or & Vegetable Seeds,

FOR SALE BY

L. W. GOODELL,

Amherst, Mass.

Great care has been taken to secure seeds of the first quality and true to name. Each variety has been tested and nothing will leave my hands that will fail to grow with fair treatment; many of the varieties are of my own growing, others obtained from the most reliable dealers. On each package is printed the name and description of the variety with directions for culture. My packets are large and the prices low—as low as good seeds can be afforded.

All seeds will be sent by mail to any part of the United States at the prices annexed Postage Paid, except Corn, Beans and Peas by the pint or quart; these if to be sent by mail must have fifteen cents per pint added to pay postage.

Money may be sent by Post Office Order or Registered Letter at my risk, and the expense of sending may be deducted from the amount sent. Small sums of less than One Dollar may be enclosed in a letter and sent at my risk without registering. I guarantee all seeds ordered to reach you safely.

FORMING CLUBS.—In order to introduce my seeds as extensively as possible, I offer the following very liberal inducements to persons who will make a little effort and get their neighbors to join together and send for seeds in one order. The same deduction is made to any one person ordering alone.

Persons sending $1.00 may select seeds in packets amounting to						$1.15

"	"	3.00	"	"	"	3.65
"	"	4.00	"	"	"	4.95

I advertise only the best varieties, such as will give universal satisfaction, but all other known varieties can be supplied on a reasonable notice when required.

Please order as early as possible. All orders whether large or small will receive careful and prompt attention.
