CATALOGUE OF

Rare and Valuable Trees, Shrubs, Vines and Hardy Perennial Plants,

FOR SPRING OF 1895.

OFFICE, 54 SIXTH STREET, PITTSBURG, PA.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

How to Send Money.—We will be responsible for money sent by Express, Post Office Money Order, Registered Letter or Draft. If sent in any other way we disclaim all responsibility. Individual checks for amounts less than ten dollars will not be accepted, as we must pay for the collection of them.

Have Your Plants Sent by Express.—If a plant is worth buying it is worth paying express charges on. To send plants cheaply by mail they must be so small as to be of little value, and when they are large and strong the shock of removing the soil from the roots, necessary when sending by mail, would make them almost worthless. We always add extras to help pay the express charges. All bulbs can be sent safely by mail.

Credits.—Credit will be given on orders amounting to fifty dollars or more, but they must be accompanied, from unknown correspondents, with unexceptional references, given in one of the larger cities.

LANDSCAPE GARDENING.

Plans and Estimates Furnished.—Arrangements can be made by those desiring to improve their grounds, to have one of our house visit any place in the United States or Canada, who will furnish them a detailed plan and estimate for the proposed improvements. Plans for small places and beds and borders can be made without a personal visit.

The Landscape Gardening Department of our business is in charge of thoroughly capable men, and their work, without exception, has been entirely satisfactory to our customers, many of whom are most critical and exacting. Our landscape gardening is done on the lines laid down in our book, A Few Flowers Worthy of General Culture; that is, with trees, shrubs and plants that are entirely hardy, and which give a permanent and ever increasing beauty and value to the garden and grounds. The immense variety of material produced in our nurseries, and the experience gained in growing it, give our customers many advantages in having their grounds designed and planted by us, both in prices and the satisfaction of the work done.

We do this work throughout the United States and Canada. For small places and ones the condition of which are simple we can do satisfactory work if furnished with plan drawn to scale. For large places and where extensive improvements are desired, a personal visit can be arranged for by correspondence. We make plans with estimates, subject to approval, and furnish the trees, shrubs and plants necessary to carry out our design, either with or without superintendence of the work. We undertake the improvement of the most extensive suburban grounds, as well as the smallest city lot, and there are no grounds so small that cannot be greatly improved by intelligent and artistic arrangement.

OUR CATALOGUE OF BEDDING PLANTS,

Containing a complete list of all the best New Cannas, Roses, Gladiolus and other summer bedding plants, will be sent to our customers in February.

ORNAMENTAL SHRUBS.

We cannot impress too strongly on the owners of suburban homes the value and importance of flowering shrubs; but the old system of dotting a few of the common kinds all over the lawn is the worst use that can be made of them. Shrubs should be used freely and in groups or masses. In their blooming season they are incomparably finer and more effective than anything that can be produced with summer bedding plants. The season of blooming is so varied that, with care, groups or belts could be planted to follow each other, in flowering, from March to October. The shrubs should not be huddled together in compact masses, as is often done, but planted in irregular groups, forming nooks and glades and allowing room for the full development of each individual. These bays and open spaces afford precisely the proper degree of shelter for Lilies and many other fine hardy plants.

Amorpha Fruticosa. Graceful foliage; flowers dark purple. 35 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Amygdalus Alba Pleno. (Double White Almond.) 50 cents each; $4.50 per dozen.

Amygdalus Rubro Pleno. (Double Red Almond.) 50 cents each; $4.50 per dozen.

Berberis Thunbergii. (Japan Barberry.) Dwarf; very choice. 25 and 50 cents each; $2.50 and $4.50 per dozen.

Berberis Purpurea. (Purple Barberry.) Rich purple leaves. 25 and 35 cents each; $2 and $3 per dozen.

Berberis Illicifolius. (Holly-leaved Barberry.) Handsome foliage, closely resembling Holly and remaining on the plants till mid-winter; splendid for massing. 25 and 40 cents each; $2 and $3.50 per dozen.

Cornus Mascula. (Cornelian Cherry.) Yellow flowers; showy scarlet fruit. 35 and 50 cents each; $3.50 and $4.50 per dozen.

Cornus Sanguinea. (Red Twigged Dogwood.) 25 and 50 cents each; $2.50 per dozen.

Cornus Siberica. Stems intense blood red. 50 cents each; $4.50 per doz.

Cornus Siberica Variegata. White foliage; choice. 75 cents each.

Cornus Siberica Spathii Aurea Variegata. Yellow foliage; beautiful. 75 cents each.

It continues in bloom from the end of June till late autumn. The growth, though vigorous, is dwarf, and it forms a compact, bushy plant two or three feet high. Altogether it is the most valuable dwarf shrub recently introduced, and is remarkably effective planted in masses, or in beds as recommended for Hydrangea Grandiflora. For a low ornamental hedge it could not be surpassed by any shrub hardy in this latitude. Strong 2 year old plants, 30 cents each; $2.50 per dozen; $18 per 100. Extra strong 3 year old plants, 40 cents each; $3.50 per dozen; $25 per 100.
- Spirea Prunifolia Flore Pleno. (Bridal Wreath.) Double; white. 35 cents each; $3 per dozen.
- Spirea Lindleyana. Very distinct; white plumes, handsome foliage. 50 cents each; $4 per dozen.
- Spirea Salicifolia. Willow-leaved. 25 cents each; $2.50 per dozen.

Mahonia Aquifolia. A beautiful shrub, with glossy Holly-like leaves and clusters of yellow flowers. 25 and 50 cents each; $2 and $4 per dozen.

Crategus Pyracantha. (Evergreen Thorn.) A valuable plant for growing as a single specimen or for a hedge. Covered in spring with white fragrant flowers and in autumn with brilliant orange colored berries. 25 and 50 cents each; $2 and $4 per dozen.

Buxus. (Box.) Well-known and valuable shrubs for shady situations where other shrubs would not grow. Also much used formerly for edgings and for clipping into artificial forms. 12 distinct varieties. Bushy plants, 8 to 12 inches high. 25 cents each; $2 per dozen.

RHODODENDRONS.

Named Varieties, with Bloom Buds. Purchaser's selections, in good bushy plants, $1.50 each, $15 per dozen; $2 each, $20 per dozen; $2.50 each, $25 per dozen, according to size; extra large specimens, $3, $4, $5 and $6 each. Special prices quoted on large quantities.

Named Varieties, without Bloom Buds. The best varieties, but our selection, $1 each, $10 per dozen; $1.25 each, $12 per dozen, according to size.

Catawbiense and Catawbiense Seedlings. These we offer in nice bushy plants, well set with bloom buds. $1 each; $10 per dozen. Without bloom buds, 75 cents each; $8 per dozen. Extra large specimens, $2, $3 and $4 each.

HARDY AZALEAS.

For the decoration of lawns, pleasure grounds or shrubberies, the most imposing plants, after Rhododendrons, are certainly Azaleas; and although not possessing the grand appearance of the former, they can nevertheless claim equal attention from the brilliancy of their flowers, which combine nearly all colors, from scarlet to rose pink, white, orange, yellow and striped, and possess also the most delightful perfume. The blooming season continues throughout the months of May and June.

GHENT AZALEAS.

This lovely class of plants is entirely hardy, and will thrive in any good garden. Our collection contains the finest varieties grown, and cannot be surpassed for the varied richness of their colors. Their finest effects are obtained by planting in groups.

Finest Named Varieties, $1.50 each; $15 per dozen. Mixed Varieties, of the finest sorts, $1.25 each; $12 per dozen.

AZALEA MOLLIS.

This splendid species from Japan brings an abundance of very large and beautiful flowers very early in the spring, before the Ghent Azaleas. Foliage large and growth vigorous. This will undoubtedly become very popular when it is better known. Although entirely hardy, it is an excellent and valuable plant for forcing in the greenhouse. Good plants well set with buds, 50 cents each; $5 per dozen. Strong, bushy plants, well set with buds, $1 each; $10 per dozen. Special prices per 100 on application.

HEDGE PLANTS.

Osage Orange. 2 years old, $1 per 100; $5 per 1,000.
California Privet. Very ornamental. 1 year old, $5 per 100; 2 years old, $8 per 100.
Ligustrum Sinensis. (Chinesc Privet.) New and choice; leaves small, dark green and remaining on the plants till mid-winter. We believe this will become the most popular ornamental hedge plant when its merits become known. Its dense branching habit and neat handsome foliage particularly adapts it for hedging purposes. 1 year old plants, $6 per 100; $50 per 1,000. 2 years old, strong and bushy, $15 per 100.

Norway Spruce. 1½ to 2 feet, $15 per 100.
Hemlock Spruce. 2 to 2½ feet, $30 per 100.
Arbor-Vitæ Hoveyii. 1 foot, $12 per 100.
Berberis. (Barberry.) 1½ foot, $10 per 100.
Cydonia. (Japan Quince.) 2½ feet, $12 per 100.

PRUNUS PISSARDI.

The best red-leaved tree yet introduced. The color of the leaves increases in brilliancy during the summer months, instead of diminishing or disappearing altogether as is the case with all other trees having variegated foliage. It grows about the same size as our ordinary plum tree, and is said to bear edible fruit of a purple color. It is, in our opinion, most effective when grown as a shrub having branches to the ground; and this form can easily be maintained by pruning, it being necessary only to cut back the points of the main shoots. The bright red of this Prunus forms an excellent contrast to the golden-leaved shrubs, such as Golden Elder, Golden Philadelphus and Golden Spirea. Good plants, 3 to 4 feet high, 50 cents each; $4.50 per dozen. Extra strong and bushy plants, 4 to 5 feet high, 75 cents each; $6 per dozen.

ROSES.

Our stock of Roses this season is exceptionally large and well grown. It contains the best standard varieties of Hybrid Perpetuals, Moss Roses, Climbers, and the various classes of Monthlies, as well as some of the most desirable new introductions. During February we will publish a descriptive list of Roses and other plants, which will be mailed free to our customers and to all applicants.

FRUIT DEPARTMENT.

APPLES.

We grow many varieties of Apples as well as all other fruits, and can supply all the important kinds. The varieties named we consider the best for general purposes.

We shall be pleased to quote prices to anyone desiring stock in larger quantities than offered herein.

Brighton, Salem, Delaware, Lindley, Moore's Early, Pocklington. 25 cents each; $2 per dozen.

RASPBERRIES.

The Black Caps do best planted in the spring. Clarke, Cuthbert, Philadelphia. 10 cents each; 50 cents per dozen; $2.50 per 100.

Golden Queen. This new Raspberry originated on the farm of Ezra Stokes, in Camden Co., N. J., and is described by him as an improved Cuthbert, of a beautiful yellow color. He says it may be fittingly described as a variety of six cardinal virtues, viz: 1. In flavor it rivals that venerable and highest in quality of all Raspberries, Brinkle's Orange. 2. In beauty it transcends all other Raspberries I have ever seen, being of a rich, bright creamy yellow color. 3. In size it challenges the large Cuthbert. 4. In vigor it fully equals its parent (the Cuthbert) and resists heat and drought even better. 5. In productiveness it excels the prolific Cuthbert. 6. In hardiness it has no superior. 50 cents per dozen; $3 per 100; $20 per 1000. Gregg, Mammoth Cluster, Black Caps. 50 cents per dozen; $2.50 per 100.

BLACKBERRIES.

Kittatiny, Wilson's Early, Taylor's Prolific. 75 cents per dozen; $3 per 100.

GOOSEBERRIES.

Downing, Houghton Seedling, Smith's Improved. 25 cents each; $1.50 per dozen; $10 per 100.

CURRANTS.

Fay's Prolific. 2 years, 20 cents each; $2 per dozen; $12.50 per 100.

RHUBARB.

Myatt's Linnaeus. Strong roots. 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.

ASPARAGUS.

Smolley's Defiance, Connover's Colossal, Palmetto. 1 year old, 50 cents per dozen; $1 per 100. 2 year old, 50 cents per dozen; $1.50 per 100.

STRAWBERRY PLANTS.

We grow 25 varieties, comprising all the best, new and old sorts. Pot plants, 50 cents per dozen; $3 per 100; $25 per 1000. Layers from open ground, 30 cents per dozen; $1 per 100; $5 per 1000.

Elliott's Special Mixture of Lawn Grass Seed.

This mixture of Grass Seed is acknowledged by everyone as being the best that can be used. It is extra clean and entirely free of weeds. Price per quart, 20 cents; 8 quarts, $1; $3 per bushel (14 lbs. to the bushel). Price subject to change.

White Clover. Trifolium Repens. Should be introduced in all mixtures for permanent pastures, and when required in lawns. (60 lbs. to bushel.).....$0 25 $19 00

FERTILIZER AND INSECTICIDES.

Elliott's Soluble Fertilizer. This is undoubtedly the best fertilizer and plant food on the market. Price per lb., 10 cents; per 100 lbs., $6. Ground Bone Meal, per lb., 5 cents; per 100 lbs., $3. Bowker's Plant Food, 15 cents and 25 cents per packet.

Tobacco and Sulphur, 15 cents and 25 cents per packet.

Paris Green, 50 cents per lb.

Powdered White Hellebore, 15 cents, 25 cents, 50 cents per packet.

HERBACEOUS PÆONIES.

Herbaceous Pæonies.

Humei. Immense double pink flowers, and one of the latest to bloom. We consider this Pæony far finer than many of the new sorts that are sold at $1 each. Price, 25 cents each; $2 per dozen. Extra strong clumps, 50 cents each; $3.50 per dozen.

Rosea Plena. Superb bright rose, center of flower shell pink; fine for groups or masses. 20 cents each; $2 per dozen; $12 per 100. Extra large clumps, 30 cents each; $3 per dozen; $18 per 100.

It is beyond doubt that Herbaceous Pæonies are among the showiest and most useful hardy plants; the full, massive flowers are gorgeous and grand. A few years ago there were not many representatives of this class of Pæonies, but now, thanks to the hybridists, who have exercised their skill on them, we have a great number of varieties, ranging from the various shades of deep crimson down to pure white, while the petals of others are marked with stripes or tipped in the way of Carnations. Not only are the Herbaceous Pæonies large and splendid in color, but most of them are sweet scented, and when cut and placed in water perfume a large room. They are of the easiest culture, but they will repay the trouble of making a deep, rich soil for them. They can be naturalized in the grass or shrubbery, and will take care of themselves in any location.

Choice Named Varieties. 50 cents each; $5 per dozen.

Older Named Varieties. 35 cents each; $3.50 per dozen.

Mixed Unnamed Varieties. 25 cents each; $2 per dozen.

Choice Named Single Varieties. $1 each; $10 per dozen.

Tree Pæonies. $1, $1.50 and $2, according to size.

HARDY PHLOXES.

There is no class of hardy plants more desirable than the Perennial Phloxes. They bring enormous heads of blooms of great beauty, and every imaginable shade of color, from pure white to purple, including the most brilliant scarlets and crimsons. The two classes give as extended season of bloom as any of the bedding plants; they are far more effective, of the easiest culture, and as hardy as an oak or apple tree; and with them color effects can be made which cannot be surpassed except, perhaps, by Rhododendrons. They will thrive in any position, and can be used to advantage in the hardy border, isolated in large groups on the lawn, or planted in front of the shrubbery. We do not catalogue a detailed list for want of space; but if our customers will give us an idea of the range of colors they desire, and state the purposes they are to be used for, they can depend upon us making a better selection than they could possibly make themselves. Price, 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen; $10 per 100.

NEW HIBISCUS CRIMSON EYE.

This handsome perennial, of which we give an excellent illustration on first page of cover, originated in this country and is hardy everywhere. It is a robust grower, with dark red stems and foliage. The flowers are immense in size, often measuring six to eight inches in diameter. The color is of the purest white, with a large spot of deep velvety crimson in the center of each flower. The plant grows three to four feet high and as much in diameter. A well developed specimen will produce several hundred flowers in a season. Good plants, blooming size, 25 cents each; $2.50 per dozen. Strong 2 year old clumps, 35 cents each; $3.50 per dozen.

HIBISCUS MOSCHENTOS.

One of our showiest native flowers, similar in habit of growth to the above, but producing bright pink flowers about four inches in diameter. It contrasts well and is a good companion for the one described above. Strong roots, 25 cents each; $2.50 per dozen.

LILIUM AURATUM VITTATUM RUBRUM.

HARDY LILIES.

The Lily has long been celebrated for its rare and chaste beauty. No plants capable of being cultivated out of doors possess so many charms; rich and varied in color, stately and handsome in habit, profuse in variety and of delicious fragrance. With a well selected collection, Lilies may be had in bloom from June to October. They should be planted in the fall, from October 1st, as long as the ground can be worked, and in spring as soon as the frost is out of the soil until the 15th of May. The bulbs of all Lilies should be planted about 6 inches deep. If Lilies are to be sent by mail add 25 cents per dozen for postage.

Auratum. The well known magnificent gold banded Japan Lily. Delicate ivory-white color, thickly studded with chocolate crimson spots, and striped through the center a golden yellow. The very low price at which this splendid Lily is sold should cause it to be planted extensively. Strong blooming bulbs. 25 cents each; $1.50 per dozen; $10 per 100. Extra large bulbs 9 to 11 inches in circumference, 50 cents each; $3.50 per dozen; $25 per 100.

Candidum. The old pure white garden Lily. This Lily should be planted in August and September. 10 cents each; $1 per dozen; $5 per 100.

Speciosum Roseum. White, shaded and spotted with rose. The varieties of Speciosum are perhaps the most important group of the species, and can always be relied upon to give satisfaction. 20 cents each; $2 per dozen; $14 per 100.

Speciosum Rubrum. Similar to the preceding, but heavily spotted with rich crimson spots. 20 cents each; $2 per dozen; $14 per 100.

Speciosum Album. Large, pure white, fragrant flowers, of great substance; very fine. 30 cents each; $3 per dozen.

Elegans Altrosanguina. Rich crimson, spotted with black. 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.

Elegans Grandiflorum. One of the finest of the species. 20 cents each; $2 per dozen.

Tigrinum. The well known single Tiger Lily. 10 cents each; $1 per dozen; $6 per 100.

Tigrinum Flore Pleno. The double Tiger Lily. A splendid sort. 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen.

Canadense. Our bell-shaped Native Lily. Two varieties, yellow and red. 15 cents each; $1.25 per dozen; $7.50 per 100.

Superbum. The finest Native Lily; often bearing at one time 25 to 50 of its beautiful scarlet and yellow flowers. This is a splendid Lily for naturalizing, and its low price would justify planting it by the 100. 15 cents each; $1 per dozen; $6 per 100.

Batemanniae. A Japanese Lily, growing 3 or 4 feet high.

Tenuifolium. We cannot speak too highly in praise of this most graceful, brilliant, scarlet Lily. It should be planted largely in every collection. 25 cents each; $2.50 per dozen.

Leichtlini. A beautiful Japanese species of neat and elegant habit; flowers pure canary yellow, with crimson spots, 60 cents each.

Wallacei. Magnificent Japanese variety; clear buff flowers, spotted with black. 25 cents each.

Japanese Iris.

IRIS KAEMPFERI.

(Japanese Iris.)

Our collection of this splendid Iris is notably the finest in the country. The flowers of these Irises grow to an enormous size, averaging six to eight inches in diameter, while the beauty and variety of the coloring surpasses description. They should be planted in rich soil and will succeed in almost any situation except a shady one. For want of space we do not give a descriptive list in this circular of the varieties grown by us, but will, on application, send such a list to any of our customers who may desire it. When selection of kinds is left to us the best and most distinct sorts will be sent.

25 distinct named varieties will be sent for $5.00.

LOW PRICES FOR NAMED GERMAN IRIS.

This group includes most of the broad-leaved Irises. Neither care nor expense has been spared to make our collection complete, and it now comprises every shade of color.

We especially wish to call attention to the value of this Iris for groups, or for planting in masses on the lawn or among shrubbery, or for naturalizing in wild or uncultivated places. It is hardy everywhere, and it succeeds in any soil without cultivation or care of any kind; it is a vigorous grower and when planted in masses produces a display of large, showy flowers not equalled by anything else in its season. The most effective way to plant a mass is to use one color only, and it should be distinct and showy. For this purpose the blue and the yellow varieties are best, the colors being strong and clear. We offer these Irises at prices lower than they have ever before been sold in this country.

Fine Named Varieties, 15 cents each; $1.50 per dozen; $7.50 per 100.

Fine Mixed Varieties, 10 cents each; $1 per dozen; $6 per 100.

Blue German Iris, for massing. 75 cents per dozen; $5 per 100.

Yellow German Iris, for massing. 75 cents per dozen; $5 per 100.

IRIS SIBERICA.

Long grass-like foliage two to three feet high, forming dense erect tufts and numerous hollow stems, bearing an abundance of flowers. Fine for cutting.

Siberica. Light blue, beautifully netted with white lines. 15 cents each; $1 per dozen; $6 per 100.

Siberica Maxima. Claret, lower divisions light blue, veined white, large flowers. 20 cents each; $1.75 per dozen; $7 per 100.

IRIS TECTORUM.

A rare and beautiful Iris from Japan. Flowers pure white with deep golden yellow band at base of the lower divisions. This Iris does not resemble the so-called Japanese Iris (I. Kaempferi) but is entirely distinct and very beautiful. 25 cents each; $2.50 per dozen; $15 per 100.

HARDY PERENNIAL PLANTS.

With few exceptions the plants in the following list are grown in pots, so that they can be safely transported at any season. Our aim is to offer only the very best of each class, and every season we test large numbers of new or scarce kinds and discard those not sufficiently distinct. Many new and hitherto scarce plants have been added to our collection in the past year, not as costly novelties, but at prices which put them within the reach of all.

Selections can be made to suit any position in the lawn or garden, whether for shade or sun.

For large borders we will make a diagram free of charge, showing the proper location of the different species, provided the stock for planting the border is purchased of us.

The following collections will be made up of strictly first-class varieties. In ordering them it should be stated whether they are wanted for a sunny or shady situation, and if there are any varieties which customers already have, or do not want, they should be named.

The “Perfection”

Revolving Flower Pot Stand . .

Is a new article in the market, for which we claim:—

1. It is cheap, strong, durable and of large capacity. (No. 1 will hold 25 plants in 5 and 4 inch pots).

2. Brackets and plates for holding plants on stem are all removable.

3. It revolves freely on its centre and casters, thereby enabling anyone to attend to and water the various plants thereon, readily.

4. THE PERFECTLY WATERTIGHT SHEET METAL BOTTOM catches all drippings.

5. Therefore: this stand can be used on any tablecloth or carpet without danger of soiling same.

6. It is finely painted in green and bronze, thereby making it in combination with its other get-up, an ornament wherever placed.

SWEET PEAS.

General Instructions for the Culture of these Delightfully Sweet and Popular Flowers.

1st. The time to plant Sweet Peas is as soon as you can dig the soil, in early spring, without having it stick to the spade.

2d. The place to plant. We find that they do best in light soil. Must be planted in a sunny place, as they will not grow in the shade. Plant where they can be given water in the dry season, but where they will have good drainage. They should be planted about five to seven inches deep.

3d. Sweet Peas should be staked as soon as they show above the ground. The best way for a person having only a small patch is to use brush for staking, but for large patches we advise using poles about six feet in height and stretching wire for the vines to run on. The flowers should be cut as soon as they are in full bloom. If let go to seed they will soon stop blooming.

One ounce will plant a single row 10 feet long. The list given below includes all of the best varieties.

Miss Blanche Ferry.—No horticultural variety introduced in late years has become so widely known and highly prized as this. Not only are the large, bright pink flowers very beautiful, but the plant is more compact, comes earlier into bloom, produces more flowers and for a longer time than any other variety. Recognized not only in this country but in Europe as the best sweet pea in cultivation. Per oz., 10c.; per $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., 30c.; per lb., \$1.00.

Butterfly.—White or light blue tinged and shaded with lavender, becoming a decided blue on the edge of the standard. A striking peculiarity of this variety is that the standard presents the appearance of a butterfly's wings, being deeply cut on either side. Per oz., 10c.; per $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., 30c.; per lb., \$1.00.

Queen of England.—One of the best whites in cultivation; color very pure and true. Per oz., 15c.; $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., 40c.; lb., \$1.20.

Emily Henderson.—A sport from the Blanche Ferry; resembles Blanche Ferry in growth; best white in existence. Per pkt., 10c.; oz., 20c.

Boreatton.—One of the best dark colored varieties. Standard large and broad, notched at top; exceedingly rich satin like maroon; the wings about the same color, but lighter in shade and often with a slight tinge of blue, but in effect is a deep rich maroon self-colored flower. Per oz., 10c.; $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., 30c.; lb., \$1.00.

Ignea.—This is the newest out in scarlet. Flowers are large and beautiful. We think it the best scarlet. Per oz., 10c.; $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., 30c.; lb., \$1.00.

Orange Prince.—Although the flowers are not large nor as good in form as some others, they are so distinct in color that they can hardly be spared from even a small collection. Standard pink, suffused with orange yellow; wings bright lake pink. Per oz., 10c.; $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., 30c.; lb., \$1.00.

One ounce of each of the above named varieties send post-paid for 70 cents.

Eckford's Hybrids.—Mixed seed from the best of the varieties introduced by this celebrated grower, and all of them showing the fine form and substance noticeable in his introductions. Per oz., 10c.; $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., 30c.; lb., \$1.00.

Best Mixed.—Includes many of the new sorts and can be depended upon to give fine flowers of a wide range of colors. Per oz., 5c.; $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., 15c.; lb., 50c.
