Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

WOODRUFF & BOYCE SEED CO.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

BUCKLEY RANCH

Woodruff-Boyce Summer Ranch—Summer of 1919

Puget Sound—The New Pea Country

“The Place Where They Get a Crop”

Owing to the severe winter which has ruined most of the root crops in the Puget Sound country, these ranches will be planted to peas in 1920. They are the finest seed farms in the Northwest. Here we are using our best efforts for the benefit of the seed trade. We are breeding stocks which we know will really be a credit to the slogan

“THEY ARE AMERICAN GROWN”

WOODRUFF-BOYCE SEED CO.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

WOODRUFF & BOYCE SEED CO.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

AUBURN RANCH