Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

Now Called Ingleside Floral Co.
(F. E. Gray Prop.)

California Flowers and Bulbs

Novelties Originated by Ingleside Floral Company

1899

Three Medals from Hamburg Exposition, 1897

F. EDWARD GRAY, Proprietor

140 S. Spring Street
Los Angeles, Cal.

Canna—Mrs. Kate Gray

ORIGINATED at Ingleside Nurseries, Alhambra, California. Is the result of crossing Canna Italia with Madam Crozy, making the finest Canna of this type yet produced. The flower is larger than either the Italia or Austria, being round and full, of a clear wine color, beautifully suffused with gold. The foliage much resembles the Abyssinian Banana. Musa Ensete. This Canna has never been excelled.

Will be sent by mail, one strong root,
for 50 Cents.

Giant Ingleside Amaryllis

RECEIVED a Gold Medal and a Bronze Medal at Hamburg Exposition, 1897. The largest Amaryllis bloom ever grown. Flowers from 8 to 9 inches across. These bulbs are very large and will have to be sent by express.

Price, $1.50 Each

The colors range from a deep scarlet to the most delicate pink, indescribably suffused with white or a delicate green.

Ingleside Hybrid Gladiolus

IN SIZE larger than ever yet grown. Send fifty cents for one dozen bulbs of Number Three. They will be sent by mail, postage paid.

Number Two received Silver Medal at the Hamburg Exposition in 1897. Price, 10c each; 25c for three, 40c for six, or 75c for 12, postage prepaid.

Number One, in size are wonderful, in color and markings cannot be equaled by any other flower. Price 15 cents, each, or $1.50 for twelve, postage prepaid.