REGULATIONS FOR THE LIBRARY OF THE Massachusetts Horticultural Society,
ADOPTED 1861.

ARTICLE I.
All Books, Manuscripts, Drawings, Engravings, Paintings, Models, Portraits, and other articles deposited in the Library, shall be confined to the special care of the Librarian, and shall not be loaned or otherwise disposed of without the sanction of the Society.

ARTICLE II.
When any books or publications are added to the Library, a list thereof shall be printed and placed in the Library, and all such additions shall be entered in the Librarian's Catalogue.

ARTICLE III.
The following books of reference shall be kept:-
No. 1. A Catalogue of the Books.
No. 2. A Catalogue of the Manuscripts, Drawings, Engravings, Paintings, Models, and other articles.
No. 3. A list of all donations, deposits, books, or other articles presented to the Society, with the date thereof, and the names and residences of the donors.

ARTICLE IV.
None and costly books shall be taken from the Library Room. A list of such works as are to be withdrawn from circulation shall be made up from time to time by the Librarian, and placed in the hands of the Librarian.

ARTICLE V.
No more than two volumes shall be taken out by any member at one time, or retained longer than three weeks; and for each volume retained beyond that time a fee of ten cents per week shall be paid by the person or persons to whom a notice of a week shall be returned in a week week in computing time.

ARTICLE VI.
Every book shall be returned in good order (except being lost in the secretary's care) with proper labels, and if any book shall be lost or injured, the person to whom it is loaned shall, at the direction of the Librarian, replace it by a new volume or set, or pay for it at the value in the Librarian's Catalogue.

ARTICLE VII.
All Books shall be returned to the Librarian for examination on or before the first Monday in July annually, and remain until after the third Monday of said month, and every person neglecting to return any book or books directed to him as above, shall pay a fine of twenty cents per week, or every volume so retained. And if, in the absence of the Librarian, any book shall not be returned, the person by whom it is retained shall pay for the book or set, as provided in Article VI.
Supplies with any loan shall only have circulation thereon, and a notice to this effect shall be forthwith issued to him by the Librarian.

ARTICLE VIII.
No member shall loan a book to any other person, under the penalty of a fine of $1.00.

ARTICLE IX.
When a written request shall be sent to the Librarian for a particular book, then out, it shall be retained for the person requesting it, for one week after it shall have been returned.

ARTICLE X.
Every book shall be numbered in the order in which it is arranged in the Library, and also have a copy of the foregoing regulations affixed to it.
