LEAVENWORTH, KAS., APRIL 9th, 1874.

Gentlemen:—Will you please accept my many thanks for scions of Orange Pippin of New Jersey. They arrived in due time and in splendid condition. Indeed, such was the superior style of packing that they would have gone safely around the Globe.

Yours very truly,

WM. M. HOWSLEY.

PEACHES.

NEW VARIETIES.

AMSDEN'S JUNE.

There is no doubt that this is a peach as yet unequalled for earliness.

Country Gentleman, July 30, 1874.

The quality is excellent, and its remarkable earliness must make it valuable.—BARRY.

The Amsden, for so extremely early a peach, is truly a wonder for size and quality.

Country Gentleman, Jan. 14, 1875.

ALEXANDER'S EARLY.

It is very handsome; the flavor rich and good; flesh thick and firm. Will carry well long distances.—DOWNING.

We believe it to be one of the greatest acquisitions in the peach line ever introduced.—PURDY.

STEADLY.

It is by far the best very late peach I know of; larger and finer than "La Grange" or "Heath Cling," and at least ten days later. I have this from personal observation, as I know the original tree. It is a freestone, nine inches in circumference, and of exquisite flavor.—HUSMANN.

IMPROVED CHICKSAW.

DE CARADEUC,

LANGDON,

NEWMAN'S.

These Plums, ripening as they do, at different seasons, from early to late, together with the Wild Goose variety, form a new class that promises well. Having many good qualities as to growth, hardiness, and for market, and being less affected by the Curculio than the varieties of plums now cultivated, they may prove of decided value.

The names in Italics are current synonyms of the varieties immediately preceding in SMALL CAPITALS.

CURRENT BUSHES.

We would respectfully invite the attention of the trade to our stock of Currant Bushes, both one and two years old. To avoid as much detail as possible, and thereby produce the best plants for the least money, we have confined our list of varieties to only one — the best one — of each class. We have, however, a very fine stock of both CHERRY and LA VERSAILLES, to supply those who desire both, although there is but little, if any, difference in the two. Our stock of La Versailles is very fine, and includes the entire stock of No. 1 plants, of A. C. TAYLOR, Southport, Connecticut, so well and favorably known as a grower of Currant Bushes.

The varieties we have to offer, are

CHERRY,

LA VERSAILLES,

RED DUTCH,

WHITE GRAPE,

BLACK NAPLES.

Our SEMI-ANNUAL TRADE LIST, giving sizes and prices, will be issued in August.
