CITY YARD GARDENS

It will soon be in order to decide whether or not there shall be a garden in the backyard next summer. It is not too early to study the choice of crops and the methods of cultivation, if any such use is to be made of dooryard space.

For the welfare of a multitude of families in this city, it is to be hoped that gardens will be more numerous than ever before. A summer of war prices for many food staples is almost certain. War conditions in the markets are likely to last through the fall and the winter following. There is little chance for any other state of things.

For this reason the food which can be grown in backyard gardens will be worth more than usual, and it will be more needed. It can be made an important item in cutting down the cost of living for many a family having need of every dollar that can be saved.

In seeking this economy it will be found that the quality of the vegetables grown will be better than usual. Freshness counts more than most city people understand in the flavor of corn, lima beans, peas and other garden staples. And with the higher quality will come keener appetites for those who do the work in the gardens.

No exercise is more wholesome. None gives more satisfaction to those who enter into the spirit of the world-old occupation, which never loses its charm of novelty, of seeing things grow under personal care and by the help of personal work.

By all means, plan for more gardens than ever before. They are good in every sense.

BEANS

Wax or Yellow-Podded Bush Varieties

Bush Beans may be had throughout the season, by planting at intervals of two weeks, from the beginning of May until the middle of August; they should be planted in drills two feet apart and one inch deep.

Currie's Rust-proof Wax

An improvement on the old-fashioned Golden Wax, and ready about mid-season. Pods grow long, flat, very tender and of finest quality. Pkg., 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 30c; pt., 50c; qt., 90c.

Wardwell's Kidney Wax

A very popular variety of Wax Bean, bearing long, flat pods of a delicate waxy yellow, stringless and brittle, producing a heavy crop. The pods mature a little later than Golden Wax, but are produced in great abundance. Pkg., 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 35c; pt., 60c; qt., \$1.00.

Improved Golden Wax

Counted by many to be superior to all others. This bean, introduced in 1876, still continues the standard variety for home use. The pods are long, nearly straight, broad, half-round, golden yellow, very fleshy and wax-like. They cook quickly as snap beans, and are of the highest quality. Pkg., 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 30c; pt., 50c; qt., 90c.

Hodson Wax

A new and distinct Wax Bean of unusually healthy growth, which enables it to resist disease. The variety is remarkably prolific, with straight, oval pods, which are longer than almost any other garden sort. In season it follows Golden Wax and other standard sorts, thus giving a succession. On this account and because of its remarkable productiveness and beauty it is becoming very popular. Pkg., 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 30c; pt., 50c; qt., 90c.

Wardwell's Kidney Wax

Davis Kidney Wax

The handsomest of all the early Wax Beans. The pods are long (seven inches), straight, very uniform and clear waxy white. The vines are vigorous, very prolific and fairly rust resistant. We are constantly improving the variety in this respect, using only the seed from unaffected vines. The dry beans are kidney-shaped, clear white and excellent to use as a Navy Bean for baking. For snap beans in the home garden they should be used while young, before they become stringy. Pkg. 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 35c; pt., 60c; qt., \$1.00.

Improved Prolific Black Wax

(Cylinder Pod)

Dwarf bush growth and very prolific. one of the earliest. Pods four to five inches in length, usually curved, quite round; meaty, brittle, and stringless; deep golden yellow of excellent flavor. Pkg. 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 30c; pt., 50c; qt., 90c.

Copenhagen Market

Copenhagen Market

This most valuable early cabbage from Denmark, produces a large globe shape head, which comes into market along with Charleston Wakefield. It is well known that Denmark is a great Cabbage and Cauliflower country, and our seed comes direct from the originator. Produces fine, large heads uniform in shape and size and very solid, with few loose leaves. It is a vigorous grower and an excellent keeper. Pkt., 10c; ½ oz., 35c; oz., 65c; ¼ lb., $2.50.

Johnson's Premium Flat Dutch Cabbage

Continued care and critical selection on the part of our grower have given us a very thoroughbred strain of this standard Cabbage. The heads are of the bluish green color, flat on top, and are solid and large. Has no useless outer leaves and grows low with short stem. It cuts white and crisp, the flavor is excellent, with no stringiness. This strain is slightly earlier and quicker growing than most of the Premium Flat Dutch that is offered, and is quite free from a tendency to burst. We do not hesitate to recommend our stock to even the largest growers, as it has been so long bred to a standard that it can truly be called a pedigree strain. Our seed has come from the same grower for over 20 years. Pkt., 10c; ½ oz., 20c; oz., 35c; ¼ lb., $1.25.

New Chinese Cabbage. This new Chinese Cabbage has such a delicate flavor that it has been variously named, "Odorless Cabbage," "Celery Cabbage," etc. We earnestly advise all who want something new and better, to try it. Johnson's Premium Flat Dutch

CAULIFLOWER

Cauliflower succeeds well in any soil where Cabbages will grow. It delights in a rich soil and abundance of water. By sowing the early varieties in a hot-bed in February or March, fine heads can be obtained in May or June. For a later supply sow seed in a prepared bed in May, choosing a cool, moist place. When large enough, transplant, making the rows about 2½ feet apart and 18 inches between the plants. Transplanting should be done in moist weather.

We challenge comparison of our Cauliflower seed with stock offered by any one. It comes from the most reliable growers in Denmark and no expense is spared to get the best.

Gilt Edge Snowball. Very early and compact. Most reliable for heading. Genuine Denmark grown. Pkt., 25c; ¼ oz., $1.25; ½ oz., $2.00; oz., $3.50.

Extra Long or Evergreen White Spine. Vines are of vigorous growth with large, heavy foliage, thus resisting attacks of insects, etc. The color is rich, dark green, always straight, and never turn yellow. Chicory Witloof.—Known in restaurants as French Endive. Sown in May and June in drills. Transplant or thin to 6 inches; treat as Endive, except that late in summer or fall it should be gradually banked up like celery. The stalks, when blanched, make a delicious salad. It may also be allowed to grow in the garden until the tops die down, leaving a root somewhat like a parsnip. These are taken into a shed and kept in a heap of soil away from frost and light, to be transferred to a hothouse when needed to produce their blanched heads during winter. Pkt., 10c; oz., 35c; $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., 90c.

SWEET CORN

The Sweet or Sugar varieties, being liable to rot in cold or wet ground, should not be planted before May, or until the ground has become warm; for a succession continue every two weeks, until the middle of July, in hills 3 feet apart each way, covering about half an inch, and thin out to 3 plants to a hill.

Owing to unfavorable weather Sweet Corn is very scarce.

Early Varieties

Earliest Mayflower. This is a ten to twelve rowed corn, larger than Mammoth White Cory and from three to five days earlier. Three season's trials of this splendid sort have convinced us that it is the coming extra early Corn. Pkg., 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 30c; pt., 50c; qt., 90c.

Golden Bantam. Produces ears measuring about five inches, but the smallness of ears is fully made up by the deliciously sweet flavor and tender quality of the Corn when cooked. By all odds the finest extra early variety when quality is considered. Pkg., 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 30c; pt., 50c; qt., 90c.

Kendel's Early Giant. Large, handsome ears of fine quality, very early. Pkg., 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 30c; pt., 50c; qt., 90c.

Howling Mob. A large eared early sweet corn, ready for use about five days later than First of All, generally producing two good ears to a stalk, averaging 7 to 9 inches long, with 12 to 14 rows of pearly-white grains. The stalks grow 4 to 5 feet high. An excellent home or market sort. Pkg., 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 30c; pt., 50c; qt., 90c.

Mammoth White Cory. Considered one of the best early Sweet Corns. It produces stalks about four feet high, each generally bearing two large, finely shaped ears which become fit for use in about 72 days. They are 12 rowed, six to seven inches long, very symmetrical and handsome, seldom with any opening between the rows at the base. Grain large, broad, very white and of remarkably good quality for such an early sort. Its size and beauty give it ready sale even when the market is overstocked. Pkg., 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 30c; pt., 50c; qt., 90c.

Second Early

Black Mexican. When in table condition the grains are pure white and quality delicious. Pkg., 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 25c; pt., 40c; qt., 65c.

Early Mammoth. Very large ears, fine quality. Pkg., 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 30c; pt., 50c; qt., 90c.

General Crop

Stowell's Evergreen. The most popular variety grown, ears large and very sweet. Pkg., 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 30c; pt., 50c; qt., 90c.

Country Gentleman. The finest of all sweet corns for the table, and when once used no other sort is quite good enough. The milky kernels are plump, pearly white and tender. A very heavy husk protects this Corn so that it retains its tenderness and keeps it "in the milk" a surprisingly long time. Ears average eight to nine inches in length; cobs small and grain very deep. All in all, we heartily recommend it as the best Corn for main crop. Pkg., 10c; $\frac{1}{2}$ pt., 30c; pt., 50c; qt., 90c.

An Extra Early Wrinkled Pea, hardy, early and profitable. This remarkable Pea has now been on the market 10 years, and has steadily grown in popular favor until today it is one of the most widely known varieties in cultivation. The secret is that it produces a TELEPHONE POD as early as Alaska. Then, too, its quality is of the highest order—fully equal to the finest late wrinkled marrow grown. The vine is of vigorous growth, about 30 inches in height on good soil. The pods are borne abundantly, and are so large and fine that the basket fills surprisingly fast. As many as 8 to 10 peas of the largest size and most luscious quality are found in each pod. For the home garden it is perfectly adapted, on account of earliness and quality. For the market gardener it is the most profitable sort on account of the earliness combined with size of pod. (See cut.) Pkg. 10c; pt., 40c; qt., 75c.

Extra Early OhioExtra Early Ohio, Northern Grown

Our Genuine Extra Early Ohios are now well known to our old customers but for the benefit of those who have not tried them we wish to say that our seed is grown with just as much care as is bestowed on Pedigree Seed Corn. RADISH

RADISH—A SPECIALTY. We maintain a very high standard in Radish seed, securing nearly all our stocks from the foremost French Growers.

To be crisp and tender, Radishes must grow quickly; whenever growth is checked by drought or cold weather, they become tough and pitch. Rich, light, sandy soil suits them best. For the forcing crop, sow seeds in rot beds in rows 5 to 6 inches apart and thin the plants as the ground becomes warm. Seed of winter varieties should be sown in mid-summer. Summer varieties are best adapted for general crop. An ounce of seed will sow about 75 feet of drill.

Earliest Round Sorts

Improved Scarlet Globe. This new radish has a remarkable ability to bear the heat necessary for rapid growth without becoming pithy or losing flavor. As shown in the illustration, it is of surpassing beauty as regards shape and color. The flesh is crisp, tender, juicy and mild. The color is a rich scarlet. It has a smazy top and the roots are surprisingly uniform in shape and size. We offer only the most carefully grown seed. See cut. Pkt., 5c; oz., 20c; ¼ lb., 65c.

SELECTED NORTHERN GROWN SEED CORN

Owing to the unprecedentedly unfavorable conditions last season, we cannot, even at this date, make firm prices on Seed Corn. We will be pleased, however, to quote by letter.

Early Huron Yellow Dent

The best early yellow Dent Corn. The plant is strong, deep rooted and stocky, enabling it to withstand drought in a remarkable manner. The corn matures in 85 days from planting; this makes it very valuable to farmers in northern sections. It is a very heavy yielding variety, nearly all stalks bearing 2 ears. The ears are medium sized with a very small cob, covered from tip to tip with beautiful golden yellow grains. The ears average from 7 to 9 inches in length. It will yield more pounds of shelled corn per bushel of ears than many of the late varieties.

Improved Leaming Yellow Dent

Improved Leaming is medium early. The ears are large with very deep bright yellow kernels. The cob is small. The stalks grow to a medium height and often produce two large ears and make first-class fodder. This corn succeeds well on nearly all soils and will produce large crops of high grade deep yellow corn. One of the best varieties to sow for fodder and ensilage, as well as for grain.

Northern Ohio White Dent

The brightest silver colored Corn. The ears are very large, extra long, medium depth of kernel, extremely firm

White Cap Yellow Dent

It is a strong grower, resists heat and drought; yields large crops on thin soil; matures in 90 to 100 days, stalks 8 to 10 feet high, ears 8 to 10 inches long, well filled with 16 to 18 rows, packed solidly on a small red cob. The outer end of the grain is white and deeply dented, balance amber yellow. The fodder is abundant and of superior quality. Many of our customers who have tried this think it the best variety.

Red Cob Ensilage

A pure white corn cropping as high as 45 tons of fodder per acre. Sweet, tender and juicy. More nourishment than any other variety. Short joints, abundance of leaves and of tall growth. An excellent silo corn.

Sweet Corn for Fodder

For cutting in the green state, for summer forage, sweet corn is superior to any of the ordinary field corns. We recommend it especially to dairymen, for use during July, August and September, when pasturage is affected by dry weather. It forms a cheap and wholesome feed for cows, as every part of the stalk and leaves are relished.

High Grade Farm Seeds

It is impossible to quote firm prices at the time our Catalogue is printed, owing to the fact that the market fluctuates so much. We will always be pleased however, to quote by letter if you will drop us a line when you are ready to buy. We handle only the highest grades.

Alpine Asters

Alpine asters rank high among the showiest spring and early summer flowering perennials of medium and low growth. Their comparatively large star-shaped flowers, in clear lavender, borne on single stems and appearing in great abundance, never fail to draw attention. Aster subcœruleus, the tallest species, is a very handsome subject for the mixed border when planted close together in clumps of from six to twelve plants.
The bright blue, daisy-like flowers with brownishyellow center on stems nearly 18 inches long,
during June, are valuable for cutting.

Alpine asters may be easily raised from seed sown in a cold frame during March or April.
Transferred into the open ground they thrive best in a light richly manured soil. Proper care should be taken to give plenty of water during their growing season. On account of their low and compact habit of growth, they prove invaluable as highly effective edging during May.
Aster alpinus is also well adapted for slow forcing in pots. Pkt., 10c; 1/8 oz., 50c.

We make a great specialty of this popular flower, securing our stocks of the most skillful growers only and we confidently recommend them.
