Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

62.57

WILBERT E. ASHCRAFT

Chestnut Valley Seed Farm

Wholesale Seed Grower

I GROW ALL THE SEEDS I SELL.

I DO NOT BUY TO SPECULATE

I DO NOT SAVE TOMATO PULP

Swedesboro, N. J., January 1, 1914.

Contract Prices for 1914 Crop

TOMATO	50 lbs.	100 lbs.
Dwarf Champion Tomato Seed	$1.50	$1.30
Coreless " "	1.50	1.40
Globe " "	1.30	1.25
June Pink " "	1.50	1.25
Duke of York " "	1.30	1.25
Truckers Favorite " "	1.30	1.25
Success " "	1.40	1.25
Beauty " "	1.40	1.25
Ponderosa " "	2.10	2.00

PEPPERS
Chinese Giant Pepper Seed	2.00	1.90
Ruby King, large 5 in. " "	1.00	.90
Bull Nose " "	.70	.65
Neapolitan " "	.80	.75
Sweet Mountain " "	.85	.80
Crimson Giant " "	1.90	1.80

EGG PLANT
Imp. Purple Egg Plant Seed	2.00

Please send a list of what you want grown and let me give you my best prices on large lots. Any kind of seed grown by contract.

WILBERT E. ASHCRAFT

Professor of English Literature

Department of English Literature

University of California, Berkeley
Berkeley, California 94720
Telephone: (415) 848-1111

Residence: 2111 University Avenue, Berkeley, CA 94720

Current Address: 2111 University Avenue

[Faint, illegible handwritten notes and signatures follow, including a signature that appears to read "W. E. Ashcraft" and some illegible text.]