Preliminary Price-List

SPRING, 1892.

Owing to the unprecedented number of inquiries for quotations received from our customers and others, actuated doubtless by the superior grade and quality of the stock sent out last fall, together with the probable scarcity of many kinds, we have decided to issue this preliminary price-list for their convenience. These prices hold only until the issue of our regular Spring Trade List, which will supercede this list, and which will doubtless quote advanced rates. Order now and get the benefit of the following very low quotations, regardless of the number taken.
