Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

OUR DAHLIA NOVELTIES For 1905.

MRS. M. LESLIE. This new Cactus Dahlia was offered last season for the first. It has been cultivated in the trial grounds of the introducer for several years and found to be true. It is a fine Cactus. The plant is of spreading habit and the flower very compact of a large size, a deep glowing red. Price each 25c.

MRS. WINTERS. The grandest of all White Dahlias. Read what the introducer says:

"In offering this Dahlia, I believe I am introducing the best white Dahlia yet produced. The claim is a large one, but I believe its merits will justify the claim. Its color is a pure waxy white, which shows no tint or variation even in the strongest sunlight. It blooms very freely, producing flowers from five to seven inches in diameter, with beautifully pointed petals. Another good quality is that it never shows an open center. The plant grows to a height of 3 feet, and is of a rather spreading habit, and in type belongs to the Cactus section, but the petals, although pointed, are rather broad." Price each 25c.

COUNTRESS OF LONSDALE. The freest-flowering Cactus Dahlia in the collection, and perfect in form. Color, an exquisite shade of rich salmon, with just a suspicion of apricot at the base of the petals. Towards the tips the color deepens gradually to the softest carmine pink. Price each 20c.

KRIEMHILDE. Produces flowers of a delicate flesh pink, shading to white in the center. It is actually the finest pink Cactus Dahlia yet introduced. As a cut flower it is likely to supercede all existing pink sorts. It is impossible for this picture to do it justice. Price each 25c.

TWENTIETH CENTURY. A grand new single variety entirely distinct from all previous introductions and not only valuable as a flowering plant for the garden but a choice cut flower. Is rosy crimson, tipped with white and has a white band around the disc. As the season advances they become lighter, until they are almost a pure white suffused with soft pink, not variegated but blended in the most beautiful manner. Price reduced to 25c. each.

Special offer, one each above Novelties by mail for $1.00.

Order now that the bulbs may be reserved for you. We will fill orders in early spring in the order they have been received.

BARTEDES & CO.,
1521 FIFTEENTH ST., DENVER, COLORADO.