FRANK S. PLATT'S

Annual Catalogue

OF

THOROUGHbred AND PROVEN

SEEDS

AND

Price List of Implements, Insecticides, Poultry Supplies, Etc., Etc.

For our Patrons convenience we have revised the Annual Catalogue, adding new features where considered of sufficient merit and worthy of place, with those that are to enter the last growing contest of the Century and eliminating many that have no special or distinctive feature of commendation. It is an important part of a Seedman's responsibility to know what kind of stock he is handling, and we claim to be in position to determine beyond any doubt this very end, as our stocks are all grown by careful and experienced cultivators, for our especial use, and most of them under our personal supervision. We are prepared to serve all our Customers of former years, whose continued patronage, year after year, is sufficient evidence of their fair and liberal treatment, and also welcome new ones who we will endeavor to serve with the same uniform courtesy and fair dealing, assuring all of full value for their investments, and stocks excelled by none in quality.

Terms and Directions for Ordering.

Terms. Cash with order, or satisfactory city reference. I will ship by express, C. O. D., on orders exceeding $10.00, if 25 per cent. of the amount is remitted with order. Cannot ship C. O. D. by freight.

Write Address Plainly. Write your Name, Post Office and State plainly, and in full on every letter. When Express or Freight Office is different from Post Office, advise me of the same.

Seeds, Etc., by Weight or Measure. Less than one-quarter pound and one-quarter bushel will be charged at slight advance in price above pound and bushel rates.

Postal Service. The postal arrangements admit the sending of seeds parcels, etc., to any part of the United States at the rate of eight cents a pound. I will send, postpaid, all Garden and Flower Seeds, sold in packets or by the ounce; but for Seeds in bulk, postage to the amount of eight cents per pound must be added to Catalogue prices.

For postage on Peas and Beans, add 15 cents per quart, and on Corn 15 cents per quart to Catalogue prices. When ordered by the ounce, either Vegetable or Flower Seeds will be sent by mail at Catalogue price without extra charge.

About Warranting Seeds. I would have it distinctly understood that I do not warrant Seeds in any sense of the term, and while I consider the goods I sell of SUPERIOR ORDER AND QUALITY, and exercise the greatest care to secure ONLY PURE AND RELIABLE SEEDS, the fact is pertinent and undeniable that crops may fail, no matter how fresh or pure the seeds sown to produce them may be, owing to causes the most expert cultivator cannot control. Therefore, if the purchaser does not accept the seeds on these terms and conditions, they must be returned at once, and the money that has been paid for the same will be refunded.

VALUABLE VARIETIES

RECENT PRODUCTION.

Burpee's Stringless Green Pod Bean is the only stringless Green-Pod Bush Bean in cultivation. The pods are ready to market two weeks earlier than the best stock of Improved Extra Early Red Valentines—in fact, even earlier than the Early Yellow Six Weeks, which, as all know, is valuable only for its extra earliness, being of inferior quality. Price per pkt., 10c.; per qt., 30c.; per peck., $1.50; per bushel, $5.50.

THE SOLID EMPEROR CABBAGE.

It is a choice strain of the varieties of the Danish Ball Head or Hollander Cabbage, that have come to us late in the winter for a number of years and proved extremely fine in keeping qualities, being so hard and solid as to suggest the impossibility of the cabbage worm and other vermin pre-empting vacant space, as occurs in our native varieties. It stands up well on the stump, somewhat taller and requires longer time for development than our standard sorts, but should not be omitted from the list of those who grow cabbages for the early spring market, as it is a valuable acquisition. Price per pkt., 5c.; per oz., 25c.; per lb., $2.50.

THE LUPTON CABBAGE.

Mr. Lupton, the originator of this Cabbage, is one of the largest producers of Cabbage seed in this country. For years he has made the business a careful study and devoted his time to it exclusively and annually controls the crops on many acres on Long Island. A statement made by him is never questioned by people who know him. He says:

"The Lupton Cabbage is the result of an effort to combine in one variety the best qualities of the second early and the late sorts. All late sorts are good because of their strong constitution and vigorous growth, and objectionable because they cannot be bred so true and will produce sports and and wild growth. The second early sorts, on the other hand, can be bred very true and are of better quality, but they have not the constitution of the late ones, and under unfavorable conditions, due to insects or other causes, will sometime fail absolutely when a late sort might produce a partial crop. Now, if we could make the Lupton Cabbage combine the best points of the second-early and late sorts we should have the best main-crop Cabbage. To a certain extent it does this. I do not know anything with a more healthy constitution, and I do not know of a Cabbage which I would as soon plant for a main-crop variety as this one. It is a little earlier than any one of the various strains of Flat Dutch and Drumhead and of closer growth. The heads are particularly large in proportion to the plant, which grows strong, but does not spread out much. The stalk is rather short, color dark green. In a great measure we appear to have succeeded in getting rid of the coarseness of the late sorts, as the quality is fine; it is also one of the best keepers we have, and comes out in the spring bright and fresh; the heads are not likely to crack open, although it will not stand as long as All Seasons, which is quite a remarkable Cabbage in this respect."

Price per pkt., 5c.; per oz., 20c.; per lb., $2.00.

THE SCHUMACHER CELERY.

The Schumacher Celery supplies a variety to the grower that has long been wanted. It is a strong grower with a large solid golden waxy colored center, so hard and crisp that it has proved one of the best keepers we have, and for market gardeners it is particularly desirable. Its heavy outer stalks which serve as protection, preventing evaporation, and holding the center in a fresh crisp condition long after, for winter use.

Price per pkt., 5c.; per oz., 30c.; per lb., $3 00.

THE EARLY CHAMPION SWEET CORN.

This is a variety of more than ordinary value to the Market Gardener. Upon the recommendation of the originator—one of the largest and oldest growers of sweet corn for seed in the United States—I made a planting of it in my trial grounds a few years ago, and also offered it for sale to a number of gardeners, who unhesitatingly pronounced it the best second early of the list. In my comparison I found it a few days later than the Burbank's Early Maine and Cory, but following close on. We picked the Champion and Extra Early Crosby on the same day. The ears are so much larger and longer than early sorts that it at once commands attention. It is ten to twelve rowed, well rounded at each end, and the quality is superb. It is pure white with kernel deeper than the average early variety, very sweet, tender, and delicious. Price per ear, 4c.; per qt., 20c.; per bu., $3.50.

THE EMERALD CUCUMBER.

Livingston's Emerald retains every good point in the best strains of White Spine, and, in addition, possesses that rich, dark green color which has been so long sought for but never before obtained. It is strictly an evergreen, retaining its color until fully ripe. On sight, its distinct dark green and spineless skin attracts the attention of everyone interested. The fruit sets early, and its vigorous vines abound in long, straight, handsome fruits of the most desirable qualities. As a slicer, the flesh is peculiarly crisp and tender, and the flavor most pleasing. The young fruit being dark green, straight and tender, makes an excellent pickle, and when ripe none excels it for making sweet pickles.

For Forcing. For those who grow under glass, or for long distance shipping, it will prove a boon, on account of holding its deep green color so much longer than any of either the Yellow or White Spine sorts; besides its size and uniformity will suit such growers much better than many of the kinds usually recommended for this purpose. The skin—always a handsome green of the darkest shade—when grown under glass is not excelled for beauty in color and form, even by the best English Frame varieties. It is almost free from "warts and spines," so much so that it may be called spineless. As an all purpose table or market variety, whether for gardeners' or farmers' use, it cannot be surpassed. Price per pkt., 5c.; per oz., 25c.; per lb., $3 00.

ROCKY FORD MUSKMELON OR CANTALOUPE.

This is a new and valuable introduction and has attained in an incredible short time a national reputation. It is of the Netted Gem type, oval in shape, averaging from four and one-half to five inches in length, of a delicate flavor, very fine and smooth grained flesh, of a light green color throughout when ripe, and is the most attractive and popular cantaloupe now on the market. This variety derives its name from the district in which it has been for the past two years so extensively and successfully grown in "Rocky Ford," Colorado, and from which point these melons are shipped in their season by the car load to nearly every station in the United States, till the same Rocky Ford has become a synonym for excellence in cantaloupes. Few hotels remain whose tables are not supplied with this toothsome dainty, and for a breakfast delicacy this luscious little melon is without a rival, its aroma is delightful, and no bill of fare is complete without it in the melon season. In productiveness it equals any of the older sorts, making up in quality and number of melons for whatever it may lack in size. The Seed we offer was grown at Rocky Ford, Colorado, and can be relied on for both purity and vitality. The accompanying cut, made from a photograph of melons, will show the true type of the genuine Rocky Ford Muskmelon. Price per pkt., 5c.; per oz., 20c; per lb., $1.50.

THE PETOSKEY OR PAUL ROSE MUSKMELON

Triumph Water Melon.

Is another western product of considerable merit. It is a cross between the Osage and Netted Gem, and combines the best features of the originals. The fruit is oval, medium size, dark exterior, thickly netted; with rich salmon flesh, so thick as to nearly close the seed cavity; and being a melon of firm flesh it holds up well after maiturty in handling. Price per pkt., 5c.; per oz., 25c.; per lb., $2.00.

The Triumph Water Melon.

Rind dark green color. Seed large and dark; flesh is the bright red color of Kolb's Gem. It is very early, large, prolific, deliciously sweet, of fine flavor. Price per pkt., 5c., per oz., 15c.; per lb., $1.50.

Gradus.

AN EXTRA EARLY WRINKLED PEA.

Gradus. The earliest large wrinkled pea up-to-date, traveling under several aliases, viz: "Prosperity," "Early Giant," and "Extra Early Long Pod." Nearly the size of Telephone and possessing all its delicious qualities.

The vine is about three feet in length, foliage light green, and yield beyond all rivals. Maturing but three or four days after the round hard early June varieties, and surpassing them in every point of excellence.

Price per qt., 50c.; per pk., $3.50; per bu., $12.00.

THE EARLY MICHIGAN POTATO.

Like many of the new, early potatoes it is of the smooth white oblong type, having few eyes and those nearly even with the surface. It is credited with a yield of 650 bushels per acre, thus establishing a record for productiveness, added to its reputation as the earliest potato on the market, is sure to place it first among the long list. There has been such a demand for this variety at planting time that the supply has run out each year long before the season was over. Price per bu., $1.75; per bbl., $4.00.

NEW DWARF TELEPHONE PEA.

This variety comes to us from a prominent Canadian firm of pea growers. It is recommended as equal to the Carters Telephone in every particular, which it closely resembles, except in length of vine and time of maturity. It is said to be nearly two weeks earlier than its namesake, growing but eighteen to twenty four inches in height and requiring no supports even in garden culture. The pods are very large, long and well filled with peas of superlative quality, and it should have a trial in every private garden to establish its value. Price per qt., 40c.; per pk., $2.00; per bu., $7.50.

EXTRA EARLY SCARLET FORCING RADISH.

This is a new French introduction that has met with special favor among the Paris and London gardeners, and comes to us with the record of a twenty-day development from seed to the table. It is a round or turnip-shaped sort with light cherry red exterior and fine grained white center. Very mild, crisp and palatable. The tops are short and scant, making it particularly desirable for the hot-house or frame culture. Price per pkt., 5c.; per oz., 10c.; per lb., 75c.

SCARLET TURNIP WHITE TIPPED FORCING RADISH, EXTRA EARLY.

A very correct type of the old variety so well known and approved for out-door planting, but earlier and adapted to inside growing. Its color is light scarlet diminishing in intensity towards the bottom and finally terminating in a pure white tap root. It is a very mild radish, and will please those who complain of the strong pungent taste often objectionable in some kinds. The tops are small, and it may be sown closer than the usual rule for radishes. Price per pkt., 5c.; per oz., 10c.; per lb., 75c.

VICTORIA SPINACH.

Although we have sold this strain of Spinach for two seasons, it seems to possess merits that entitles it to remain among the list of specialties. This is a German type of the large crumpled leaf Spinach and is exceptionally desirable for spring sowing, owing to its extreme vigor and size, and its long resistance to the stalking up propensity so fatal to the reputation of other large sorts. The color is a rich dark green. The leaf is crumpled and curled to a degree of beauty. Price per pkt., 5c.; per oz., 10c.; per lb., 40c.

NEW TOMATO

"HONOR BRIGHT."

A peculiar bright red variety, which appeared as a single "sport" plant in a large field of Stone Tomato in 1894, but is decidedly different. Its chief peculiarities are its solidity and changes of color the fruit undergoes during development; first it is light green, then an attractive waxy white, then lemon, changing to red. It is, notwithstanding its peculiarities, one of the longest keeping varieties, and of excellent quality. If picked in the early stage they can be stored in a cool place and will keep from one to four weeks. Price per per pkt., 5c.; per oz., 50c.

VEGETABLE SEEDS.

[Postage must be added to Catalogue prices at the rate of 8 cents per lb., when seeds are ordered in quantities of $\frac{1}{4}$ lb. and upward. For beans and peas, add 15 cents per quart, and for corn, 15 cents.]

ARTICHOKE.

Large French Globe. The flower heads of this variety are the portions for the table. Sow early in spring, in rich soil, and transplant the following spring to permanent beds, in rows (or hills) three feet apart, and two feet between the plants. It requires a deep, rich loam, and should be protected in winter by a covering of leaves or coarse manure. Perennial.

Price per pkt., 10c.; per oz., 30c.

Large French Globe Artichoke.

Tuberous-Rooted Artichoke. Jerusalem Artichoke. This is quite distinct from the Globe Artichoke, being grown exclusively for its tubers, which are prized for pickling and used largely for stock feeding.

Price per lb., 10c.; 3 lbs., 25c.; per pkt., $1.00; per bu., $3.50.

Jerusalem Artichoke.

ASPARAGUS.

Sow the seeds early in the spring, in drills about one inch deep, and rows about a foot apart, and in the fall or the succeeding spring the plants may be set out in beds about two feet apart each way, leaving the crown of the root about four inches below the surface. Before winter, cover the bed with a dressing of manure. Purchasing roots instead of seed will save a year in time.

Palmetto. Very early, large and pale green. Price per pkt., 5c.; per oz., 10c.; per lb., 40c.

Barr's Mammoth. Very large, tender stalks, light color and very early. Price per pkt., 5c.; per cz., 10c.; per lb., 40c.

The plants in seed beds are very apt to run up tall and slender, unless they are thinned and kept free from weeds.

A very desirable vegetable. The plant grows to two or three feet high, and produces from the sides of the stalk, numerous little sprouts one or two inches in diameter, resembling cabbages. The leaves look like the Savoy, and should be broken down in the fall, to give the little cabbages more room to grow. They are used for fall and winter greens, are quite hardy, and should be treated in all respects like winter cabbage or kale.

Brussels Sprouts.

CABBAGE.

Succession.

THE cabbage requires a deep, rich soil and thorough working. For early use the plants should be started in a hotbed or cold frame; but seed for winter cabbage should be sown in a seed bed early in the spring. Some of the large, late varieties seem to do best if the seed is sown in the hills where they are to remain, and in that case sow two or three seeds where each plant is desired, and then pull up all but the strongest. Plant the large varieties three feet apart; the small, early sorts, from a foot to eighteen inches. The Savoy cabbages have wrinkled leaves, and are of fine flavor, especially after a little frost has touched them in the autumn. with a fork until eighteen to twenty-four inches thick. In this state it may remain until the temperature is sufficiently moderate for spawning, which may be ascertained by trial sticks thrust into different parts of the beds. Divide the large cakes of spawn into small parts, plant two inches below the surface, six inches apart, cover with two inches of fine light soil and press down evenly. Mushrooms may be cultivated much easier than is generally supposed. They may be grown in a cellar or shed, or in beds prepared in the open air in the same manner as hot-beds. Take fresh horse manure, shake it well apart and lay it into a heap to ferment. Turn and mix it well every three or four days by shaking together the outside of the heap, which is cold, and the inside, which is hot, so that every part of it may be equally fermented and deprived of its noxious quality. When the dung is in a fit state to be made into a bed, which will be in two or three weeks after it has been put together to ferment, select a dry spot for a foundation. Mark out the bed, which should be four feet wide and as long as you choose to make it. In making the bed mix the dung well together, beating it down

MUSTARD.

Mustard seed is too widely known and appreciated to need description. It is useful both in its natural state and manufactured, and is considered wholesome in its various methods of preparation. It is also employed extensively for medicinal purposes, and for seasoning pickles in its natural state. The common table mustard is prepared from the flour of the seed. For a crop of seeds, sow in April, in drills a foot apart, and thin out moderately when about three inches high.

PEAS.

*Wrinkled varieties marked with .

Culture. Peas, for an early crop should be sown as soon as the ground is in working condition. The soil for their reception should be light and dry. For many varieties, the soil cannot be too rich. For general crops the ground should be well manured the previous year, which causes them to yield more abundantly. They are usually planted in double rows, three or four inches apart, and covered to the depth of two and one-half to three inches. This is the average depth, though some contend that greater depth prevents the premature decay of the vines. The height of the pea depends much upon the moisture and richness of the ground. The crop should be gathered as fast as it becomes fit for use. If even a few of the pods begin to ripen, young pods will not only cease to form, but those partly advanced will cease to enlarge. All wrinkled peas are superior to and more delicate in flavor than those that present a full and perfect form; like sugar corn, the saccharine matter which they contain causes them to shrivel when dried, and they will remain much longer in season than the other kinds. (If by mail, add at the rate of 15c. per qt. extra.)

SWEET, OR POT AND MEDICINAL HERBS.

A few pot herbs, or sweet herbs, as they are usually called, should have a place in every vegetable garden. A very small space in the garden will give all the herbs needed in any family. The culture is very simple, and the best way is to make a little seed bed in early spring, and set the plants out as soon as large enough in a bed. As a general rule, it is best to cut herbs when in flower, tie them up in small bunches and hang in the shade to dry. The following are a list of herbs most cultivated and prized.

GRASS SEED FOR LAWNS, ETC.

In laying out a piece of ground for a lawn, care should be exercised to obtain the proper grade and slope, and perfect the general plan of the grounds, before attempting to sow any seed at all. After the correct grade has been obtained, and the surface sufficiently plowed or spaded, it should be thoroughly harrowed, to pulverize the lumps and so left, that there may be at least five to ten inches of good, rich soil over the whole surface. Then all the roots and loose stones should be removed, and the surface bushed or raked down perfectly smooth and in a suitable condition for successful germination and growth of the fine seeds which are used for seeding. The preparation of most lawn seeds is composed of the finest kind of grasses, and for that reason should be sown much thicker than the coarse sorts that are used in field seeding. After sowing the seed, rake or harrow the surface lightly, and then roll thoroughly, to smooth off, and leave in good condition. (If by mail, 5 cents per qt., must be added.)

PRIMULA SINENSIS. (Fringed Chinese Primrose.)

This beautiful flowering plant for winter or spring decorations in the home or conservatory. It is one of our most important of winter blooming plot plants. It is usually advised to sow Primula seeds in July and August, but in our hot, dry climate it is very difficult to have them germinate at that season. I have found that the best time to sow is in February, March or April. Then sown, the seeds germinate freely, and fine plants can be had for winter flowering.

MISCELLANEOUS BULBS.

DOUBLE TUBEROSE.

The tuberose, being a native of a tropical climate, requires the extreme heat of summer and will not bloom till late unless started in the forcing-house or hot-bed in February or March. They may be transferred to open ground after the soil has become warm and settled summer weather prevails. The bulbs are extremely sensitive; a slight freezing destroys the crown or heart. They want plenty of water when growing, and any rich, light, sandy loam, in a sunny exposure, will suit them.

HENRY'S NEW TREE PRUNER.

By referring to the illustration, it will instantly be seen that this pruner commences the cut at the upper part of the limb instead of the under part. This fact alone is sufficient to convince all of its great superiority, but the immense advantage thus obtained can only be fully appreciated by a personal trial. Observe the simplicity of its construction, its enormous power and the ease with which the branch to be cut is approached. You have only to push the instrument to the limb, and the forked frame instantly guides itself into position.

HENRY'S PRUNING SHEARS.

These shears have been on the market twenty-seven years, and are well known for their strength, durability, superior temper and cutting quality of blades. I believe they are stronger and better made than any other in the market.

The shape of the handle is better adapted to the hand. The iron shoulder at the back of the blade increases the strength very much. The hook and spring for fastening them together are the very best, as the hook cannot come in contact with the upper handle while in use. These shears have had an extensive sale among wool growers for trimming sheep's feet, and are largely used among orange growers for pruning orange trees. Handle, malleable iron. Blades, best cast steel. Price, each, 50c.

WATERS' IMPROVED TREE PRUNER.

The small space required for working the knife allows it to be used among close, dense branches, where great difficulty is found in using the old-fashioned shears.

For pruning raspberry, blackberry and rose bushes it has proven peculiarly serviceable.

For removing worms' nests and thinning out fruits it is very desirable, and can be used as a fruit picker.

GLASS CUTTING AND GLAZING TOOL.

Workmen who use this instrument find it cuts glass as rapidly as a glazier's diamond, and for all the purposes of cutting and setting glass is just about equally valuable, though it costs not one twentieth as much. A tool which contains the appliances for cutting and setting glass has also attached to it a steel for sharpening knives and scissors, and also a corkscrew. Price, each, 10c.; per doz., $1.00.

HUMPHREY'S CONCAVED AND CURVED POTATO KNIFE.

Cut a potato lengthways (from seed to stem end), through the center, using a thin, sharp, straight knife, and make a drawing cut; then cut a slice about ⅛ inch thick from one piece and hold up between you and the light, and feeders will show as C, in Fig. 1. and central stem as D.

The vital tissues can be seen easily. If these feeders are cut too closely in preparing potatoes for seed, the vitality will be greatly reduced.

With the Concaved and Curved Knife, Fig. 3, this can be avoided. In the combination of Figs. 2 and 3 we show how potatoes can be cut in the best possible manner for seed.

Fig. 4, a section of piece actually cut with this knife, shows feeder and portion of main stem. The dotted lines indicate how a straight knife would cut same piece.

This knife will cut two or three eyes in a piece. One eye will be as good or better than half a potato cut in any other way. The potato can be cut easier, faster and better. If you cut no more than one bushel of potatoes, it will pay to cut them with the concaved and curved seed potato knife. Illustrated circular, showing structure and full directions for cutting, with each knife. Price, 25c.
