transform your garden into the precious source of scent and color so incalculably missed during the war years. As usual, our bulbs are the cream of the crop, as our customers know we deal only with the most reliable growers in the world.

City of Haarlem. Probably the world's best known and most popular of all golden yellow Hyacinths. For sheer beauty and color, it cannot be duplicated anywhere. Doz. $2.50, 100 for $17.50

Queen of the Blues. Pale azure-blue on compact trusses of medium size. Deliciously fragrant. Doz. $2.50, 100 for $17.50

Ivanhoe. The darkest of the purple cerulean varieties. Late flowering, large bells and perfectly formed. One of the finest in its size and color.

La Victoire. Shiny carmine-red. Medium-sized bells. A striking and outstanding variety, universally liked. Doz. $2.50, 100 for $17.50

L'Innocence. Pure white with fine, compact spikes. The large bells are carried on a sturdy truss. An excellent variety.
Doz. $2.50, 100 for $17.50

Grown HYACINTH BULBS

Famous for their lovely fragrance and their great beauty, sweet-scented Hyacinths are the earliest of the large-flowered spring blooms. Few displays are as brilliant as that of the Hyacinths. Because of their uniform height and form they may be planted in formal beds or as broad ribbon-like borders. A planting, small or large, of these wonderfully colorful bulbs will be one to look forward to each succeeding spring.

Myosotis. Pale Forget-Me-Not blue, beautifully balanced on well-formed trusses with large bells and immense sized spikes. One of the finest light blue Hyacinths. (Illustrated.)

Doz. $2.50, 100 for $17.50

L'INNOCENCE

Prices are quoted for heavy bedding size bulbs, by all means the most common use for Hyacinths. For those who wish single exhibition blooms or bulbs for forcing indoors, we can supply mammoth size bulbs of any of the listed varieties at prices as quoted for Hyacinths for indoors.

HYACINTHS FOR INDOORS

These delightfully fragrant flowers can be grown indoors in clay pots, in bowls or in Hyacinth water glasses. Bulbs wanted in flower for Christmas should be potted in September and for succession later at intervals as desired. Complete cultural directions will be included with each shipment.

Grand Maître. Deep lavender-blue with long, compact spikes. Early, and one of the finest dark blue Hyacinths. Blooms luxuriantly indoors. . . Each 50c, Three for $1.35, Doz. $5.00

Daffodils are among the most popular of all the spring-blooming plants. They are colorful and prolific growers whose cultivation dates back to the late 17th Century. A single plant bulb will not be long in gathering a family, and in the course of years, the spot on which it grows will have become as populous as the autumnal

GIANT TRUMPET DAFFODILS

The bloom of the Trumpet Daffodil grows its crown or trumpet (cup), as long or longer than the perianth (petals).

Golden Harvest. (Early blooming.) Large golden yellow flowers suitable for exhibition purposes. Massive, overlapping yellow perianth with a flaring lacinated crown. One of the most popular varieties for forcing . . . Doz. $1.75

King Alfred. (Early blooming.) A rich, lustrous golden yellow color throughout. Enormous sized blooms. Perianth measures over 5 inches across. Trumpet crown over 2 inches in diameter. A splendid standard variety for extensive garden plantings . . . Doz. $1.75

Lord Wellington. (Mid-blooming.) This superb, heavy frilled trumpet of beautiful golden yellow crowns a colorful sulphur-gold perianth in bold relief as the illustration shows. Long, slender stems carry the huge flowers with grace and beauty. An exhibition variety . . . Doz. $2.25

LORD WELLINGTON
(GIANT YELLOW TRUMPET)

Imperator. (Late blooming.) A huge white trumpet on long strong stems. Flowers are exceptionally large and are splendidly proportioned. One of the best exhibition varieties.

Doz. $2.75

Mrs. R. O. Backhouse, Leeds. Here is the famous original "Pink Daffodil," and still the only one deserving that name. Delicately beautiful perianth of ivory-white, shading to clove-pink, and changing to shell-pink at the lacinated edges of the trumpet. It should be in every collection. Mid-blooming.

leaves "that strow the brooks in Vallombrosa."—(Milton.)

Daffodil classification has long been a bone of contention among horticulturists both at home and abroad. Flowerfield conforms to the classifications of the Royal Horticultural Society of London, whose definitions and terms we use and are listed accordingly on these pages.

Rembrandt. (Mid-blooming.) A picturesque, tall and handsome golden yellow flower. Broad petalled perianth with segments slightly reflexing and fluted at the edge of the crown. Free flowering and a great favorite in the border Doz. $2.00

MRS. E. H. KRELAGE

(GIANT WHITE TRUMPET)

Beersheba. This lovely flower has won many awards and is known everywhere as one of the very best. Its sparkling purity and exquisite appearance make it the favorite of every garden. Mid-blooming. Height 20 to 22 in. 6 for $2.00, Doz. $3.50

BEERSHEBA
(GIANT WHITE TRUMPET)

Mrs. E. H. Krelage. This enchanting and unique flower among Daffodils changes its color during various stages of its growth. The sulphur-yellow trumpet cup, long and fluted at the edges, passes to a lovely ivory-white as the plant ages. Late blooming Doz. $2.25

Whistler. (Early blooming.) A painted portrait of beauty and charm. (Illustrated.) The perfectly formed petals of the perianth are a luminous sulphur-yellow, augmented by a large trumpet cup in clear, deep yellow. The end of the crown is crinkled and frilled Doz. $2.00

INCOMPARABILIS

The cups or crowns of Incomparabilis Daffodils measure from one-third to nearly the entire length of the perianth petals.

Agra. (Late-blooming.) Famous throughout the Daffodil world, and outstanding among the new Incomparabilis hybrids. Pure white perianth. Brilliant golden yellow cup edged with flame-orange. In our trial garden this magnificent flower receives the admiration of hundreds of visitors. 6 for $3.00, Doz. $5.00

Bernardino. (Early blooming.) Creamy white perianth with cup of lemon-yellow, very heavily frilled and flushed with deep apricot-orange. In cool, moist weather this changes to a lovely clear pink Doz. $1.75

Croesus. (Mid-blooming.) Light canary-yellow perianth of perfect form. Cup is widely expanded, shading from golden yellow to orange at the edge of crown. Free flowering and a splendid propagator. (Illustrated) Doz. $1.85

Eldorado. (Late-blooming.) Colorful flower with a yellow perianth and wide cup of yellow edged with orange and shirred from the base of the bloom. Excellent for naturalizing and forcing Doz. $2.00

Fortune. (Early blooming.) A huge flower of perfect form mounted on a tall, 2-foot stem. The wide, flaring, yellow-gold perianth stands boldly away from the deeper gold cup that has a frilled edge of coppery tones. Free flowering and stunning in the border. (Illustrated) 6 for $2.50, Doz. $4.50

John Evelyn. (Mid-blooming.) A splendid variety; one that is not alone beautiful but a strong grower as well. The pure white perianth of this life size illustration measures 4 to 5 inches across. The cup is lemon-yellow fluted and shirred to the base. (Illustrated.) Doz. $2.25

POETICUS NARCISSUS

Just as the Daffodil season is about to close—the Poet's Narcissus—loveliest and sweetest of all, comes into bloom and gives us another two weeks of Daffodil Time.

These exquisite flowers of immaculate white have a pure and simple beauty that appeals to everyone.

Actaea. The most attractive of all the Poeticus Narcissus. Pure white petals with a small, bright orange and yellow cup or "Pheasant's Eye." Extremely decorative in the home as a cut flower Doz. $2.00

DOUBLE DAFFODILS

Double Daffodils are often mistaken for Gardenias because of their lovely fragrance and double-petalled blooms. They are all free-flowering, gay and colorful, and bloom until very late in the season. Plant them in moderate shade.

Daphne. A beautiful large, globelike ball of double-petalled flowers deliciously scented. The outer petals are cream-white, interleaved with smaller, pure white segments. Lovely for indoor floral decorations Doz. $2.50

Inglescombe. One of the more attractive varieties of the new Doubles. The longer petals are golden yellow interspersed with smaller segments of the same shade. Free flowering and hardy Doz. $2.00

POETAZ TYPE

Poetaz hybrids are cluster-flowering Daffodils that grow 4 to 6 blooms on a single stem. They are deliciously fragrant.

Halvose. Clusters of large flowers. The broad-petalled perianth of golden yellow has a cup of pure deep orange. Fragrant and splendid for cutting. Illustrated Doz. $2.00

Bulbs for Naturalizing

TROUT LILIES

TROUT LILIES

(Erythroniums)

April blooming, the Trout Lilies naturalize easily; much like the Daffodils. The bulbs will produce plants with attractively mottled foliage, above which, on 6- to 7-inch stems, are carried Lily-like flowers of yellow, pink, rose and purple. Ideal for shaded areas in nooks, crevices or the rockery. Plant them 4 inches deep and 2 to 3 inches apart.

Finest Mixture Doz. $1.25

SCILLA CAMPANULATA

(Wood Hyacinth)

Also known by the name of English Blue Bells, Scilla Campanulata is one of the most adaptable plants grown from bulbs. It naturalizes readily in bare, shaded areas or in full sun and may be planted in the borders, under Fir trees or in the woodland. The plants grow about a foot high with erect flower spikes carrying open, bell-like flowers in shades of blue, pink, and white. Set 4 inches deep and six inches apart, in groups of six or more and allow to form clumps.

SCILLA CAMPANULATA
(WOOD HYACINTHS)

MUSCARI (Grape Hyacinth)

Heavenly Blue. The well known and most deservedly popular Grape Hyacinth. Few flowers combine so well with others as the Grape Hyacinth. With Daffodils they are nothing less than glorious, as you may well see from the picture. Of uniform height, about 5 inches, they are excellent also for edging spring borders, for rock gardens, around shrubbery and trees, and around old tree stumps where they nestle enchantingly. They may be planted as close as 2 inches apart for a massed effect. They soon form clumps and, being perfectly hardy, reappear each spring to surprise you again with their beauty.

Doz. 65c, 100 for $4.50

Plumcsum. Instead of the tight-bunched Grape effect of Heavenly Blue, it carries quite long, feathered stems of rich violet. Height 7 inches. It requires the same culture; both can be grown indoors if desired.

LEUCOJUM (Summer Snowflake)

For sheer grace, no May-flowering bulb can surpass the lovely Leucojum. The exquisitely formed pure white flowers are bell-like in form, with a small green dot on the tip of each petal. Long-stemmed, they are excellent for cutting. Hardy and robust, their culture is similar to that of the Narcissi. Height 18 inches.

HOLLAND GROWN TULIPS

Known the world over, Holland-grown Tulips are again being received by enthusiastic gardeners everywhere. Shipments of these bulbs will be sent to South Africa and Sweden, to England and America.

With a concentrated skill inherited through centuries of experience, the Holland growers have maintained a standard, even through the war, that is to be admired and patronized. Flowerfield, through its connections in Holland, is pleased to make these offerings of superior bulbs of true top size, 12 centimeters and up, available to our customers.

Feeling that our function here at Flowerfield is to aid in your selection, rather than create confusion with long lists of virtual duplicates, we are listing the most attractive flowers by color and garden use rather than classification alone. We feel that in planning, the gardener would prefer to visualize first, color, then time of bloom, and of course, form in their best use in the garden. Consequently, we have broken down the classifications in this manner.

FORMS OF TULIPS AND THEIR USE IN THE GARDEN

EARLY FLOWERING

BOTANICAL TULIPS. Usually smaller flowers except Fosteriana and Red Emperor. Charming for informal plantings and rock gardens.

SINGLE EARLY TULIPS. Medium size flowers of uniform height—about 16 inches. Excellent for bedding.

TRIUMPH TULIPS. Medium height, large flowers, early blooming. For planting in groups in the mixed border.

MID-BLOOMING

LILY-FLOWERING TULIPS. Pointed, reflexing petals on blooms for informal planting.

COTTAGE TULIPS. Long and oval-shaped blooms for bedding or foundation planting, as the name suggests. Excellent for cutting.

PARROT TULIPS. New and unusual in grace of form, not only for border use but exquisite in cut flower arrangements. Mid-season.

LATE BLOOMING

DARWIN TULIPS. Largest flowers, clear, pure colors, squarish cup-shaped. Exhibition purposes, formal beds, perennial borders. Tall growing.

BREEDER TULIPS. Huge cup-shaped flowers in muted colors overlaid gold and bronze tones. Tall growing. Exhibition and formal beds, and perennial borders.

DOUBLE LATE TULIPS. Double flowers, some as big as Peonies. Medium height. Group planting in perennial borders or formal beds.

We recommend that Tulips be planted in colonies of a single color group, and that not less than a dozen bulbs be planted together in a color group.

Pink Tulips

Aphrodite. Darwin. The goddess of beauty in Tulips, for, among all Giant Darwins with large square cups, this lovely flower has a very special charm. An extraordinarily graceful pink flower with a delicate shading of soft buff at the edge of the petals. The inner base of the bloom is tinged in light silvery pink. Planted in groups of 12 or more for colonies of color along the mixed border this variety is unsurpassed. Height 25 inches.

Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Clara Butt. Darwin. A delightful favorite that will never fade, and which should be in every garden. No other Tulip has quite the same pure salmon-pink color, unmarred by any other tone. Height 22 inches. Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Ibis. Single Early. One of the earliest to bloom. A lovely subject for formal beds. The color is soft rose-pink; the flowers wide and globular in form and sweet scented. Height 14 inches. Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Mrs. H. I. Pratt. Darwin. This diadem of loveliness is a most artistic flower. Its color is a radiant cochineal-pink with a translucent effect of golden light shining through the edges of the petals. Excellent for cutting. (Illustrated.) Height 26 inches. Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

ROSABELLA (COTTAGE)

Mermaid. Darwin. A large flower of pale pink, with a lighter border and a creamy white base. The flower is oval shaped and very large and is one of the first to bloom. Illustrated. Height 28 inches Doz. $1.65, 100 for $12.00

Pride of Zwanenburg. Darwin. This pink flower should not be confused with the white Darwin Tulip Zwanenburg. Pride of Zwanenburg is a very popular variety for the American garden, and is well adapted to our climate all over the country. It is an extraordinarily graceful rose hybrid with soft pink and salmon color shadings toward the base. Sturdy flowers of large size on long stems. Height 28 inches Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Rosabella. Cottage. Although classified as a Cottage Tulip, Rosabella is almost a Darwin in form. Its color is a delicate rose-bud pink, with a blush of deeper pink suffusing each petal. The chalice cup is wide and handsomely contrasted with black anthers. Rosabella is one of the most desirable of Tulips. (Illustrated.) Height 28 inches Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Sirene. Lily-Flowering. A lovely urn-shaped silvery pink with cerise shadings toward the base of the bloom. Artistically formed and beautifully proportioned. Petals are very wide and graceful. Excellent for the informal borders. Height 20 inches. Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Venus. Darwin. The loveliest, deepest rose-pink we have in our collection. Venus has already distinguished itself many times at the garden shows. Planted near white Persian Lilacs it gives a splendid effect. It is offered here at a moderate price. (Illustrated.) Height 30 inches Doz. $1.65, 100 for $12.00

Charles Needham. Darwin. The unusual coloring of this deep red Darwin will draw immediate attention in the border. Flowers are large, well formed, and gracefully narrowed at the base. Height 28 inches Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

City of Haarlem. Darwin. Perhaps the most popular of all red Tulips in the world. (Illustrated.) Certainly one of the largest and most beautiful flowers ever introduced into this country from Holland. City of Haarlem has that elusive elegance and perfect form that comes only from generations of careful breeding. Truly a magnificent Darwin with a dark violet base outlined in pure white. Height 28 inches Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Couleur Cardinal. Single Early. An early blooming Tulip that will blend exceptionally well with all other flowers in the garden. Bright vermillion-scarlet. Excellent for forcing, and particularly effective where earlier blooms are desired. Height 15 inches. Doz. $2.00, 100 for $15.00

Eclipse. Darwin. A self-portrait of charm and beauty, this lovely flower is the indispensable Tulip in the garden for color. A glowing, rich red with a violet-blue margined center. The cup is large and deep. The stems are long and slender, adding grace and dignity. Enthusiastically recommended for all spring gardens. Height 30 inches Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

SCARLET EMPEROR (COTTAGE)

Gloria Swanson. Darwin. This flower is considered by many the largest growing Tulip of its kind and color ever raised. An enormous, Raspberry-red with a distinct bluish base that is always admired for its stylish appearance in the garden. Flower petals are thick and glossy, carried on lovely, slender stems. Highly recommended. Height 32 inches. Doz. $1.65, 100 for $12.00

Indian Chief. Breeder. Of glorious coloring and perhaps the most artistic of all Breeder Tulips. A burnished coppery brown, flushed with elusive mauve colored lights. Height 36 inches Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Scarlet Emperor. Cottage. One of the true patricians of the Cottage Tulip family. (Illustrated.) This handsome bloom exhibits a graciousness and dignity always admired wherever it is grown. The long and narrow flowers are brilliant scarlet with black anthers and a pure orange base. The reflexing petals are long and pointed. A stunning variety in the border, or when planted in front of dark evergreens. Height 24 inches. Doz. $1.65, 100 for $12.00

The Bishop. Darwin. Perhaps the most striking of all the blue Tulips. It is a tall variety of sparkling Bishop's purple. Ebony-black anthers rise in slender spires from a white base. Ideal above a carpet of white Violas. Height 29 inches Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Cunera. Breeder. A Giant Breeder, one of a new race that has a size, quality and substance surpassing all others. Cunera is an even tone of rich dark purple with a broad margin of golden bronze. This Breeder combines well with other purples, lavenders, and yellows in the border and is a superb variety for forcing. Height 34 inches.
Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

La Tulipe Noire. Darwin. This is the world famous "Black Tulip." Its black nigrine-purple coloring will add depth and dignity to the garden. Height 26 inches Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Scotch Lassie. Darwin. A pure deep lavender. This well formed flower is robust in habit and sweet scented. It makes a lovely picture when near white Violas. Height 27 inches Doz. $1.65, 100 for $12.00

White Hawk. Single Early. Large, white, globular blooms flowering much in advance of the May-Flowering types. Excellent for foreground planting in the border. Height 12 inches Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Cherbourg. Breeder. One of the finest golden yellow Tulips in its class, Cherbourg has a deep tone of terra cotta with yellow overtones growing stronger towards the edges of the petals. Adding to its other charms it has an exquisite springlike fragrance and is always greatly admired. Blooms in mid-May. Height 30 inches.

Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Dillenburg. Breeder. A great giant of a flower, magnificently decorative. Like most Breeders, this beauty has a changeable quality in its coloring, brilliant in the sun, and softly hued in the shade. One of the most effective flowers we know of for cut flower arrangements. Height 28 inches.

Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Keizerskroon. Single Early. This Tulip, for its splendid form and contrast in color, holds a place by itself among the early blooming yellows. Keizerskroon is an old favorite of long standing. It has large, flaring flowers with center colored triangles of bright crimson-red. The petals are broadly edged with yellow and have gilded segments at the base of the cup. Height 16 inches.

Doz. $2.00, 100 $15.00

Sunkist. Darwin. This beautiful flower is the crowning climax of over one hundred years effort and research on the part of the old Dutch Tulip breeders in Holland to produce a true yellow Tulip without any variation of shade. The blooms are brilliant golden yellow with elongated petals that will not burn in the sun or fade with age. Don't miss planting some this year. Height 30 inches. (Illustrated.)

Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Golden Emblem. Lily-Flowering. The only Lily-Flowering Tulip this shape and color. Bright golden yellow, with petals strongly reflexed and curled in a half-circle. PRAESTANS, FUSILIER

DASYSTEMON

MARJOLETTI

Botanical Tulips (SPECIES)

The earliest Tulips to bloom, these beautiful and rare flowers of Asiatic origin may be best planted in dry sun-baked locations, in warm dry nooks, in the foreground of the borders or even among the creeping plants such as the Sedums. Their colorful blooms and unusual form add much grace and variety to the garden.

Dasystemon. A most attractive, low-growing species, usually blooming 3 to 5 flowers on a stalk. Yellow flowers edged with white. (Illustrated.) Height 6 inches. Doz. $1.50, 100 for $11.00

Eichleri. Radiant crimson-scarlet flowers with yellow base and black centers, most effective in the flower border. Huge blooms. Superb variety for forcing. Height 12 inches. Doz. $1.50, 100 for $11.00

Fosteriana, Red Emperor. This superb flower, shown in life size illustration, is considered one of the loveliest Tulips in existence today. Blooming even before the Single Early Tulips, a dozen bulbs of Red Emperor will create a mass of brilliance that will not be rivalled until the Oriental Poppies ignite the garden in June. As a matter of fact the two effects are almost identical. Red Emperor is admirably at home with all the light-colored spring flowers, particularly with hardy Candytuft. Height 18 inches. Doz. $2.25, 100 for $17.00

EICHLERI

Kaufmanniana. White with yellow centers and softly tinged carmine exteriors. One of the earliest to bloom, the open-faced flowers resemble Water-Lilies. Height 8 inches. Recommended. Doz. $1.75, 100 for $13.00

Marjoletti. This charming rockery subject, known as the "Little Lady Tulip" is available again, but the quantity of the stock is limited. Delightful cherry-red outer petals that are variegated with white interiors. Height 16 inches. (Illustrated) . . . Doz. $2.00, 100 for $15.00

Praestans, Fusilier. Vivid orange-scarlet flowers, often several from one bulb. An excellent rock garden subject. (Illustrated.) Height 10 inches. Doz. $2.75, 100 for $19.00

DUTCH IRIS

DUTCH IRIS

If you want to give your garden only casual attention, and still be able to gather great armfuls of lovely cut flowers, you can find nothing to serve you as well as Dutch Iris. They are clean cut blooms, somewhat Orchid-like, in a splendid range of white, yellow, blue, purple and occasional bronze tones. Height 20 inches. They are perfectly hardy, surviving even the hardest winter, though a precautionary covering to prevent frost heaving may be applied. Set them 4 inches deep and 1 foot apart.

Imperator. Tall flowers with unusually large blooms, whose standards are a lovely light violet-blue. The falls are soft, and sky-blue, with narrow orange stripes. Doz. 90c

Wedgewood. Pure blue throughout of solid "Wedgwood-blue" with standards just a bit more intense than the falls. The large flowers are particularly suited for cutting, when grown either indoors or outdoors Doz. 90c

White Excelsior. Pure white throughout, with very broad falls of excellent substance for cut flowers. A strong, stocky growing flower. Doz. $1.25

Golden Harvest. A fragrant and early flowering variety. Both falls and standards are a rich golden yellow. The stems are excellent for cutting Doz. 90c

Mixed Colors. For a proper balance of color, one of the best cut flower investments possible is this complete hand-made mixture of all the varieties of Dutch Iris bulbs. Doz. 80c

FRITILLARIAS

Fritillaria Imperialis. The Crown Imperials with their stately form attract immediate attention wherever they are grown. These plants, often growing to 3 feet or more, carry huge trusses of vivid, bell-shaped blooms. Because of their height, it is wise to plant them in a spot sheltered from strong winds. They are perfectly hardy and may be left undisturbed for years.

Imperialis, Aurora. Orange-red. Each 60c, Doz. $6.00

Imperialis Lutea. Yellow Each $1.50, Doz. $15.00

Fritillaria Meleagris. Lovely bulbous plants for rock garden and border use, they are often called the "Guinea Hen Flower." Dwarf growing, these dainty plants, with their shy and drooping blossoms of white, purple and mottled colors, have great appeal when first seen in the early spring. They are perfectly hardy and naturalize easily. Height about 9 inches.

Mixed Colors Doz. 65c, 100 for $4.50

LYCORIS

Sometimes referred to as the Hardy Amaryllis, the Lycoris Lily is one of the most unusual and beautiful flowers. The attractive green foliage of Lycoris first appears early in the spring and flourishes until July, when it matures and disappears. Then suddenly in early August the flower stems appear, growing rapidly to a height of 2 to 3 feet when they burst into a lovely cluster of opalescent pink blossoms. Excellent for full sun, the Hardy Amaryllis grows even taller in partial shade. They are perfectly hardy and soon multiply to a large clump. Fall planting is recommended.

VIOLET, WHITE QUEEN

Sweet-Scented VIOLETS

Violets are among the most beloved flowers in the world. Their cheerful colors and sweetly scented blossoms grow in almost any kind of soil. They are unexcelled for use in the border, and thrive in full sun or shade, forming carpets of luxuriant bloom.

Prince of Wales. A rich, deep purple, sweetly scented, with large blooms. This beautiful variety flowers in May and usually again in the cool weeks of the fall. Height 6 inches Three $1.35, Doz. $4.50

Rosina. Deliciously fragrant flowers of pink or old rose. Rosina is not as large as the blue types, but usually flowers again in late autumn.

Three $1.50, Doz. $4.50

Royal Robe. A glorious variety with a lustrous shade of deepest violet-blue. Royal Robe has a transcendent beauty whose picture, at right, should speak for itself. It is a large, delicately fragrant blossom that opens out flat like a Pansy. A trial in your own garden will realize your fondest hopes. Even a few plants will furnish quantities of bloom on stems often 12 inches in length.

Hardy PRIMROSES

Probably the most colorful of our early spring flowering plants. They are perfectly hardy in the coldest climates, and live year after year, forming large clumps that divide easily. Ideal for naturalizing in shady woodland areas. They combine beautifully with the spring bulbs such as Tulips, and Narcissus. Low growing, only 8 inches high, they make excellent edging plants.

Japonica. Abounds in rich colors from crimson to rose to almost white. Excellent for contrasting with true yellow Primroses. Needs moisture Three $1.50, Doz. $5.00

Veris Hybrids. Resembles the old-fashioned Cowslip, but in addition to yellow, contains a wide range of buff, orange, salmon and other rich tones Three $1.45, Doz. $4.50

Vulgaris. True old English Primrose with large, pale yellow flowers. The one most people know Three $1.15, Doz. $3.50

FLOWERFIELD'S GIANTS

A magnificent strain of these lovely flowers in a splendid and comprehensive range of colors: pinks, yellows, lavenders and scarlets. Florets are wide open and large, with petals of velvety texture. Prettily crinkled foliage of a rich green.

New Lobata Hybrid

PEONIES

A new introduction, this is the first time any of these Lobata Hybrid Peonies have been obtainable and offered as a general strain. Originated by Doctor A. P. Saunders, the stock was released to us here at Flowerfield in 1943 and reserved to us exclusively. We are now proud to offer these magnificent hybrids to our customers.

A cross of Chinese Peonies on Lobata, these hybrids carry the best qualities of both parents. The huge blooms are cup shaped, of clear bright colors of bright pink, salmon, cherry, red and scarlet (not a muddy color in over 1000 hybrids), and have bright golden centers of tightly clustered stamens. The plants form neat, compact bushes that grow about 2 feet high with bright green foliage that is decorative in itself. Liberal of bloom, they commence to flower at least a week to 10 days earlier than the Double or Chinese Peonies. They are really the first of the large-flowered plants to come into bloom (around May 20th at Flowerfield, Long Island). Strong three-eye divisions from field-grown plants. Each $3.50

Single and Japanese PEONIES

A distinct type of Peony not as yet widely known but rapidly increasing in popularity. They are just as easy to grow as the Double or Chinese Peonies and bloom at the same time in early June. Excellent in the perennial borders as their habit is above reproach, and in spite of rain and wind, the stems stand straight without support, holding the huge blooms in all their glory. Superb for cutting too, as the flowers last longer in arrangements than the Double Peonies.

- Meigetsuko. Soft rose-pink flowers with large-crowned golden centers. Japanese Peony type. Each $1.50
- Mikado. Satiny crimson open-faced blooms with a large golden crown of curled and twisted stamens. Japanese type. Each $1.50
- Puritan Maid. Huge white blooms often measuring 6 inches across with small tightly formed golden centers. Single type. Each $1.50
- Henry Potin. Lovely clear pink with tightly clustered, curled, and twisted golden centers. Japanese Peony type. Each $1.25

Tree PEONIES

Few plants equal the magnificent display of a well-established Tree Peony. The flowers are large, unusually beautiful and rare, possessing all the colors found in regular herbaceous Peonies, as well as pure yellow, yellow and orange, lavender, violet and purple. The plant does not die down like the herbaceous Peonies, but forms a shrub so that in time a single plant will attain a height of 4 to 5 feet, and carry as many as 200 flowers.

All Tree Peonies furnished are two-year-old plants, growing in 5-inch pots. The pot-grown plants establish quickly and usually bloom the second year after planting. We regret that we cannot supply the three- to four-year-old plants this season.

Flowerfield IRIS

TALL BEARDED IRIS

Of tall, bold form and abundant bloom, the Tall Bearded Iris flower during late May and early June. Extremely hardy, they thrive anywhere and multiply rapidly. Usually planted in full sunlight, but well suited to moderate shade. Their lovely self colors, and exquisite blends will add immeasurably to the beauty of your garden.

China Maid. The large, well-proportioned flowers of this pink Iris are exquisite in coloring. Both the standards and falls are of clear pink, delicately veined with lilac that blends toward a fluted edge of pale bronze.

Each $1.00, Three for $2.75

Crystal Beauty. Clear white blooms on tall, shoulder-high stalks. This very early blooming variety has sweetly scented and perfectly formed flowers. Splendid for the background of the border. Each 40c, Three for $1.10

SIBERIAN IRIS

An outstanding Iris type that blooms in early June. Siberian Iris have lovely medium sized flowers, usually 3 to 4 inches across, borne on long, slim stems 3 feet tall. The slender foliage is extremely graceful, and is quite attractive in itself, after the flowers have gone. Siberian Iris "stays put" where you plant it, forming a very dense clump that will send up 25 to 50 lovely flower stalks.

Planted among the Peonies, few combinations of flowers can equal the resulting profusion of lovely color. They are at home anywhere the tall Bearded Iris are planted, although the Siberian Iris has a much higher degree of water tolerance and can stand "wet feet" even in winter.

Caesar. A rich Pansy-purple of unusual depth of color. Of medium height. 30 inches. Each 40c, Doz. $4.00

Papillon. Luxurious color of self light blue. A scintillating display when planted in clumps. Height 36 inches. Each 50c, Doz. $5.00

Peggy Perry. (Illustrated.) One of the most beautiful of all Siberian Iris. Dark violet-blue. Height 40 inches. Each 50c, Doz. $5.00

Pigmy. A low-growing variety, excellent for use in the foreground. Dark violet-blue. Height 28 inches. Each 40c, Doz. $4.00

Snow Queen. Exquisite snow-white flower produced in great abundance. Foliage light and graceful. Height 38 inches. Each 50c, Doz. $5.00

YELLOW IRIS, PSEUDACORUS

Very similar in habit of growth, flowering time, and shape to Siberian Iris. Excellent combination of color can be had by adding this yellow to the white and blue of the Siberian Iris. The plants will naturalize readily along ponds and streams, and will stand heavy moisture. Height 4 feet.

Each 40c, Doz. $4.00

IRIS SPURIA

Stately plants with flowers quite unlike any other Iris, being completely beardless and of most artistic form. They are hardy anywhere and thrive in rich moist soil, growing to a height of 5 feet.

Ochroleuca Gigantea. Magnificent pure white standards with falls marked in golden yellow. A splendid cut flower, lasting much longer than any other Iris. Each 60c, Doz. $6.00

Lord Wolseley. Clean cut flowers of rich violet with golden yellow markings on the falls. A fine plant for the damp spot in the border. Excellent for cutting. Each 60c, Doz. $6.00

PLANTS for

FUNKIA (Plantain Lily)

Funkias grow in borders or locations which are shaded most of the day. They grow well in any soil but in rich soil develop to exceptionally large plants.

Coerulea. A fine border plant with broad dark green foliage. Flower spikes grow to 2 feet or more, bearing blue trumpet-like flowers in July and August. . . . 3 for $1.25, Doz. $4.00

Coerulea Variegata. A beautiful edging plant admired for its colorful foliage as much as for its fine Lily-like blue flowers. The leaves are pure white, heavily marked with bright green. Height 2½ feet. . . . 3 for $1.25, Doz. $4.00

Subcordata Grandiflora Alba. In August and September this has tall, Lily-like stems with pure white trumpet flowers four inches or more in length. A fine addition to the garden. Excellent for use in shading roots of Lily bulbs. (Illustrated.) Height 2½ feet. . . . 3 for $2.00, Doz. $6.50

DICENTRA (Bleeding Heart)

One of the most useful plants for the spring garden. Dicentra is noted for its beauty when grown in shady spot, yet is outstanding for combining with such sunlovers as Tulips, Peonies, or the early varieties of Hemerocallis. Flowerfield has long specialized in growing Bleeding Heart, for there are few more satisfactory plants.

Sweetheart (Bleeding Heart). A new rare variety of Bleeding Heart. Beautiful fernlike dark green foliage is finely cut similar to that of Dicentra Eximia. Grows to a height of 12 inches and bears racemes of pure white, heart-shaped flowers. Foliage remains green throughout the entire season. A new beauty for your garden. . . . Each $1.00, Doz. $10.00

Eximia (Plumy Bleeding Heart). Beautiful, finely cut foliage covered with racemes of pretty pink flowers throughout the season. Perfectly hardy, at home in full sun or full shade and is very decorative. Height 18 inches. . . 3 for $1.75, Doz. $6.00

Spectabilis. Commonly known Bleeding Heart, this versatile favorite is equally at home in sun or shade, or even in the greenhouse, where it forces quickly. The plants are large, 2 to 3 feet tall and often spreading 4 to 5 feet. Long, showy racemes of heart-shaped flowers on long branching stems make them one of the most decorative and useful spring-time plants. (Illustrated) Each 65c, Doz. $6.50

ASTILBE (Perennial Spirea)

Astilbes are sturdy, 2- to 3-foot plants with attractive foliage throughout the summer. Above this foliage in June, burst great sprays of very delicate lacy flowers. Astilbes are excellent for shade; however, they may be used in full sun if they have an abundance of water at all times. Because of this the Astilbes are most useful in the damp spots in the garden where most other flowers will not grow. Flowerfield's Astilbes are among the hardiest of plants, standing the most severe winters.

Peach Blossom. Great feathery plumes of pale pink flowers. The picture displays its beauty. (Illustrated) . 3 for $1.50, Doz. $5.00

Deutschland. Free flowering pure white blooms produced on bushy plants of heavy foliage. 3 for $1.50, Doz. $5.00

Fanal. This brilliant new Spirea combines all the fine attributes of its sister varieties with a new color in Spireas—deep magenta-red. It is so brilliant that it commands attention from any angle. Fanal is one of the best new plants . . . Each $1.00, Doz. $10.00

MERTENSIA (Virginia Blue Bells)

A woodland plant but, by reason of its early and profuse flowering habit in the cool spring weather, it has also been found to be adaptable to open border planting. As a companion to the Tulips and the late-blooming Daffodils, the Mertensias are ideal. They are equally happy in shaded and moist locations.

Virginica. Large clusters of clear blue bells tipped with bright pink. The plants grow about 18 inches tall. (Illustrated.)

3 for $1.50, Doz. $5.00

LILY-OF-THE-VALLEY

Ideal for shaded locations. Lovely, fragrant sprays of pure white bells, measuring 6 to 8 inches in height, appear each May. Best planted in clumps, setting them 1 foot apart. The most desirable soil is a rich, sandy loam, enriched by a fall top dressing of well-rotted manure and leaf mold. Heavy field-grown clumps.

Orchis Spectabilis. Called the Showy Orchid. Stems from 8 inches to a foot in height, with erect spikes carrying from 3 to 8 delightfully fragrant flowers of violet-purple, variegated with lighter purple and white. Truly an outdoor Orchid with all the exotic beauty of the tropics. 3 for $1.75, Doz. $6.00

Flowerfield's HEMEROCALLIS

Magnificent Hybrid Daylilies

Daylilies thrive in full sun or partial shade. They are suited to either border use or when planted as a low hedge close to the house, along the driveway, or "spotted in" with low growing foundation plantings. Once established, they require practically no further care, growing in any kind of soil in any section of the country.

Hemerocallis hybrids combine beautifully with such varied subjects as Iris, Peonies, and many other modern garden plants. A full and continuous season of these lovely flowers can be had by utilizing Flowerfield's Calendar of Bloom as shown below.

PATRICIA

Gold Dust. A lovely glowing free-flowering variety, producing clusters of rich, golden yellow trumpets on long, slender stems. This gorgeous bloom is very effective when planted in light shade or wherever foundation plantings taper off. Gold Dust is one of the earliest of the Daylilies to bloom in May. Height 1½ feet. 3 for $1.35, Doz. $4.50

Hyperion. An exhibition variety and a real beauty. Hyperion is a Class A winner of the Award of Merit of the Royal Horticultural Society of Great Britain. Its beautiful flowers are a fine citron-yellow of large size and long trumpet form, producing numerous blooms on stems 40 inches long. Vigorous in growth, a single plant will soon develop into a strong, floriferous clump. Perfectly hardy. Blooms through July and August with flowers often appearing as late as Labor Day. Height 36 inches.

Each $1.00, 3 for $2.75, Doz. $10.00

J. R. Mann. Delicate frosted buff and yellow flowers on 3½-foot stems. Prefers partial shade, but will do excellently in full sun. Blooms in June and July. 3 for $1.35, Doz. $4.50

Kwanso Flore-Pleno. A really different variety, unique for its color and form among all other Daylilies. (Illustrated.) Its large, double golden bronze blooms are full-centered, in marked contrast with the usual growth of other open-trumpet flowers. One of the best for cutting. Kwanso Flore-Pleno blooms in late July and August. Height 36 inches.

3 for $1.35, Doz. $4.50

Ophir. Large clusters of golden yellow trumpet-shaped flowers, 25 or more to a stem. Flowers have a golden yellow throat flushed with colorful yellow veins in the center of the petals. Blooms in June. Height 36 inches.

Each 75c, 3 for $2.00, Doz. $7.50

Patricia. A new variety and one of the finest clear yellows among all recent Hemerocallis introductions. The huge flowers have a wholesome fragrance, opening 3 inches across, with scapes measuring the same length as the leaves. Blooms in July. (Illustrated.) Height 38 inches.

Each $1.50, 3 for $4.00, Doz. $15.00

The Gem. A tall, robust growing plant with shiny orange-yellow flowers. The buds open well in water and have a delightful fragrance. The flowers, though short-lived, multiply in amazing succession on stems 3½ to 4 feet high. Blooms in June and July. 3 for $1.35, Doz. $4.50

Thunbergi (Lemon Lily). An original and older type Hemerocallis still widely used, especially for its late flowering habits. This reliable plant always grows 3 to 4 feet high with clouds of pure lemon-yellow flowers. One of the best for massing. Blooms in early July.

3 for $1.25, Doz. $4.00

Olif. Enormous blooms of glistening yellow. The form of the flower is that of a wide-mouthed bell and the texture is excellent. Olif blooms in July and grows over 3 feet tall. 3 for $1.50, Doz. $5.00

Giant Oriental POPPIES

For an eye-filling display of rich, brilliant colors and graceful form, nothing quite equals Oriental Poppies when they come into bloom in late May and early June. The startling color effect and the satiny soft quality of the petals found in these Giant Oriental Poppies is fascinating almost beyond description. Individual blooms measure five inches across or more. The plants grow 30 inches tall. Hardy, and perennially blooming, these Giant Oriental Poppies will provide spectacular beauty in the border year after year.

Planting in late August or early September is recommended as Poppies benefit by becoming well established in the fall.

Barr's White. Large, pure white flowers with purplish black spots. This is a dependable, free blooming, healthy grower. The glistening blooms measure 5 inches across when open Each 75c

Beauty of Livermore. Large, well formed flowers of dark crimson, beautifully marked with black blotches. This excellent variety is quite abundant in bloom, and most satisfactory in the garden Each 75c

Cedar Hill. Light pink variety with dramatic shiny black spots at the base of the petals. A delicate and strikingly beautiful gem for your garden. Each 75c

June Delight. Considered by many as the best pink. It is a rugged grower, whose tall, straight stems are topped by La-France-pink flowers without the dark spots Each 75c

Olympia. A rich flame colored, semi-double variety. A sturdy garden subject, multiplying rapidly and withstanding any sort of harsh treatment. Each 65c

Sass Pink. No doubt one of the largest and finest of pink Poppies. The immense blooms are of fine crepy texture and of a lovely light delicate flesh-pink shade with gray-mauve centers. Each 75c

Cavalier. One of the largest Poppies in culture today. The flowers are huge blooms of deep crimson-scarlet, heavily marked with deeper tones that appear almost to be black. The blooms are distinctively crinkled, and freely produced Each 75c

JUNE DELIGHT

BOKHARA

IRIS

Orchids of the Garden

This beautiful flower, perfectly hardy and easy to grow, will tolerate spots that are too wet for many plants; yet will thrive perennially in well-drained locations if only supplied with sufficient water. Iris Kaempferi is entirely different from all other Iris, as they bloom much later in the season (late June to mid-July), providing a welcome splash of color after the earlier types have faded. These huge blooms of velvety texture measure 6 to 8 inches across. The leaves are long, narrow and gracefully formed, and the plants remain decorative even after the blooming period is over. Height 3 to 4 feet.

Our own collection of Iris Kaempferi was started at Flowerfield in 1895, an achievement of which we are very proud. Since then we have hybridized over 600 named varieties, and introduced to the public many original strains including Light in the Opal, Betty F. Holmes, and Elbrus. A few varieties seen edging a reflecting pool, or a stream, is a landscape of beauty that will linger long in your memory. It is no wonder that Iris Kaempferi is called the "Orchid of the Garden."

Aspasie. Indistinct light blue veins traced across the petals of soft lavender give a beautiful coloring to the flowers. Mass these singles for a most unusual color effect. . . . Each 50c, Doz. $5.00

Bokhara. Lovely rich reddish toned variety of striking form. The huge flowers of fine substance and velvety texture are carried proudly atop straight, sturdy stems. (Illustrated.)
Each 75c, Doz. $7.50

Caroline G. Childs. The individual petals are of an enormous size laced with deep purple veins over faint blue. An exceptionally tall variety. . . . Each 50c, Doz. $5.00

City of Dreams. A late-blooming variety, usually not in full bloom until mid-July. These large flowers are of the richest royal-blue, with a velvety texture that adds great luster. Recommended for massing. . . . Each 75c, Doz. $7.50

Dimooneathe. This stunning looking Flowerfield creation is one of our prize-winning originals. A lovely double of soft pale blue, it is tall growing, 3 to 4 feet high, often yielding blooms measuring 8 inches or more across. Dimooneathe is a prize to be desired. It is new, different, and considered by many to be one of the most enchanting blues to ever grace a garden.
Each $1.50, Doz. $15.00

Gold Bound. A fine floriferous plant bearing large, double, pure white flowers. The use of Gold Bound, or others of the pure white Iris is necessary to set off the darker ones properly.
Each 50c, Doz. $5.00

Grace Sperling. A lightly veined petal in soft violet-blue whose small milk-white standards rise from a deeply colored lemon-yellow throat. A single flower of exquisite color combination, its profuse bloom lasts late into the season . . . Each 50c, Doz. $5.00

Hebe. A rare variety, Hebe is a beautiful double white flower that upon opening is faintly flushed with lavender. The soft lemon-yellow throat heightens the delicacy of the coloring.
Each 50c, Doz. $5.00

Jeanette Parry. A very large single Iris of fine stature and excellent habit. The light blue falls are softly veined in deep purple. (Illustrated) . . . Each 50c, Doz. $5.00

La Favorite. An exceptional double flower. The delicate blue-white color of the falls is faintly laced with fine purple veins, creating an effect of pure white at a distance. Its individual color blending is subtle beauty. (Illustrated.)

Flowerfield's HARDY LILIES

FLOWERFIELD EXHIBITION LILIES

In cultivation from ancient times, the Lily has served not only for herbal and medicinal purposes, but also as nourishing food. As a garden subject today it is unsurpassed. Its glorious flowers and compelling form make it the most popular garden flower everywhere.

It is possible now to have an entire season of blooms from Lilies, according to the varieties planted. The Umbellatums are the very first to open with their brilliant bursts of scarlet and orange blooms. The tiny Tenuifoliums come next, and the procession of Lily blooms keeps on until the frost is under way. The Candidums and the Regales bloom in June, followed by the Henryi, Speciosum and Superbums in all their glory.

MADONNA LILIES (Candidum)

Known throughout the world as a symbol of purity. The universally known and loved Candidum is one of the most beautiful of all white Lilies to grace the garden. As shown in the picture, Madonna Lilies have heavy clusters of pure, pristine-white trumpet-like blooms, borne 3½ to 4 feet high on sturdy, attractive stalks.

The Madonna Lily is best planted in August and September, for unlike other Lilies, it starts its leaf growth early in the fall, producing a rosette of leaves that protects the plant better through the winter. It should be planted in a sunny, well-drained spot, and will thrive in any ordinary garden soil. Madonna Lilies require shallow planting only, with the top of the bulb placed an inch or two beneath the surface of the soil. They bloom in late June and early July.

Each 60c, Doz. $6.00

Mammoth Bulbs: Each $1.25, Doz. $12.50

LILIAM CANDIDUM

LILIAM UMBELLATUM

The Candlestick or Torch Lily so popular for use in the foreground of the mixed borders. The upright cup-shaped flowers of immense size are carried on short, sturdy, 12-inch stalks, and resemble chalices brimming over with precious wine. Easy to grow and establishing themselves quickly, they form large clumps of brilliant color in the June garden. Perfect for use as an edging..... Each 50c, Doz. $5.00

LILIAM TENUIFOLIUM

The charming Coral Lily is justly popular. It is an engaging little nymph, one of the first to bloom, rarely more than 18 inches tall, with lovely little recurved bells of brilliant scarlet on gleaming yellow. Its compact growth and bright color make it ideal for the rock garden or the low border. Likes a cool, damp loamy soil and partial shade. It is not a long lived specimen, and it is just as well to start a few new bulbs each year to keep your planting intact.

Tenuifolium..... 3 for $1.00, Doz. $3.50

Tenuifolium, Golden Gleam..... 3 for $1.50, Doz. $5.00

LILIAM TIGRINUM FORTUNEI

This is the hardiest of all Lilies. It thrives everywhere and will multiply readily. A handsome Lily, it is best used for bordering paths, along driveways or planted in front of the shrubbery. For massed color effect it is excellent. (We consider it a little rampant for the perennial border.)

The pinkish orange recurved blooms are carried on 3- to 4-foot stems in July. Plant bulbs 8 to 10 inches deep..... Each 50c, Doz. $5.00

LILIAM UMBELLATUM

CENTIFOLIUM HYBRID LILIES

Similar to their parent, the Regale Lily, these new hybrids even surpass their illustrious forbears for garden beauty. The flowers are immense white trumpets borne on stems 5 to 6 feet in height, and are delightfully fragrant and showy. While all are pure white inside, their external coloring varies from emerald-green through tints of pink, to brownish purple. They are very hardy and have the same general culture as the Regales, blooming from late July until August. Each 75c, Doz. $7.50

LILIUM SUPERBUM

The Superbum Lily, a native of the eastern coast of the United States is, as its name would imply, one of the very finest of all the Lilies. In late July the tall plants bear from 20 to 30 beautiful recurved flowers of varying hues, some being yellow spotted maroon, some being orange or even deep crimson, spotted black. It succeeds even in swampy land where other Lilies will not grow, and thrives in acid spots or in shade areas. Established plantings form clumps of several stalks which may reach 8 feet in height, proudly bearing the brilliant clusters of gracefully recurved flowers for which it is so justly famous. The Superbum Lily is a base-rooting variety and needs to be planted only 4 inches deep for best results. Each 50c, Doz. $5.00

REGALE LILIES

Of all Lilies the Regale is perhaps the most satisfactory for garden use here in America. The flowers are white with golden throats and golden anthers. They are luxuriantly fragrant and bloom in June and early July.

The Regal Lily is very floriferous, bearing as many as 20 flowers from a single bulb during the season. Each 50c, Doz. $5.00

Mammoth Bulbs: Each $1.00, Doz. $10.00

LILIUM SUPERBUM

REGAL LILY

Late Blooming LILIES

SPECIOSUM LILIES

Of all the choice recurved type of garden Lilies, the Speciosum are the best known and the best liked. Tall and sturdy plants carry their well-branched sprays of delicately scented flowers. Even the foliage is decorative. The stems are gracefully curved, and the leaves are long and slender. The reflexing flower petals have a thick, glossy substance. They stand up beautifully as a cut flower and will likewise last a long time in the garden. Speciosum Lilies are easily grown and like a sunny position. They flower in August and September and require little attention other than occasional watering during the dry spells.

As Speciosum Lilies are stem-rooting Lilies, they must be planted deep in the soil, 9 inches or more. Good drainage should be provided, and also ground-shading plants should be planted near the bulbs, as this Lily dearly loves to have its roots shaded. Speciosum also loves good, rich earth, but has two dislikes, lime and fresh manure, neither of which should be used.

LILIUM SPECIOSUM ALBUM

A beautiful snow-white Lily with a golden green stripe through the center of each petal. Will bloom along with Speciosum Magnificum and also grows about 4 feet tall. Each $1.50, Doz. $15.00

LILIUM SPECIOSUM MAGNIFICUM

An exotic cream-pink with a light edge and vivid display of crimson speckles. As shown in the picture, the petals are recurving and fluted on the edge. Exquisite form and coloring, and will grow 4 feet tall. It has few rivals for beauty and blooms in late August and early September. Each $1.00, Doz. $10.00

LILIUM SPECIOSUM MAGNIFICUM

LILIUM SPECIOSUM ALBUM

LILIUM HENRYI

LILIUM HENRYI

A beautiful, stately Lily growing from four to six feet in height. The strong stems carry six or more nodding flowers of recurving shape, of soft orange with emerald-green hearts (often called the Orange Speciosum). Liliium Henryi should be planted in a partially shaded location, and since it is stem rooting should be planted to a depth of about ten inches. A very dependable, healthy Lily, blooming in August. Each 75c, Doz. $7.50

Flowerfield's

Quality Bulbs – Roots – Plants – Since 1874

Flowerfield Bulb Farm was established on Long Island in the seed and bulb business in 1874 by John Lewis Childs, where it became one of the most reputable distributors and growers of its time. On through the years, this enviable reputation has remained with us today. We are justly proud of the part that Flowerfield has contributed to American horticulture, and the traditions in which it continues to serve. In this, our 73rd year, we again offer our customers that same kind of service and quality merchandise only experience and ability can supply.

Our farm of 360 acres is located at Flowerfield, Long Island, on route 25A. It may be of interest to our gardening friends to pay us a visit and see for themselves the acres of land devoted to the cultivation of Iris, Cannas, Gladiolus, Peonies and many other flowering plants grown at Flowerfield.
