VERBENAS,

GREENHOUSE AND BEDDING PLANTS, &c.

CULTIVATED AND SOLD AT

THE DU PAGE COUNTY NURSERIES,

NAPERVILLE, ILL.

ADVERTISEMENT.

In presenting this edition of my annual Plant Catalogue, I take great pleasure in being able to announce to my patrons and the public generally, that I have largely increased my general stock of Roses, Greenhouse and Bedding Plants, and have added to it many of the newest choice varieties. All my stock is in a remarkable thrifty, healthy condition.

When the selection of varieties is left to me I shall send such stock as I think will best please the purchaser.

All articles sent out are packed with care and in such a manner as to secure safe transit to any part of the country. Many letters received from purchasers, even as far distant as the Pacific coast, attest to this fact.

In order to meet the wishes of those of my patrons who desire to purchase small sized plants at reduced prices, I have with some varieties made prices for the respective sizes.

Bulbs & Small Plants sent by Mail, POSTAGE PREPAID.

Purchasers who desire, can order Bulbs and small plants sent by mail, in amount not less than one dollar. I have sent plants long distances in this manner safely. (See list).

Parties ordering should give plain directions how they wish their articles forwarded and to whom consigned. Where no route is designated, I shall send by the one I deem best—but in no case will I hold myself responsible for any loss or damage that may occur after delivery to the forwarder.

TERMS CASH. Orders from unknown correspondents, unless accompanied by a remittance or satisfactory reference, will be sent by Express C. O. D.

I publish the following catalogues:

No. 1.—Descriptive Catalogue of Fruits,

No. 2.—Descriptive Catalogue of Ornamental Trees, Shrubs, Roses, Plants, &c.

No. 3.—Descriptive Catalogue of Roses, Greenhouse and Bedding Plants, &c.

NEW PLANTS,

AND OTHERS OF SPECIAL MERIT.

COLEUS.—Chameleon.

One of the most beautiful and distinct varieties yet introduced. The ground color of the leaf is a carmine pink, splashed with dark maroon, and the edges are fringed with yellow. Every leaf contains different shades. Ready April 15.

Price 50 cents. $4.00 per dozen.

BEGONIA WELTONIENSIS.

Flowers a rich shade of pink, stem bright crimson, a free bloomer during summer, autumn and winter. Price 30 cents each, $3.00 per dozen.

NEW DAHLIAS (See special list, page 17.)

ROUND FLOWERED ZONALES, "HARRY KING."

HARRY KING is said to be the most magnificent vivid crimson Zonale ever sent out; trusses immense, color intense and brilliant scarlet, large white eye; flower remains in greater perfection longer than any other Zonale; it has also the valuable property of keeping its centre well filled up. Its only fault is, having a rather long straggling habit; but this is easily remedied by simply taking out the points of each shoot, which will cause it to branch out freely on all sides. Price 50 cents each. Plants ready to send out May 1st.

PETUNIAS, NEW DOUBLE, 1873.

Goliath.—Crimson lilac.

Marmorata.—White spotted rose.

Sable Queen.—purple maroon.

Snowball.—Pure white.

PRICE—50 cents each : $4.50 per dozen.

FUCHSIAS, IMPORTATION 1873.

All recommended as very fine.

Beauty of Sherwood.—Sepals nearly white; corolla violet.

Bismarck.—Crimson sepals; corolla plum color.

Brilliant.—Well reflexed, pinkish white sepals; corolla red.

Dolly Varden.—Very large flower; corolla double, dark violet.

Empire.—Corolla white.

Gem.—Sepals elegantly reflexed; corolla plum color.

Price 75 cents each; $3 per set.

WHITE TEA ROSE—"BELLA."

Flowers pure white, borne on long foot stalks. It is one of the best white monthly roses in cultivation.

PRICE 50 cents and $1.00 each; $4.50 to $9.00 per dozen, according to size.

TEA ROSE—Bon Silene.

One of the most valuable varieties for house culture, and for florists, for forcing for winter flowers. It is a true Tea Rose, very fragrant. The color is peculiar, a blending of purple and carmine, with a slight shade of orange. The buds are of elegant shape.

Large plants $1.00 each; second size 50 cents each; $4.50 per doz.

NEW HYBRID BOURBON ROSE.—“Peerless.”

It is perfectly hardy, flowers in immense clusters of rich crimson; double, of fine form, and very fragrant.

PRICE—for large plants, $1.50 each; for smaller plants, 75 cts. each.

NEW BICOLOR GERANIUM—Pride of Mount Hope.

This is a seedling of Ellwanger & Barry's. Its foliage is large, of a brilliant yellow color, with broad chocolate zone; unlike all other Bronze Geraniums this succeeds best under the hottest sun. The bright colors of the leaves do not appear on plants grown in the shade or under glass. Its vigorous habit and highly colored foliage promises to make it a very effective and valuable plant for borders, edgings, etc. It certainly is far more effective than any tri-color yet introduced. Plants ready May 1st.

PRICE $1.00 each.

SELECT TEA ROSES OF RECENT INTRODUCTION.

Countess of Brossard—Deep Canary yellow.

Countess de la Bath—Rosy salmon, shaded amber, extra fine; a splendid rose.

Catharine Indignot—Bright yellow, shaded with salmon.

Countess Ouwaroff—Bright red, shaded rose, very fine.

Mad. Hippolite Jamain—Coppery-yellow center, margined white.

Mad. Margottin—Deep orange yellow, changing to red.

Monplaisier—Deep orange yellow and salmon, large and very double, of vigorous growth; a great acquisition; seedling of Gloire de Dijon.

Reine de Portugal—Deep yellow, shaded with rose, very large, double, and fine.

PRICE—3 inch pots, 50 cents; $5 per dozen. Large plants in 4 and 5 inch pots, each, 75 cents; $7.50 per dozen.

NEW VERBENAS, SELECT VARIETIES (SEEDLINGS, 1873).

Blue Jacket—Bright blue, green eye.

Bodine—Dark crimson scarlet; large white eye.

Chieftain—Dark scarlet; dark crimson eye.

Flavia—Crimson, shaded dark crimson.

Glorious—White, striped with bright carmine; pea-green eye; fine.

Hector—Royal purple, dark eye.

Le Grand—Purple and white striped; dark eye; fine.

Meteor—White, shaded and striped with carmine and lilac.

Queen of the Whites—Pure white.

Rosetta—Deep pink, large green eye; flower and truss very large.

PRICE—Each, 20 cents; per dozen, $1.75. The set of ten varieties, $1.50.

NEW TEA ROSE—“IL ROMA.”

Full, double; exquisite in its half opened bud; a constant bloomer; delightful tea fragrance.

The outer petals shaded red, often dark at the base; inner petals creamy white, tinged with rose, nearly yellow at the base.

PRICE—$1.00 each.

FRANZENBERGER. 50.

NEW BICOLOR GERANIUM—"PRIDE OF MOUNT HOPE,"

ROSES.

PREPARATION OF SOIL, &c.—The ground should be spaded from 12 to 18 inches deep, intermixing with rotted manure or compost. Plant carefully; then mulch the plants, or stir the surface of the soil frequently, leaving it loose; either will keep the ground from drying and becoming hard.

PROTECTION.—In autumn before freezing, mound earth or compost around each bush, in such form as to allow the tops to be bent down without breaking, or severely straining the stems; over this place a thick covering (a foot or more deep) of dry leaves. Over this place straw with brush or strips of board to prevent the wind from carrying the leaves away. In this manner many of the tender varieties of roses may be kept through the winter.

CULTURE.—In the spring when the severe freezing is past, and before the leaves have started, the covering should be removed, the plants should be slightly shaded for a few days with straw or other material, after which the ground should be put in condition for summer culture. A dressing of the "Rose Fertilizer" (of which I have a supply; see notice in this Catalogue) will be highly beneficial to the growth of the plant, and to the perfection of the blossom.

SELECTION.—Purchasers not thoroughly conversant with the different classes and varieties of roses, should leave the selection to me, as my knowledge of the habits of growth and blooming qualities will enable me to make a selection, which will continue to bloom through the season, and until severe freezing in autumn. The more tender classes are the most constant bloomers. The extra care for winter protection will be more than compensated by the profusion of their bloom.

COLLECTION.—The following lists embrace most of the leading well-known sorts, also many new and very desirable varieties, all grown on their own roots:

PRICES OF ROSES.

Reine de Portugal—Deep yellow, shaded with rose, very large, double and fine. 75 cents.

Safrano—Deep, sulphur yellow, shaded with rose.

Triomphe de Luxembourg—Buff rose, very large, distinct.

China or Bengal Roses.

This class, the "Chinese," is particularly adapted to massing on lawns, and in gardens, being brilliant in colors, and constant and abundant bloomers. They are dwarf growers and are universal favorites for house culture in the winter.

For prices see page—

Agrippina—Rich, velvety crimson.

Archduke Charles—Rosy crimson, large flower, beautiful.

Buret—Deep rose, fine.

Cels—Blush, a profuse bloomer, large size.

Cramoise Superior—Purplish crimson, one of the very best.

Louis Phillippe—Rich, dark crimson, light centre.

White Daily—Creamy white, pretty.

Climbing Roses.

These roses are universal favorites, and are too well known to need much description. They are admirably adapted for covering walls, trellises, old trees, unsightly buildings, &c. Most of the varieties are hardy, though it is best to give them a slight protection during the winter.

PRICE—Except where noted, 50 cents each. My selection of varieties, $4.00 per dozen. One year old layers, each 25 cents. My selection of varieties, $2.00 per dozen.

Anna Maria—Delicate rose, medium size, clusters large.

Baltimore Belle—Pale blush, nearly white, full and double.

Eva Corrinne—Light pink, large, full and double.

Gem of the Prairies—Carmine crimson, occasionally blotched with white; flowers in July; similar in habit to the "Queen of the Prairies." A cross between that variety and "Madam Laffay." $1.00 each.

Jane—Rosy blush, double and finely shaped.

Mrs. Pierce—Delicate blush; very fine.

Palida—Very pale blush, perfectly double.

Pride of Washington—Rosy violet, very double, distinct.

Queen of the Prairies—Large, deep rose colored, often with a white stripe, very vigorous.

Russelliana—Brilliant red, blooms in large clusters.

Seven Sisters—Clusters large, flowers of different colors, from blush to crimson.

Triumphant—Deep rose, very double and compact; distinct.

Miscellaneous Roses.

Aureti—Blackish purple; globular and double; 50 cents.

George IV.—Dark velvety crimson, shaded with purple; very large and fine; 50 cents.

Harrison Yellow—Double yellow; very showy and fine; 50 cents.

Madam Plantier—Pure white; blooms in clusters; very fine; 50 cents.

Sweet Briar—Blush; very fragrant; 25 to 50 cents.

Herbaceous Paeonies.

Showy, beautiful, sweet-scented flowers; they are easily cultivated and make a beautiful appearance in the garden.

PRICE.—Except where noted, each 50 cents. $4.00 per dozen.

Albicans Plena—Double, rosy pink, tending to white; blooms early and late.

Centripetalla—Outside petals large, center petals broad, with a row of petals, beautifully fringed, between the outside and center ones; color, deep rosy pink.

Diversifolia—White petals outside, straw-colored inside; petals fringed. A fine variety.

Edulis Alba

Festiva—Pure white; a few marks of carmine on the centre; perfectly globular; deep rose tinged with fawn color.

Fragrans Rosea—Lively rose, large and double; fragrant.

Humeii—Purplish rose, full and double, large and showy; one of the latest bloomers.

Plenissima Rosea Superba—Very large and double; globular; deep rose tinged with fawn color.

Potsii—Dark purplish crimson; distinct and fine.

Rubra—Large, double, crimson.

Reevesii—Delicate rose purple; fringed petals, clouded centre.

Victoria Modesta—Outside petals rosy violet, center ones lined with salmon stripes; large and double.

Victoria Tricolor—Outside petals light rose, mottled with pink; center ones creamy white with a few red marks; large and full.

Whitleji—White, centre slightly yellowish; very large and sweet; blooms in clusters.

Phlox.

The Phlox is one of the finest and most showy of all the herbaceous perennials, and a well-assorted collection of them, when properly cared for, constitutes almost of themselves a beautiful flower garden, and can be continued in bloom from May until late Fall.

Our stock of these plants embraces all shades, from white to deep crimson.

PRICE.—Per plant, 25 cents. Per dozen plants, our selection, $2.00.

Chrysanthemum.

The Chrysanthemum is one of the most showy flowers for blooming in late Fall and early winter. The Pompon, or Daisy varieties are the most desirable, being dwarf in habit, and therefore more suited for pot culture than the large flowering varieties.

PRICE.—Except where noted, 25 cents; $2.50 per dozen.

Alba Grandiflora—Pure white; large flowered.

Alex. Peel—Cinnamon.

Bouquet Blanche—Pure white.

Gen. Canrobert—Canary yellow.

Glorie de Mazarque.

Iffigeana—Light rose.

Jongleur—Bright yellow, tinged with rose.

New Compion.

Sunset—Carmine and orange.

Monthly or Tree Carnations.

These plants are invaluable for summer blooming in the garden, and for winter blooming in the green-house, conservatory or parlor. The delicately rich and grateful fragrance of the flowers, which embrace nearly every shade and marking, will always secure for them a prominent place.

The following list is composed of some of the best varieties in cultivation:

PRICE—My selection of varieties —

Ariadne—Pure white.

Brightness—Dark pink, faintly marked with carmine.

Clio—Rosy carmine; flowers medium size.

Crimson Clove—Scarlet crimson; very fragrant.

Hebe—Flower very large and double; pure white, lightly striped with rose pink; beautiful.

SPECIAL LIST

— OF —

SHRUBS, ROSES, GREEN-HOUSE PLANTS, BULBS, &c.

BY MAIL, POSTAGE PRE-PAID.

ALL PLANTS READY TO MAIL NOW.

For the convenience of those living at a distance from express offices, I offer to send the following plants by mail, postage prepaid, where orders amount to not less than one dollar, one-fourth dozen plants will be sent at dozen rates.

The Plants are generally smaller than those in my general lists, from the necessity of reducing the weight, but are healthy and vigorous. The Plants will be packed in the best manner possible, with a view of their safe arrival in any part of the country.

There are other sorts in my general collection which can be sent by mail. Broad-leaved plants cannot be sent with the same safety as by express.

Where it can be done conveniently to purchasers, it is better to order them sent by the latter mode.

When plants are sent by mail or out of pots by express, before the season is warm enough to plant in the open ground, they should be potted in pots, or planted in boxes in any good, rich soil, and shade for a few days if exposed to the sun; water sparingly until they begin to grow freely. Keep the room or green-house in which they are placed, as nearly as possible, between fifty and sixty degrees; if kept in a parlor or sitting-room, place as near the light as possible.

Cash must always accompany an order where plants are to be sent by mail.

EXTRACTS FROM CORRESPONDENCE.

The following are but a very few of the many flattering commendations I have received from all parts of the country.

I insert these few only for the purpose of showing that plants sent out by me are received by customers in good condition, and that the orders are satisfactorily filled.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, March 16th, 1873.

I received the plants in good condition, and am well pleased with them. Thank you for shipping so promptly.

S. BOWER.

DENVER, Colorado, March 16th, 1873.

Plants shipped by you came all right; much longer on the way than they should have been. Am well pleased with them; they are certainly the largest and finest lot of plants, taking them altogether, that I have received in five years.

Your bill is extremely low for such plants as you have sent me.

E. D. MARION.

FOND-DU-LAC, Wis., April 4th, 1873.

Plants received in good order. Shall send for more soon.

A. P. JONES.

DULUTH, Minn., April 14th, 1873

Plants received in first-rate condition. We are much pleased with them.

ZASPEL & HILL.

IOWA FALLS, Iowa, May 17th, 1873.

The plants you sent me were in fine order, and are really beautiful; they are much cheaper than I expected.

MRS. J. L. ESTES.

EVANSTON, Ill., December 6th, 1873.

The plants are the fairest selection and best packed lot I ever had.

ARTHUR C. DUCAT.

CHICAGO, May 7th, 1873.

Our gardner says that the shrubbery, &c., are superior, and in good condition, for which I am under obligations to you.

BRYAN LATHROP.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., January 22d, 1874.

Bill of plants received; all right and satisfactory.

F. A. BALLER.

PARIS, Ill., February 7th, 1874.

The plants, &c., were received in due time, and in good order.

W. B. CALDWELL.

FREEPORT, Ill., February 9th, 1874.

I neglected last summer to tell you how entirely to my satisfaction you had filled the order for roses sent in the spring. The roses reached me in most excellent condition. I did not lose one of the entire lot, though the drouth was very severe.

MRS. OSCAR TAYLOR.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, February 17th, 1874.

Plants came to hand in good order, are potted, and look as if they had grown here from cutting-bed.

W. A. HARKETT.

CLINTON, Iowa, February 13th, 1874.

Plants here, and in splendid condition; packing all that any one could desire.

ENNIS & PATTON.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, March 9th, 1874.

The plants (roses) which you sent us were received in excellent condition, and are quite satisfactory; really fine plants for the price you sell them at.

H. L. BRYAN & SONS.
