Monticello, Fla. April 17, 1905.

I deal only with the most reliable farmers and careful growers, and test every lot as to germinating qualities. Surely the prices I herewith quote are very attractive, and are at, or below the cost of growing. Nothing offered but the very best quality of 1904 crop, Samples gladly sent upon application, and insist on sending samples whether you order or not. I am willing to compare stocks.

Will shave prices if whole amount is ordered at one time. Wire orders given prompt attention.
