26 GEORGII II. REGIS.

An Act for the Purchase of the Museum, or Collection of Sir Hans Sloane, and of the Harleian Collection of Manuscripts; and for providing One General Repository for the better Reception and more convenient Use of the said Collections; and of the Cottonian Library, and of the Additions thereto.

WHEREAS Sir Hans Sloane of Chelsea, in the County of Middlesex Baronet, having, through the Course of many Years, with great Labour and Expence, gathered together whatever could be procured either in our own or foreign Countries, that was rare and curious, did, by a Codicil bearing Date the Twentieth Day of July in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, and annexed to his last Will and Preamble, reciting the Codicil to the Will of Sir Hans Sloane.

Testament, after having expressed his Will and Desire that his Collection, in all its Branches, might be, if it were possible, kept and preserved together Whole and Intire, in his Manor House in the Parish of Chelsea, give, devise, and bequeath, to certain Trustees therein named, all that his Collection or Museum, at, in, or about, his said Manor House, consisting of all his Library of Books, Drawings, Manuscripts, Prints, Medals, and Coins, ancient and modern, Seals, Cameas, and Intaglios, Precious Stones, Agates, Jaspers, Vessels of Agate and Jasper, Chrystals, Mathematical Instruments, Drawings, and Pictures, and all other Things in the said Collection or Museum, more particularly described and numbered, with short Histories or Accounts of them, with proper References in certain Catalogues by him made, containing Thirty-eight Volumes in Folio, and Eight Volumes in Quarto, (except such Pictures as are not marked with the Word Collection), to have and to hold to them and their Successors and Assigns for ever, for such Purposes, and with such Powers, and under such Restrictions, as in the said Codicil are expressed, willing and desiring thereby, that the said Trustees, or any Seven or more of them, should make their humble Application to His Majesty, or to Parliament, at the next Session after his Decease, as should be thought most proper, in order to pay the full and clear Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, of lawful Money of Great Britain; unto his Executors, or the Survivors of them, within Twelve Months after his Decease, in Consideration of the said Collection or Museum; and also to obtain such sufficient and effectual Powers and Authorities for vesting in the said Trustees, all and every Part of his said Collection or Museum before-mentioned, in all its Branches; and also his said Capital Manor House, with such Gardens and Out-houses as should thereunto belong and be used by him at the Time of his Decease, and also the Water of or belonging to his Manor of Chelsea coming from Kensington; and also obtain a sufficient Fund or Provision for maintaining and taking Care of his said Collection and Premises, and for repairing and supporting his said Manor House, Water-work, and Premises; but in case Payment of the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds should not be had and obtained, and made unto his Executors, or the Survivors of them, within Twelve Months next after his Decease, and no such Act of Parliament should be obtained, for settling, preserving, establishing, maintaining, and continuing, his said Collection and Premisses, in such Manner as in his said Codicil is expressed, then, and not otherwise, his Will was, and he did in such Case thereby direct, That his said Executors, or the Survivors of them, should, for the like Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, sell and dispose of all and every Part of the said Collection and Museum, as before described, together with the Catalogues thereto belonging, for the Use of the several foreign Academies therein described, and in the Manner therein mentioned; and that in case the said offer should not be accepted by either of the said foreign Academies, his Executors, or the Survivors of them, should be at Liberty with all convenient Speed to sell and dispose of all and every Part of his said Museum or Collection, in the most speedy and advantageous Manner; and that the Monies arising by such Sale or Disposition should be considered as Part of his Personal Estate; and further his Will was, and he did thereby direct, That in case his said Collection should be sold or disposed of to either of the said foreign Academies, or in case of their Refusal, or Non-acceptance by his Executors, or the Survivors of them, that then his said Manor House and Garden, with the Appurtenances and the Water, should go and belong to such Person or Persons, and in such Manner, as he had given and devised the Rest of his Manors, Lands, and Tenements, at Chelsea, or elsewhere, as by the said Codicil, Relation being thereunto had, may more fully and at large appear : And whereas the said Sir Hans Sloane having, by several other Codicils of a subsequent Date, annexed to his said Will, added to the Number of the said Trustees, did, on or about the Eleventh Day of January One thousand seven hundred and fifty-three, depart this Life : And whereas the said Trustees, or Seven or more of them, have, pursuant to the Will and Intention of the said Sir Hans Sloane, in this Session of Parliament, being the next Session after his Decease, made their Application for Payment of the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, in consideration of the said Collection or Museum : And whereas the said Trustees, at a General Meeting assembled, have consented to the Removal of the said Museum or Collection from the Manor House at Chelsea, to any proper Place within the Cities of London or Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof, if such Removal shall be judged most advantageous to the Publick, so as the said Collection be preserved intire without the least Diminution or Separation, and be kept for the Use and Benefit of the Publick, with free Access to view and peruse the same, at all stated and convenient Seasons agreeable to the Will and Intentions of the Testator, and under such Restrictions as the Parliament shall think fit: And whereas the said Museum or Collection of Sir Hans Sloane is of much greater intrinsick Value than the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds: And whereas all Arts and Sciences have a Connection with each other, and Discoveries in Natural Philosophy, and other Branches of speculative Knowledge, for the Advancement and Improvement whereof the said Museum or Collection was intended, do and may, in many Instances, give Help and Success to the most useful Experiments and Inventions; therefore to the End that the said Museum or Collection may be preserved and maintained, not only for the Inspection and Entertainment of the Learned and the Curious, but for the General Use and Benefit of the Publick; may it please Your most Excellent Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That out of all or any of the Monies to be raised by virtue of this Act, the full and clear sum of Twenty thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, shall be paid in Manner herein-after mentioned to the Executors of Sir Hans Sloane, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, in full Satisfaction for the said Museum or Collection herein-before described, and for the Use of the said Manor House and Garden, with their Appurtenances, and of the said Water, until a more convenient Repository, more durable and more safe from Fire, and nearer to the chief Places of Publick Resort, shall be provided for the Reception of the said Museum or Collection, in Manner herein-after mentioned.

The Sum of 20,000*l.* to be paid to the Executors of Sir Hans Sloane, in full Satisfaction for his Museum, &c.

And whereas by an act, made in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of the Reign of King

Recital of Clauses in the Act of 12 & 13

Will. III. concerning the Cottonian
Library.

William the Third, intituled, An Act for the better settling and preserving the Library kept in the House at Westminster, called Cotton House, in the Name and Family of the Cottons, for the Benefit of the Publick, reciting, That Sir Robert Cotton, late of Connington, in the County of Huntingdon, Baronet, did, at his own great Charge, and by the Assistance of the most learned Antiquaries of his Time, collect and purchase the most useful Manuscripts, written Books, Papers, Parchments, Records, and other Memorials, in most Languages, of great Use and Service for the Knowledge and Preservation of our Constitution both in Church and State; and further reciting, That the said Library had been preserved with the utmost Care by Sir Thomas Cotton, Son of the said Sir Robert, and by Sir John Cotton, then living, Grandson of the said Sir Robert; and had been very much augmented by them, and lodged in a very proper Place in the said Sir John's ancient Mansion House at Westminster, for publick Use and Advantage; it was enacted, That the said Mansion House, with the Garden, and all other Appurtenances, and also the said Library, should be vested in Trustees in the said Act named, and their Successors, for ever, for the Purposes therein mentioned; and as for and concerning the said Library, and the Room wherein the same was or should be contained, together with a convenient Passage for resorting thereunto, upon this Trust and Confidence, that the said Trustees, and their Successors, should, from Time to Time, and at all Times thereafter, as Occasion should require, inspect, consult, and take Care of the said Library, and other Particulars above-mentioned, and also make and appoint such Orders and Rules as they should think proper, for the reading and using the same, and for their better Preservation, and to the Intent and Purpose that the said Trustees, or the major Part of them, should nominate and appoint a good and sufficient Person, well read in Antiquities and Records, to have the immediate Care and Custody of the said Library: And whereas by an Act, made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and in the Act of 5 Anna. intituled, An Act for the better securing Her Majesty's Purchase of Cotton House in Westminster; reciting the said former Act, made in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of the Reign of King William the Third; and also reciting, that since the making of the said Act, very little had been done in pursuance thereof, to make the said Library useful to the Publick, except what had been then lately done at Her Majesty's Charge, and that there was no Way or Passage to set it out, as the said Act did direct, nor could there be any Way or Passage to the same, but through the best Rooms of the House, which would render the House wholly useless to the Family; so that the Library could not be resorted unto, nor had any Orders or Rules been appointed for reading or using the same, and thereby the Publick was wholly deprived of the Benefit designed by the said Act; and that the Place wherein the said Library was then contained, was a narrow little Room, damp and improper for preserving the Books and Papers; and that Her Majesty, to the Intent so great a Treasure of Books and Manuscripts, so generously given for the publick Service, might not remain any longer useless, and in Danger of perishing for Want of due Care, and that it might be in Her Majesty's Power to make that most valuable Collection useful to Her own Subjects, and all learned Foreigners, had given Directions for treating with the said Sir John Cotton, for the Purchase of the said Cotton House and Garden; and that an Agreement had been made for the purchasing the Inheritance thereof for the Sum of four Thousand and five Hundred Pounds, which Her Majesty had directed to be paid on the investing the Inheritance of the Premises in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, which could not be done but by Act of Parliament, the said recited Act having directed it might not be sold or aliened; it was therefore enacted, That the said Capital Messuage called Cotton House, and the Garden and Buildings used and enjoyed with the same, with the Appurtenances, should be vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs, and Successors: And it was thereby further enacted and declared, That a convenient Room should be built in or near Part of the said Ground thereby intended to be vested in Her Majesty, as Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, should, by Writing, under the Sign Manual, appoint; in which Room when built, all the said Manuscripts, written Books, Papers, Parchments, Records, and other Memorials, as also all Coins, Medals, and other Rarities and Curiosities in the said Library contained, should be lodged and there remain to all Posterity; and that the said Room when built, should for ever be called and known by the Name of the Cottonian Library; and that from the Building thereof, the said Library should be managed and directed by the Trustees therein named, as Trustees to and for the Use of the Publick for ever: And whereas although the publick Faith hath been thus engaged to provide for the better Reception and more convenient Use of the Cottonian Library, a proper Repository for that purpose hath not yet been prepared; for the want of which, the said Library did, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and thirty-one, suffer by a Fire, which consumed the House wherein the same was then placed, and what remains of the said Library still continues in the Room, to which upon the Occasion of the said Fire it was removed; and Persons desirous to view and consult the Treasure of Books and Manuscripts therein contained, cannot conveniently resort there-

Recital of Part of the Will of Arthur Edwards, Esq.

unto: And whereas Arthur Edwards, late of Saint George Hanover Square, in the County of Middlesex, Esquire, being desirous to preserve for the publick Use the said Library, and to prevent the like Accident for the future, did, by his last Will and Testament, bearing Date the Eleventh Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and thirty-eight, and duly proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, give, devise, and bequeath, unto the Trustees of the said Library, the Sum of Seven thousand Pounds (if his Effects real and Personal, not before disposed of by that his Will and Testament, should, after the Decease of Mistress Elizabeth Milles, amount to so much) to erect in a proper Situation such a House as might be most likely to preserve that Library, as much as can be, from all Accidents; but if it should so happen, that before this Part of his Will could take Place, there should be erected such a proper Building for this Use, then he did give, devise, and bequeath, the aforesaid Sum of Seven thousand Pounds to the said Trustees, to be employed in purchasing such Manuscripts, Books of Antiquities, ancient Coins, Medals, and other Curiosities, as might be worthy to increase and enlarge the said Library; and did also thereby give to the said Trustees of the said Library, to be placed in some By-room or Corner thereof, all his Books, and the Cases in which they were then placed, and also his Pictures in his said Last Will and Testament described; which Books, Book Cases, and Pictures, he did desire and require might be delivered and given, as soon after his Decease as might be, to be placed in the said Library; and which, with the Approbation of the said Trustees, have been placed according to such Desire in the said Library; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and as soon as the said Legacy of Seven thousand Pounds shall on the Decease of the said Elizabeth Milles become payable to the Trustees of the Cottonian Library, the same shall be paid to the Trustees by this Act appointed, for the Purposes herein-after mentioned, or to such Person or Persons as by the said Trustees, or the major Part of them, in any General Meeting assembled, shall be authorized to receive the same; to be applied by the said Trustees hereby appointed, either towards erecting or providing a proper Repository for the Cottonian Library; or if such Repository shall be erected or provided before the said

The said Legacy of 7000*l.* on the Decease of Elizabeth Milles, to be paid to and applied by the Trustees appointed by this Act.

Legacy shall become payable as aforesaid, towards purchasing such Manuscripts, Books of Antiquities, ancient Coins, Medals, and other Curiosities, as may be worthy to increase and enlarge the said Library; and that the Acquittance of any Person or Persons authorized by the said Trustees, or the major Part of them, in a General Meeting assembled to receive the said Legacy of Seven thousand Pounds, shall be, and be accepted as a sufficient Discharge to the Executors and Representatives of the said Testator, for the Payment of the said Legacy.

And whereas the Right Honourable Henrietta Cavendish Holles, Countess of Oxford and Countess Mortimer, Relict of Edward Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, and the Most Noble Margaret Cavendish Dutchess of Portland their only Daughter, have expressed their Approbation of a Proposal for the Purchase of the valuable Collection of Manuscripts, collected by the said Earl, and by Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer his Father, in Consideration of the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds, upon Condition that the same shall be kept together in a proper Repository, as an Addition to the Cottonian

PRIVATE ACTS, C. 3.

Extract of an Act for vesting Montagu House in Trustees and their Heirs, freed and discharged from all the Estates, Uses, and Agreements, to which, at present, it stands limited and appointed upon Trust to convey the same to the Trustees of The British Museum, for a General Repository, and upon such other Trusts as therein are mentioned.

WHEREAS Ralph late Duke of Montagu being seised in his Demesne, as of Fee, of all that capital Messuage or Mansion House, commonly called Montagu House, with the Gardens and Appurtenances thereto belonging, situate in Great Russel Street, in the Parish of Saint George Bloomsbury, (late part of the Parish of Saint Giles in the Fields) in the County of Middlesex, subject to a Yearly Rent of Five Pounds issuing thereout by his last Will and Testament, bearing Date the 21st Day of August, 1707, devised the same among his other Estates in England to his Son John then Marquis of Monthermer, and afterwards Duke of Montagu, for his Life with remainder, &c. &c. &c.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Purchase of the Museum or Collection of Sir Hans Sloane, and of the Harleian Collection of Manuscripts, and for providing one General Repository for the better Reception and more convenient Use of the said Collections, and of the Cottonian Library, and of the Additions thereto, it was enacted, That, within the Cities of London or Westminster, or the Suburbs thereof, one General Repository should be erected or provided in such convenient Place, and in such Manner as the Trustees, in the said Act named and appointed, or the major Part of them, at a General Meeting assembled, should direct for the Reception not only of the said Museum or Collection of Sir Hans Sloane, but also of the Cottonian Library, and of the Additions which had been or should be made thereto by Virtue of the last Will and Testament of Arthur Edwards, Esquire, and likewise of the said Harleian Collection of Manuscripts, and of such other Additions to the Cottonian Library, as with the Approbation of the said Trustees by the said Act appointed, or the major Part of them at a General Meeting assembled, should be made thereunto in Manner as in the said Act it was after-mentioned, and of such other Collections and Libraries as with the like Approbation should be admitted into the said General Repository, which several Collections, Additions, and Library so received unto the said General Repository should remain and be preserved therein for publick Use to all Posterity. And whereas at a General Meeting of the said Trustees held at the Cockpit at Whitehall, on the Third Day of April, One thousand Seven hundred and Fifty-four, it was resolved to accept of a Proposal which had been made of the said capital Mansion House called Montagu House, and the said Freehold Ground thereto belonging, for the General Repository of the British Museum, on the Terms of Ten thousand Pounds, at which Price the same had been offered to be Sold for the said

Trustees, including the Leasehold Interest of the Piece of Ground therewith enjoyed; in Pursuance of which said Resolution by certain Articles of Agreement in writing, bearing Date the 3d Day of June following, and made between the said Sir Edward Montagu, and the said Isabella Dutchess Dowager of Manchester, the said George Earl of Cardigan, and Mary Countess of Cardigan of the one Part, and the said Trustees of the British Museum of the other Part, it was covenanted and agreed, that, in Consideration of the said Sum of Ten thousand Pounds, they the said Sir Edward Montagu, and the said Isabella Dutchess Dowager of Manchester, the said George Earl of Cardigan, and Mary Countess of Cardigan, and all and every other Person or Persons seised, possessed of, or intituled unto the said Freehold and Leasehold Premises, in Trust for them or any of them, should and would convey to and to the Use of the said Trustees, their Successors and Assigns for ever, or to whom they should appoint the said Mansion House, Gardens, and Appurtenances belonging and likewise assign to them the said Leasehold Premises in Manner as therein-mentioned. And whereas although by the said recited Act of the 9th Year of his late Majesty King George the First, the said Isabella Dutchess Dowager of Manchester, and the said Mary Countess of Cardigan are enabled to suffer a Recovery, and thereby bar the Intails and Remainders, created by the said recited Will of the said Ralph Duke of Montagu, yet as the uses of such Recovery if suffered are thereby restrained to be limited according to the Agreements in the said Articles contained in the said Act mentioned, under which the said Isabella Dutchess Dowager of Manchester, and Mary Countess of Cardigan will be but Tenants for Life, they are not able without the further Aid and Assistance of an Act of Parliament to make a Title in Fee Simple, and convey the said Mansion House, Gardens, and Appurtenances according to the said Agreement to the Trustees of the British Museum as aforesaid, Wherefore, and to the end that the said recited Articles of Agreement, bearing Date the 3d June 1754 as aforesaid, may be carried into Execution, and that the Money arising by the Sale of the said Mansion House, Gardens, and Appurtenances may be equally divided between them, the said Isabella Dowager Dutchess of Manchester, and Mary Countess of Cardigan, that is to say, Five thousand Pounds, to each of them, and to be vested in Trust to be laid out in other Freehold Premises to be settled to the same uses and Trusts, as the said Mansion House, Gardens, and Appurtenances, are in and by the said recited Articles, dated the 1st of January, 1722, and the said recited Act confirming the same limited and settled, and by virtue thereof, the said Isabella Dutchess Dowager of Manchester, and the said Mary Countess of Cardigan, do now hold and enjoy the same, and that the said Trustees of the British Museum may be indemnified on the payment of the said Sum of Ten thousand Pounds for the Purposes aforesaid, against the said Uses and Trusts, they the said Sir Edward Montagu, and the said Isabella Dutchess Dowager of Manchester, the said George Earl of Cardigan, and Mary Countess of Cardigan, Humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be Enacted, And be it therefore Enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all that Capital Messuage or Mansion House, commonly called Montagu House, with the Gardens and Appurtenances thereunto belonging, situate in Great Russel Street in the Parish of Saint George Bloomsbury, in the said County of Middlesex, be vested in and settled upon, and the said Capital Messuage, Mansion House, Gardens, and Appurtenances, are hereby vested in and settled upon the Right Hon. George Earl of Halifax, and William Folkes Esq. their Heirs and Assigns, absolutely freed and discharged of and from all the Estates, Uses, Trusts, Powers, Limitations, Provisoes, Charges and Agreements whatsoever, limited, created, expressed and declared of and concerning the same, in and by the said recited last Will and Testament, of the said Ralph Duke of Montagu, and the said Articles of Agreement herein-before recited, and mentioned in the said Act of Parliament, and confirmed by the said Act in Trust nevertheless to convey and assure in Pursuance and in Performance of the said Articles, the said Mansion House, Gardens and Appurtenances, unto the said Trustees of the British Museum on payment of the said sum of Ten thousand Pounds to the said George Earl of Halifax, and William Folkes, their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, and in further Trust, to lay out and dispose of the said Sum of Ten thousand Pounds, in manner as herein-after mentioned, that is to say, &c. &c.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That on Payment of the said Sum of Ten thousand Pounds by the said Trustees of the British Museum to the said George Earl of Halifax, and William Folkes, their Executors Administrators or Assigns, in consideration of their conveying and assuring the said Mansion House, Gardens, and Appurtenances to the said Trustees of the British Museum as aforesaid, the Receipt or Receipts of the said George Earl of Halifax, and William Folkes, their Executors Administrators or Assigns to the said Trustees of the British Museum, shall be and is and are hereby declared to be a good and sufficient Discharge to the said Trustees for the same, and that they the said Trustees shall thereupon be and are hereby declared indemnified against all Demands from all and every or any Person or Persons whatsoever to whom or to whose use the said Mansion House Gardens and Appurtenances have been limited or settled in or by the said last Will and Testament of the said Ralph Duke of Montagu, or the said recited Articles in the said recited Act, or the said recited Act confirming the same as aforesaid, And that the said Trustees of the British Museum, shall and may at all times after such Conveyance and Assurance made, and the Payment of the said Ten thousand Pounds Purchase Money as aforesaid, have, hold, and enjoy the said Capital Mansion House, Gardens, and Appurtenances, freed and absolutely discharged of, from, and against all and every the Uses, Estates, Trusts, Powers, Provisoos, Limitations, and Agreements limited, created, expressed and declared as aforesaid, of and concerning the same.

of the said Museum, by Indentures of Lease and Release, bearing Date respectively the Fourth and Fifth Days of April, in the Year One thousand Seven hundred and Fifty-five, and made between the Right Honourable George Dunk, Earl of Halifax, and William Folkes, Esquire, (Trustees under the said last mentioned Act for carrying the Trusts thereof into Execution) of the one Part, and the Trustees of the said Museum of the other Part, and since that Time the said capital Messuage or Mansion House and its Appurtenances have been generally called or known by the Appellation of the British Museum :

And whereas Charles Townley, late of November 22d, 1807. Will of Charles Townley, Esquire. Townley, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, Esquire, duly signed and published his last Will and Testament, bearing Date the Twenty-ninth of November, One thousand Eight hundred and Two, and did thereby devise the Manors and other Hereditaments situate in the said County of Lancaster therein particularly mentioned, and distinguished by the Name of The Townley Estates, to John Trafford, of Trafford House, in the said County, and Stephen Tempest, of Broughton Hall, in the County of York, Esquires, and their Heirs, to the Use of Sir John Lawson, Baronet, and Thomas Eccleston, Esquire, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for the Term of Eight hundred Years, by the Ways and Means therein mentioned, to raise Money for the Payment of his Debts, Legacies, and Funeral Expences in Exoneration of his personal Estate, and for the Payment of certain Annuities; and after the Expiration of the said Term of Eight hundred Years, to the Use of Edward Townley Standish, Esquire, the Brother of him the said Testator during the Term of his natural Life, with a Limitation, &c. in Trust, to preserve the contingent Remainders therein after devised; and after his Decease, to the Use of the first and other Sons of the said Edward Townley Standish, severally and successively according to their respective Seniorities, in Tail; and in Default of such Issue, to the Use of John Townley, Esquire, the Uncle of the said Charles Townley the Testator, and his Assigns during his natural Life, without Impeachment of Waste; and after his Decease, to such Uses as the said John Townley and Peregrine Edward Townley, Esquire, his Son, should by any Deed to be executed by them as therein is mentioned direct or appoint; and in Default of such Appointment, to the Use of the said John Townley, his Heirs and Assigns for ever: And the said Charles Townley did, by his said Will, bequeath to the said Sir John Lawson and Thomas Eccleston his Collection of Antient Marbles, which should be in or about or belong to his House in Park Street, Westminster, at the Time of his Decease, to hold the same unto the said Sir John Lawson and Thomas Eccleston, their Executors and Administrators, in Trust for the British Museum; provided that the Trustees or Managers for the Time being of that Institution should, within the Term of Two Years from the Time of his Decease, set apart a Room or Rooms, which then was or were, or which might thereafter be erected at the said Museum, sufficiently spacious and elegant to exhibit those Antiquities most advantageously to the Publick; such Room or Rooms to be exclusively set apart for the Reception and future Exhibition of the said Antiquities; and in some conspicuous Part of the said Room or Rooms, such a suitable and appropriate Inscription to be made and fixed up, as the Trustees or Managers of the said Museum should deem proper. And that in case the said Trustees or Managers should decline to accept of that his Gift, or should not fully comply with the Conditions thereby imposed by him, then his Will was that the said Sir John Lawson and Thomas Eccleston, and the Survivor of them, and the Executors and Administrators of such Survivor, should stand possessed of his said Collection of ancient Marbles in trust for the Testator's Brother, the said Edward Townley Standish, his Executors Administrators and Assigns, and the said Testator appointed the said Edward Townley Standish and John Townley the Executors of that his Will :

22d December,
1804. Codicil to the Will of the said Charles Townley.

And whereas the said Charles Townley signed and published a Codicil to his said Will, which Codicil bears Date the Twenty-second Day of December, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Four, and by his said Codicil revoked the Trusts declared by his Will of the said ancient Marbles for the Benefit of the British Museum and the said Edward Townley Standish, and directed that the said Sir John Lawson and Thomas Eccleston, their Executors Administrators and Assigns should stand possessed of the said Collection of antient Marbles upon the Trusts following, that is to say, in case his the Testator's Brother Edward Townley Standish, or his the Testator's Uncle John Townley, or his Heirs should, within Five Years from his the Testator's decease, expend not less than the Sum of Four thousand Five hundred Pounds in placing the said Marbles in a proper and suitable Manner for Exhibition in his Mansion House at Townley, or in the erecting and completing, or purchasing a Suite of Rooms for their Reception and Exhibition, to be added for the Purpose to, or being Part of any House to be built, purchased, or belonging to them or any of them in London then in Trust for the Person or Persons who by Virtue of or under the Limitations contained in his said Will should for the Time being be entitled to the Possession, or to the Receipts of the Rents, Issues and Profits of his Townley Estates, in his said Will mentioned: Yet so that for the Purpose of Transmission the same should not vest absolutely in any Son of his said Brother Edward Townley Standish, until such Son should attain to the Age of Twenty-one Years, or depart this Life under that Age, leaving issue inheritable under his said Will, or Born in due Time afterwards: And in case of the Death of his said Brother Edward Townley Standish without Issue Male, as expressed in his said Will, or in failure of such Issue then in Trust for his said Uncle John Townley and his Heirs: But in case his said Brother Edward Townley Standish, or his said Uncle John Townley or his Heirs should refuse or neglect to make such proper Provision for the Reception and Exhibition of the said Antient Marbles within the said Term of Five Years, then it was his Will and Mind that the said Sir John Lawson and Thomas Eccleston, their Executors Administrators and Assigns, should stand possessed thereof in Trust for the British Museum, subject to the same Terms, Conditions, and Restrictions as were contained in his said Will in Respect to the Trust therein declared for the British Museum, and in case the Trustees or Managers of the British Museum should not comply with such Terms, Conditions, and Restrictions then in Trust for his the said Testator's Executors and Administrators:

And whereas the said Charles Townley departed this Life on the Third Day of January last, and the said Will and Codicil were duly proved by the said Edward Townley Standish and John Townley in the Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury:

And whereas at the Time of the Decease of the said Charles Townley, the said Townley Estate, or some Part thereof, was subject to a Mortgage Debt of Thirty-six thousand Five hundred Pounds charged thereupon by Indentures of Lease and Release, bearing Date respectively the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Days of November One thousand Eight hundred and Two, &c. Whereby in consideration of the Sum of Thirty-six thousand Five hundred Pounds by the said John Townley advanced to or upon the Account of the said Charles Townley, the said Townley Estate, or some Part thereof, was conveyed by or by the Direction of the said Charles Townley unto and to the Use of the said John Townley, his Heirs and Assigns by Way of Mortgage for securing to the said John Townley, his Executors Administrators and Assigns the Sum of Thirty-six thousand Five hundred Pounds, with lawful Interest for the same:

And whereas the Collection of Antient Marbles bequeathed by the said Will and Codicil of the said Charles Townley was made by him with great Knowledge, Judgment and Care, and at a very considerable Expence, and is generally considered to be one of the most valuable Collections of ancient Sculpture, and on many Accounts is such a Property as is highly desirable to be possessed by the Public :

And whereas a Proposal having been made by the Trustees of the British Museum to the said Edward Townley Standish, John Townley, and Peregrine Edward Townley for the Purchase of the said Collection of Ancient Marbles and Terra Cottas at or for the Price or Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, and it having been represented to them that it was highly desirable the same should be possessed by the Public in a proper Repository generally open at proper Times and under suitable Restrictions to the Inspection of Artists, and the Curious in the fine Arts, they the said Edward Townley Standish, John Townley, and Peregrine Edward Townley consented to the said Proposal, and agreed to add to the said Collection the Bronze Statues of Apollo and Hercules, which also belonged to and formed Part of the Collection of the said Charles Townley, on Condition that the whole of the said Collection should be kept together and open to Inspection as herein-before is mentioned, and called by the Name of the Townleian Collection :

May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be Enacted, And be it Enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, that the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, or the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them shall, and he or they is and are hereby authorised and empowered out of any of the Aids or Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament for the Service of Great Britain for the Year One thousand Eight hundred and Five, immediately after the passing of this Act to issue and advance the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds to the Trustees of the British Museum, or any Person to be appointed by the said Trustees to receive the same, which Money shall be paid without any

Fee or other Deduction whatever, and shall be applied in the Purchase of the said Collection: And that the Trustees of the British Museum shall, on or before the First Day of September One thousand Eight hundred and Six, require the Delivery of the said Collection; and if the same shall be then delivered to them, and they shall be satisfied that the several Statues and other Articles forming the said Collection are then conformable with the Catalogue thereof deposited in the British Museum, signed by the said Edward Townley Standish, Joseph Planta, Esquire, Principal Librarian of the British Museum, and Taylor Combe, Esquire, another of the Librarians, and duly certified by them on the Third Day of July One thousand Eight hundred and Five, shall on the Delivery of the same into their Custody, pay the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds to the said John Townley, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, towards the Discharge of his said Mortgage Debt of Thirty-six thousand Five hundred Pounds:

And be it further Enacted, That on payment of the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds the said Collection shall be vested in the Trustees for the Time being of the said British Museum, and their Successors in perpetuity for the Purposes of the said Act of the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, absolutely freed and discharged from all the Trusts, Powers, Provisoos, and Declarations, expressed or contained of or concerning the same by or in the said Will and Codicil of the said Charles Townley:

And be it hereby further Enacted, That the said Collection shall be preserved and kept together in the said British Museum whole and intire, and distinguished by the Name or Appellation of the Townleian Collection:

And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Edward Townley Standish shall be associated to the Trustees for the time being of the British Museum, in the Execution of the Trusts reposed in them by the said recited Act; And that upon the Decease of the said Edward Townley Standish it shall be lawful for his Sons severally, successively, and in remainder one after another, as they respectively shall be in seniority of Age and Priority of Birth, and the Heirs of their respective Bodies, being of full Age, and for his her or their Guardian or Guardians, during his, her, or their respective Minorities, and in default of such Issue to and for the said John Townley, and his Heirs, being of full Age, and for their respective Guardian or Guardians during their respective Minorities, by any Writing under their respective Hands, to nominate some fit Person to supply the Place of the said Edward Townley Standish, or the last actual Trustee in the said Trust, when and so often as any Person so nominated shall happen to die :

And be it further Enacted, That the Trustee hereby appointed, or so to be appointed as herein-before is mentioned, shall have the like Powers in all Respects in the Execution of the Trusts reposed or to be reposed by the said recited Act, or any other Act, in the Trustees of the British Museum, as are or shall be by the said Acts, or any of them, given to the Trustees therein named or described :

And be it further Enacted, That until the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds shall be paid to the said John Townley, the same shall be laid out by the Trustees of the British Museum in the Purchase of Navy or Victualling Bills, or Exchequer Bills, and the Money received for the same as they respectively are paid off by Government, shall be laid out in the Purchase of other Navy, or Victualling, or Exchequer Bills, and all the said Navy, Victualling, or Exchequer Bills shall be deposited in the Bank in the Name of the Trustees of the British Museum, and shall there remain until the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds shall be payable to the said John Townley; And when the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds shall be payable to the said John Townley the said Navy, Victualling, or Exchequer Bills shall be sold, and the Money which shall arise from the Sale thereof shall be paid to the Trustees of the British Museum, and be by them paid over to the said John Townley, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, in the Discharge or Satisfaction of the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds; and whatever the said Navy, Victualling, or Exchequer Bills shall produce over and beyond the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, shall at the same time be paid with the said Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds to the said John Townley, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, in or towards discharge of the Interest which shall have accrued on the said Mortgage Debt of Thirty-six thousand Five hundred Pounds.

EXTRACTS

JOURNALS OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

12 Geo. III.

Veneris, 20^o Die Martij, 1772.

Resolved,

THAT it is the Opinion of this Committee,
That the Collection of Etruscan, Grecian, and Roman Antiquities, brought from Italy, by Sir William Hamilton, Knight of the most honourable Order of the Bath, be purchased, for the Use of the Public, and vested in the Trustees of the British Museum.

Resolved,

That it is the Opinion of this Committee,
That a Sum not exceeding Eight thousand Four hundred and Ten Pounds, be granted to His Majesty, to enable His Majesty to purchase for the Use of the Public the said

Collection of Etruscan, Grecian, and Roman Antiquities.

Resolved,

That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Sum not exceeding Eight hundred and Forty Pounds be granted to His Majesty to enable the Trustees of the British Museum to provide a proper Repository for the Reception of the said Collection of Etruscan, Grecian, and Roman Antiquities.

The said Resolutions being severally read a second Time, were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed to by the House.

Lunæ, 2° Die Julij, 1804.

A PETITION of the Trustees of the British Museum being offered to be presented to the House ;

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer (by His Majesty's command) acquainted the House, that His Majesty, having been informed of the Contents of the said Petition, recommends it to the Consideration of the House.

Then the said Petition was brought up and read, setting forth, that His Majesty having been graciously pleased to Order the valuable Egyptian Antiquities which were acquired by His Majesty's victorious Arms during the late Expedition to Egypt, to be deposited in the British Museum, the Petitioners provided temporary Coverings for their Preservation, which, nevertheless, are found to be insufficient for protecting them from the Injury of the Weather; and it is apprehended that, unless better secured, they may, in a short Time, be materially Defaced, whereby His Majesty's gracious Intentions will be frustrated, to the Detriment of Science, and the Disparagement of these memorable Trophies of National Glory; and that the Petitioners, desirous to prevent Consequences so much to be regretted, have caused a Plan and Estimate to be prepared of an Addition to the present Building, for the Purpose of effectually preserving these valuable Monuments in a suitable Manner, as well as for the Reception of other important Specimens of the fine Arts already in their Possession, and to which, it is hoped, that material Additions may be made from Time to Time; but, as the Petioners are unable to proceed in the Execution of so necessary a Work, which, upon the most exact Computation cannot be completed at a less Expence than Sixteen thousand Pounds, without the Public Aid, they submit the whole Matter to the Wisdom and Munificence of Parliament, conceiving that they should be wanting to the Public in the Execution of the Trust with which they have been invested, if they omitted to represent these Circumstances, in confidence that an Institution so honourable to this Country, will never fail to receive the Support of the Legislature.

Ordered,

That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

Ordered,

That the Plan and Estimate referred to in the said Petition be laid before the House.

Martis, 3^o Die Julij, 1804.

The House being informed that Mr. Planta from the Trustees of the British Museum, attended at the Door, he was called in, and at the Bar presented to the House pursuant to their Orders,

No. 1. Resolutions of Two Special Committees respecting the Egyptian Antiquities ; and also,

No. 2. Report of the Sub-Committee respecting the Egyptian Antiquities ; and also,

No. 3. A Paper, intituled, " British Museum, " 25th February, 1803, Estimate of the " Amount of the proposed Additions ;" and also,

No. 4. Resolution of the General Meeting on the Report of the Sub-Committee respecting the Egyptian Antiquities ; and also,

Several Plans and Designs for additional Buildings to the British Museum.

And then he withdrew, and the Titles were read.

Ordered,

That the said Papers do lie upon the Table.

Lunæ, 9^o Die Julij, 1804.

Ordered,

That the Petition of the Trustees of the British Museum, which were presented to the House, upon the 2d Day of this Instant July, and also the several Papers and Plans relating thereto, be referred to the Committee of the whole House, to whom it is referred to consider further of the Supply granted to His Majesty.

Martis 10° Die Julij, 1804.

Resolved,

That a Sum not exceeding Eight thousand Pounds be granted to His Majesty, towards enabling the Trustees of the British Museum to carry on the Execution of the Trusts reposed in them by Parliament.

45 Geo. III.

Martis, 12° Die Februarii, 1805.

A PETITION of the Trustees of the British Museum, being offered to be presented to the House ;

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer (by His Majesty's Command) acquainted the House, that His Majesty having been informed of the Contents of the said Petition, recommends it to the Consideration of the House.

Then the said Petition was brought up, and read ; setting forth, That the Petitioners, in the last Session of Parliament, presented to the House a Petition, submitting to their Consideration the necessity of providing a suitable Building for the Reception and Preservation of the Egyptian Antiquities, which His Majesty had been graciously pleased to place at the British Museum; and, that in Consideration of the Matters then stated by the Petitioners, they obtained from the Bounty of Parliament a Grant of the Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, for the Commencement of such Building according to the Plan and Estimate laid before the House, the Total of the Expense estimated for completing the same, amounting to the Sum of Sixteen thousand Pounds; and that since the End of the last Session of Parliament, the Petitioners have caused the Foundations of the said Building to be laid, and are at this Time proceeding to the Execution of the said Plan; and that the further Sum of Eight thousand Pounds, being the Residue of the said Sum of Sixteen thousand Pounds, will be soon wanting towards carrying on and completing the same, all which Matters they submit to the Wisdom and Munificence of Parliament.

Ordered,

That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

Mercurii, 13^o Die Februarii, 1805.

Ordered,

That the several Petitions of the Trustees of the British Museum, and the Accounts which were Yesterday presented to the House relating thereto be referred to the Committee of the whole House to whom it is referred to consider further of the Supply granted to His Majesty.

Jovis, 14^o Die Februarii, 1805.

Resolved,

That a Sum not exceeding Eight thousand Pounds be granted to His Majesty towards further enabling the Trustees of the British Museum to carry on the Execution of the Trusts reposed in them by Parliament.

Mercurii, 5^o Junii, 1805.

A Petition of the Trustees of the British Museum, being offered to be presented to the House ;

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer (by His Majesty's Command) acquainted the House, that His Majesty, having been informed of the contents of the said Petition, recommends it to the consideration of the House.

Then the said Petition was brought up, and read ; setting forth, that, by the munificence of Parliament, the Sloanian and Harleian Collections of Books, Manuscripts, Records, Coins, Medals, Gems, and other rare and valuable Articles of Science and Literature, have been heretofore purchased at the public Expence, and placed as an Addition to the Cottonian Library, under the care and management of the Trustees of the British Museum ; and that the Collection of Etruscan, Grecian and Roman Antiquities, belonging to the late Sir William Hamilton, was afterwards purchased by Parliament in like manner, and vested in the same Trustees, to be placed in the same general Repository ; and that many large and valuable Benefactions of Books, Coins, Medals, and Specimens of Natural History, have since been received, from time to time, so as nearly to occupy the whole of the building assigned for those purposes ; that when His Majesty was graciously pleased to direct that the Egyptian Antiquities, obtained in the last War by the valour of His Majesty's Arms should be placed in the British Museum, a liberal Aid was granted by Parliament towards the Erection of a suitable Addition to the present Building, as well for the purpose of preserving these securely and conveniently, as also for the reception of other important Specimens of the Fine Arts, already in the possession of the Trustees, and to which it was hoped that material Additions might be made from time to time, which Building has been undertaken accordingly, and will be nearly completed in the course of the present Year; and that the late Charles Townley, Esq. who was a Trustee of the British Museum, did in his life-time, by successful Exertions, and at a large Expence, during a long Course of Years, form a most valuable Collection of Antient Sculptured Marbles, which, for their perfect Condition, and exquisite Taste, far exceed any private Collection in this country, and are not surpassed (as it is believed) by any other of equal Extent in Europe; and that the Family of the late Charles Townley, Esquire, to whom this Collection was bequeathed, in consequence of a representation to them, that the preserving and exhibiting it to the public View in the Metropolis would be highly advantageous to the Cultivation of the Fine Arts, and at the same time honourable to the memory of their deceased Relation, have expressed their consent to surrender this Collection to the Public, if Parliament should be disposed to Purchase the same at the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, being (as they state) far less than its value, and if the like privilege were conferred upon their Family as was granted, in the like Cases, to the Families of Sir Hans Sloane and the Earl of Oxford, by vesting in the Heirs of the late Charles Townley, Esquire, the Power of nominating two Trustees of the British Museum in perpetual Succession; and that the Petitioners conceive it to be an Object of great National Importance for the Improvement of the Fine Arts, that a Collection of Antique Sculpture, of such acknowledged and unrivalled Excellence, should be acquired and preserved for Public Inspection and Use; and they have felt it the more incumbent upon them, to submit these Circumstances to the Consideration of Parliament, as they believe it to be universally allowed, that a Collection in this Branch of the Fine Arts, to which Artists can have free Access, is much wanted in this Country, and as the additional Buildings, already provided for by the liberality of Parliament, have been planned in a manner the best adapted for receiving such a Collection, and exhibiting it to the greatest Advantage.

Ordered,

That the said Petition be referred to the Consideration of a Committee; and that they do examine the Matter thereof, and report the same, as it shall appear to them, to the House.

Mercurii, 19^o Die Junii, 1805.

Resolved,

That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That it would be an Object of great National Importance for the Improvement of the Fine Arts, that a Collection of Antique Sculpture, of such acknowledged and unrivalled Excellence as that which is now offered to the Public, should be acquired and preserved for public Inspection and Use, particularly if Measures were taken to afford Artists free Access to the said Collection.

Resolved,

That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds is a moderate Price for the Purchase of the said Collection.

Lunæ, 24^o Die Junii, 1805.

Resolved,

That the Collection of Sculptured Marbles and Terra Cottas, and certain Bronzes, of the late Charles Townley, Esquire, be purchased for the Use of the Public, and vested in the Trustees of the British Museum.

Resolved,

That a Sum, not exceeding Twenty thousand Pounds, be granted to His Majesty, to enable His Majesty to purchase for the Use of the Public the said Collection; and that the said Sum be issued and paid without any Fee or other Deduction whatsoever.

The said Committee shall have power to make temporary orders in such cases as may seem of too little importance to require the immediate calling of a General Meeting, or on pressing emergencies, where there is not sufficient time to take the sense of a General Meeting; in all which cases they shall report such orders to the next General Meeting: but where the matter under their deliberation is of such consequence as to deserve the attention and determination of a General Meeting, and the time will permit, they shall either cause one to be summoned for that purpose, or lay the same before the next General Meeting, as they shall judge most expedient.

Every Trustee shall have free access (as of right he ought) to any part of the Museum, and may take with him any number of persons, of whose names he shall sign a list in a book to be kept for the purpose by the directing officer of the day; but it shall be only during such time as the Museum shall be open to view.

14. Every Trustee who shall have occasion to consult any book, manuscript, or other part of the Collection, may require the article from the officer of the respective departments, and make use of the same in any part of the Museum he shall judge convenient, during the time that the Museum shall be one of the Under Librarians.

7th. An Accountant, who keeps the accounts of the Corporation, and prepares such as are required to be laid before Parliament.

8th. Three Attendants, chiefly employed in exhibiting the Museum.

2. Inasmuch as the Principal and all the Residence;
Under and Assistant Librarians, have apartments allotted to them in the Museum, they are strictly enjoined to reside therein, unless in cases when leave of absence is granted to them, according to the 7th Article of Chap. I. of these Statutes.

entrusted with the care and custody of the Museum, he is to attend in the Museum as constantly as shall be necessary for the discharge of his duty, and for putting in execution the orders of the Trustees which have any relation to him.

4. He shall take care that all the subordinate officers and servants perform their respective duties, and obey the orders which have already been, or shall hereafter be made by the Trustees ; and also pay all reasonable attention that no irregularity be committed within the precincts of the Museum.

5. Upon extraordinary occasions, such as when persons of eminence, either for rank or learning, especially Foreigners, are desirous of inspecting the whole, or any part of the Museum, and shall make it appear that they cannot conveniently avail themselves of the usual mode of admission, the Principal Librarian shall be allowed to grant to such persons extraordinary admission; and he shall either attend them himself, or appoint some other officer to accompany them.

6. He shall also be allowed to grant temporary admission into the Reading Room, to such persons as apply during the intervals between the Meetings of the Committee; such leave however to become void unless confirmed at the next subsequent Meeting.

7. He shall confirm the rotations of attendance agreed upon by the subordinate officers and attendants; and in case of sickness, death, or allowed absence of any of them, he shall supply their turns out of the other officers or attendants then in the house.

8. He shall be particularly vigilant as to any accidents by fire or theft, and enforce by every means in his power the regulations on those heads contained in the fourth chapter of these Statutes.

CHAP. II.
Principal Librarian.

9. The Principal Librarian, if intrusted with the office of Expenditor to the Museum, shall in that capacity keep an exact account of all the imprests and expenditures, which account shall be audited at a General Meeting or Committee at least once a year. He shall likewise examine and check all bills sent in by trades-people, (except those of the workmen, which are to be examined by the Surveyor,) and certify that the charges are duly made, and that the computations are accurate.

10. In case of sickness, death, or allowed absence of the Principal Librarian, the Secretary, if that office be holden by one of the Under Librarians, or, if not, the senior Under Librarian in residence, shall be considered as his representative, and be empowered to exercise all the functions prescribed in the foregoing Articles.

11. The subordinate officers are to aid and assist the Principal Librarian in all matters relating to his duty, in respect to the care and custody of the Museum; and they are CHAP. II. hereby strictly enjoined to give immediate notice to the Principal Librarian if any article in the Museum shall be lost or damaged.

Under and Assistant Librarians.

12. The Under and Assistant Librarians are to be particularly careful that every thing within their respective departments be at all times preserved in good and exact order; and that the apartments containing that part of the collection which is under their care, be kept as neat and clean as is consistent with the admission of persons to view and make use of the same.

13. Inasmuch as three additional Attendants have of late been appointed for the purpose of exonerating the Under and Assistant Librarians from the ordinary duty of shewing the Museum, the said Librarians, in lieu of that duty, shall employ themselves in arranging scientifically, and in making catalogues of all additions that may be made from time to time to the collections entrusted to their care; and also in re-arranging the old collections, and correcting the old catalogues, whenever either may stand in need of it: and in performing this duty, they shall be particularly careful to enter in the catalogue references to the places where the respective articles are deposited; and also to note and affix on the said articles, the references so made in the catalogues: and they shall severally report their progress in these works, and state it accurately to the Trustees at the General Meeting on the second Saturday of May in each year.

CHAP. II.
Under and Assistant Li-
brarians.

14. One of the Under or Assistant Librarians shall, according to a rota to be agreed upon among themselves, and confirmed by the Principal Librarian, be always in waiting in the Museum, and be considered as the directing officer of the day. He shall regulate the admission of visitors, according to the directions laid down in the following chapter;* and shall likewise see that due order and decency be preserved by all persons in the Museum, either visitors or domestics.

15. One of the Under or Assistant Librarians shall also in rotation be always in waiting in the Library, and take particular care that the readers be supplied without delay with such books and manuscripts as they may apply for. During their days of attendance they are also to assist in forwarding the

Reading
Room.

16. As the proper management of the Reading Room is essentially important to the utility and credit of the Museum, it is particularly enjoined that one of the Under or Assistant Librarians do always attend in the said Room.* And the Trustees being particularly anxious that this duty be punctually executed, do strictly order that the officer, whose turn it shall be to attend in the said Room, do, on no account, whatever, leave it without another officer having agreed, and being actually come to supply his place. And in order the better to enforce this important duty, the Messenger, or his Assistant, shall keep a book, in which he shall enter daily the name of the officer who has the whole, or any part of the day, attended the said Reading Room; which book shall be laid before every meeting of the Standing Committee.

17. The Principal Librarian shall keep a book, in which shall be entered the names of all those who have duly obtained ad-

duty of the officer in waiting shall be to ^{Reading} ^{Room.}
take care that no one enter the Room without being duly authorised; to see that the readers are severally accommodated, and provided with such books or manuscripts as they may require; and to assist them, so far as may be in his power, in the objects of their research: he shall also see that they do not damage the books or manuscripts, or annoy any of the other readers.

18. The Principal Librarian, and, at least, one officer of each department, shall give due attendance at all General Meetings of the Trustees; and all the officers shall be within the Precincts of the Museum during the time of any Visitation.

19. In framing these regulations, the Trustees are aware that it is impossible for them to define the duty of each officer with a sufficient degree of precision for all possible emergencies; in addition, therefore, to the above rules, it is to be considered as a general instruction to the several officers, that they do conduct themselves as becomes men of honour, integrity, and libe-

CHAPTER III.

Concerning the Admission into the British Museum.

1. THE Museum shall be kept open for public inspection every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday; except in the Christmas, Easter, and Whitsun weeks; on Thanksgiving and Fast-days, and during the months of August and September.

Days and Hours of visiting the Museum.

2. Persons who wish to see the Museum are to apply in the anti-room of the house on any of the above-mentioned open days, between the hours of ten and two, where each individual will be required to inscribe his or her name, and place of abode, in a book to be kept for that purpose.

3. Five companies of not more than fifteen persons each, may be admitted in the course of the day; namely, one at each of the hours of ten, eleven, twelve, one, and two. At each of these hours the directing officer in waiting* shall examine the entries in the book, and if none of the persons inscribed be found exceptionable, he shall deliver to each of them a ticket for immediate admission, and put them under the conduct of the attendant, whose instructions require him to allow them such time as shall be reasonably sufficient for viewing each part of the Museum. Should more than fifteen persons apply at any particular hour, the supernumeraries will be allowed to inscribe their names for the next hour, or should that be engaged, for any other subsequent hour in succession.

4. Should more than seventy-five persons apply in the course of the day, the last comers (to the number of fifteen and no more) shall be allowed to inscribe their names for an extra company to be admitted on the same day at or soon after two o'clock.

5. Should more persons apply than can be admitted according to the above regulations, the supernumeraries shall be allowed to inscribe their names in a separate book to be kept for that purpose; and the directing officer in waiting shall order tickets to be made out for them for one of the intermediate days, viz. Tuesday, or Thursday, and for the hours of ten, twelve, or two, CHAP. III.

preferring the nearest day and hour, but extending further if occasion should require.

Number of Persons admitted.

The number of each set for any given hour shall be limited to fifteen.

6. No admission or tickets shall be granted but to persons who apply and inscribe their names themselves; it being very essential towards the free admission into the Museum, which the Trustees are particularly solicitous to establish, that the practice of monopolizing tickets, which has heretofore been too prevalent, be effectually obviated.

7. Beside the two above-mentioned modes of admission, the officers of the Museum are not only permitted, but even invited to exhibit the Museum to such of their friends, or persons of distinction for rank or learning, as may occasionally apply to them for a sight of the whole or any part of it; but in such cases they are required to attend the visitors personally.

8. It is expected that persons who visit the Museum be decent and orderly in their appearance and behaviour; the officers being instructed to refuse admission to, or to cause to withdraw, any person who shall disregard CHAP. III. this caution. No children apparently under ten years of age will be admitted.

Reading
Room.

9. The Reading Room of the Museum shall be kept open from ten till four every day in the week, except Saturdays and Sundays, and for one week at Christmas, Easter, and Whitsuntide; and on Thanksgiving and Fast-days; and it shall be constantly attended by one of the Librarians in the manner above directed.*

10. Persons desirous of admission into the said Room, are to send their applications in writing to the Principal Librarian, or in his absence to the Secretary; these officers are to lay the same before the next General Meeting, or Committee of Trustees, who will, if they see no objection, grant admission for a term not exceeding half a year. But in all cases which may require such dispatch as that time cannot be allowed for an application to the Trustees, the Principal Librarian, or, in his absence, the Secretary, shall be empowered to grant a temporary leave till the next General Meeting or Committee.

11. Persons who apply for admission to

* Vide Chap. II. § 16 and 17.

the Reading Room are to specify their descriptions and places of abode; and as it might be dangerous, in so populous a metropolis as London, to admit perfect strangers, it is expected that every one who applies, if not known to any Trustee or Officer, should produce a recommendation from some person of known and approved character.

12. Every reader may, at the expiration of his term, apply for a prolongation of the same, without a fresh recommendation.

13. Transcribers are not to lay the paper on which they write on any part of the book or manuscript they are using.

14. No person is, on any pretence whatever, to write on any part of a printed book or manuscript belonging to the Museum; but if any one should observe a defect in such book or manuscript, he is requested to signify the same to the officer in waiting.

15. Persons engaged in works of learning, or in the prosecution of any useful design, and having occasion to examine any part of the collection with more attention than can be done in the ordinary way of viewing the Museum; or using the Reading Room, or having occasion to make a drawing of any thing contained in the Museum, are to apply to the Trustees in a General Meeting, or to the Standing Committee, for particular leave for that purpose; who will give directions according to the circumstances of the case.

16. The respective officers whom it may concern, viz. either the Keeper of the Manuscripts, or the officer in the Reading Room, are charged to be particularly attentive in observing persons who may have occasion to inspect manuscripts, charters, deeds, or other instruments which are liable to be called for as evidence.

17. No part of the collections belonging to the Museum shall be at any time carried out of the precincts thereof; except such books, charters, deeds, or other manuscripts as are wanted to be made use of in evidence. In this case, application shall be made for leave to a Meeting of the Trustees; or, if limited for time, to the Principal Librarian; which leave being obtained, one of the Under or Assistant Librarians shall be allowed to carry out the article required; but he shall keep it constantly in his custody, and allow it to be inspected only in his presence; for this him.

18. The collection of coins and medals shall not be shewn but by leave of a Meeting of the Trustees, or of the Principal Librarian ; no persons shall be admitted into the room to see them except in the presence of the Keeper of the Collection ; nor shall more than two persons be admitted at the same time, without the Principal Librarian, or some subordinate officer of his appointment attending the whole time, together with the Keeper of the Collection ; and in no case shall more than four persons be admitted at the same time.

19. No officer, attendant, or servant, shall take any fee, reward, or gratuity from persons visiting the Museum, or in any way making use of its contents ; except in the above mentioned case of attending courts with evidence, or of being extra officially employed by readers to make searches or transcripts, when a proper compensation may be agreed for.

20. It is hereby intended and declared that Royal Family.
none of the particular restraints concerning

CHAP. III. the inspection and use of the British Museum herein contained, are to be construed to extend to the Royal Family, whenever they shall do the Museum the honour of visiting it in person.

CHAPTER IV.

Concerning the Security of the Museum.

1. THE Museum shall at no time whatsoever be left without one at least of the officers within the same, or the precincts thereof, that proper orders may be given and due care taken for its preservation in case of fire, or any other accident which may endanger the building or its contents. In case of any such accident, the Principal Librarian, or, in his absence, the Secretary, or the next officer in rank who shall be in the Museum, shall be, and he is hereby impowered to give such orders as in his judgment will best conduce to the safety and preservation of the same.

Precautions
against fire, &c.

2. Each of the officers shall pay particular attention to the security of his department; and for this purpose he shall see that after the companies leave the House, the windows and doors be properly secured, and that such care be taken of the fires in the stoves that no danger may arise therefrom. The Messenger and his Assistant shall likewise, under

CHAP. IV. the direction of the Principal Librarian, frequently visit the hall, passages, (especially those on the base story,) and other places from whence danger may be apprehended; they shall examine whether every part of them is safe from accidents of any kind; and see that no person is lurking therein; and in the performance of this duty they shall, if requisite, be assisted by the Porter and the two Watchmen, or any of them.

Precautions
against fire, &c.

3. And since for this service, and for lighting the fires, or in case of accidents happening in the night, it will or may be necessary that lighted candles should be brought into the Museum, or body of the House, such lighted candles for those uses shall be carried in lanthorns to be provided for that purpose; but lighted candles are never to be brought into the Museum on any other occasion or in any other manner.

4. But if, notwithstanding all these precautions, a fire should unfortunately break out in the Museum itself, or any of the buildings thereto belonging, or even in the neighbourhood thereof, or if any other accident should happen whereby the Museum or collection should be in danger, every officer or servant discovering it, or being CHAP. IV.

apprised thereof, shall immediately give Precautions
against fire, &c.
notice of it to all the other officers and servants, who are forthwith to give their attendance and utmost assistance for the preservation of the Museum and its appurtenances; and also give immediate notice to such of the Trustees as live within a reasonable distance,

5. The Principal Librarian shall take care that the engines for extinguishing fire, and the pipes belonging to them, be continually kept in good order; and that the reservoir over the engine house be always full, or nearly full of water. He shall also take care that the keys of the cases of the stop cocks (which, by the contract with the New River Company, are to be left in his custody) be always deposited in a proper place, where they may be come at in case any accident by fire should happen during his absence.
