Good Things for Fall Planting

Autumn, 1914

GLEN BROTHERS, Inc. Glenwood Nursery
ROCHESTER, N. Y. Established 1866

FORSYTHIA

In our own experience the best success has resulted in transplanting shrubs in the Fall, in properly prepared soil, and giving winter protection by mulching with litter or leaves. Such subjects usually start to grow promptly in the Spring, and have already made fine growth before Spring planted trees and plants have started. We do not hesitate to advise Fall planting in climates not more severe than our own. Tulips, Hyacinths, Crocus and Narcissus can be supplied for Fall planting only.

IMPORTANT—The following list of shrubs are grown on our own farms, under our personal supervision. All are two years old, have had special cultivation and are sure to please particular people.

FORSYTHIA: The Golden Bells

One of the earliest and showiest Spring flowering shrubs. The first few warm days of Spring finds the golden bells in flower, making the landscape bright with a glorious yellow. Their handsome, clean foliage is remarkably free from insects or fungi, remaining unchanged until late in the Fall. We offer several varieties but the two here described are exquisite.

Forsythia Fortunei—(Fortune's Golden Bell) Of more upright growth than some of the other varieties, the branches bending slightly, making a most graceful effect. Blossoms just as winter is leaving, the flowers being a rich golden yellow. We can recommend it as one of the best. Price 35c each, $3 per doz.

Forsythia Viridissima—(Green barked Golden Bell) More erect and shrubby in habit than the Fortunei. The leaves and bark are a deep green, flowers a deep yellow. Blossoms very early in the Spring. The light green bark is conspicuous and interesting all winter. Price 35c each, $3 per doz.

Beautiful Weigelias

Weigelia Eva Rathkea—New. A constant bloomer, flowers brilliant crimson, a beautiful distinct shade, flowering after all others are through. Price, 50c each; $4.00 per doz.

Weigelia Rosea—A hardy beautiful shrub, bearing in May a profusion of rose colored flowers. Very erect, compact growth. No shrub bed is complete without it. Price, 50c each; $4.00 per doz.

Spirea, Thunbergii

Spirea, Thunbergii—The fine foliage of this Spirea gives it a very graceful appearance. Of dwarf habit and rounded graceful form; branches slender somewhat drooping; foliage narrow, yellowish green; flowers small, white, appearing early in Spring, being one of the first Spireas to flower. Easily the gem of Spireas. Price, 35c each; $3.00 per doz.

DEUTZIAS

Deutzias are well suited for small gardens, and we confidently recommend them to all who desire something choice and beautiful. The two varieties described are especially desirable.

Deutzia Crenata—(Pride of Rochester) This variety excels all others in size of flower, length of panicle, profuseness of bloom and vigorous habit. A charming acquisition to the list of Deutzias. Flowers are double, being pink in bud, white when fully expanded. Flowers early. Price 25c each, $2.50 per doz.

Deutzia, gracilis—(Dwarf Deutzia) A dwarf form of real merit. Bush forms a round, compact mass, bearing single white flowers in early Spring. Thrives well in either sunny or shady places. Desirable for planting in front of tall shrubs. Price 25c each, $2.50 per doz.

Cornus Mascula—(Cornelian Cherry) A large shrub that bears bright yellow flowers early in Spring, and bright red berries in Autumn. Very desirable. Price 40c each, $4 per doz.

Two Choice Snowballs

Viburnum Lantago—(Sheepberry) Creamy white, very fragrant flowers, light glossy green foliage, growth and habit like Pearl Leaved. Price 35c each, $3 per doz.

Viburnum Sterile—(Guelder Rose Snowball) This is the common Snowball, large size shrub, with globular clusters of pure white sterile flowers borne in May. A necessity to every garden. Price 35c each; $3 per doz.

Two Highly Desirable Climbing Shrubs

Wistaria, Purple—A most beautiful climber, of rapid growth, producing large pendulous clusters of fragrant pale blue flowers. When well established makes enormous growth. Is very hardy and one of the most superb vines ever introduced. It blossoms in May, and usually gives a small crop of flowers in August or September. Price 50c each, $4 per doz.

Wistaria, White—Magnificent racemes of white flowers. It is identical in habit and growth to the Purple, and is a superb variety. Price 75c each, $7 per doz.

TULIPS

No flower surpasses or even equals the Tulip in beauty and gracefulness of form and brilliancy of color. It is superb for borders, about the foundation of the house, and when massed produces the most delightful effects. Without these bulbs one or two months of beautiful Spring weather our gardens would present a bare appearance. We know of nothing that for the money invested will give a more gorgeous showing during early Spring.
