Announcement

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 1, 1911

We are collectors of seeds indigenous to the elevated region of the Rocky Mountains. We do not deal in or handle seeds in any other way hence our list is a short one, but represents a collection from rare trees and plants of a beautiful character.

Our patrons should bear in mind that seeds of the Colorado variety, received from first hands, not only insure perfect hardiness but also a great saving in cost.

The collecting of seeds commenced by us about twenty years ago in magnitude and extent has ing over various sections of our mountain area, we are convinced that the crop of Conifer seeds will be short this year. In some varieties a total failure is noticed.

Quotations made in this list cover only seeds we expect to receive. Of Abies Douglasii we shall not be able to collect but one-third the number of pounds usually sold.

Our price, however, will remain unchanged, and orders will be filled in rotation as received, subject to being sold out.

TERMS

Cash, unless otherwise agreed.

All orders with cash, received before shipment will be sent free to any part of the United States.

If sold out of any variety of seed, orders will be filled only to the extent of our stock.
