Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

DAHLIAS

1922

A. W. BEEBE

MAPLEWOOD, N. J.

VISITORS ALWAYS WELCOME

Achievement. A good sized and very attractive collarette Maroon, with white collar. Roots, each 25 cents.

Aida (Decorative). Dark maroon, large perfect flowers carried high above the foliage on rigid, upright stems. A California introduction of merit. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Amber Queen (Peony). Amber shaded orange, large and very distinct and of a color that is quite different from nearly every other variety. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Anna Doppenberg (Peony). Flower of good size and almost full center. Very pretty pale yellow, with cream shading, stem good. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Attraction (Hybrid Cactus). The flowers measure over six inches in diameter, and are composed of gracefully arranged curled and twisted petals of a lively yet soft silvery lilac rose with white suffusion. This variety has long, very stiff stems and keeps excellently when cut. Roots, each, $1.00.

Avalanche (Peony). Large flowers of pure white carried on stiff stems and with full, high centers. Very good. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Bertha von Suttner (Peony). Flowers of exquisite form and of a lovely shrimp pink color. Can be grown to an immense size. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Bianca (Hybrid Cactus). Uniformly large flowers with moderately broad petals of a soft pleasing shade of mauve-pink passing to white at the tips. One of the best keepers when cut. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Bloemhoven (Peony). A splendid, free flowering Dahlia. Deep lilac rose in color. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Blossom (Peony). A dainty flower of great size and exquisite coloring, pure white with a suggestion of pink like a fruit blossom. Roots, each, $2.00.

Carolyn Wintjen (Decorative). A very beautiful salmon pink with rose shading. Large flower with a good stem. Roots, each, $2.50.

Copper (Decorative). Beautiful because of its odd coloring of copper shading to bronze. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Cream King (Decorative). An incomparable Dahlia that is a favorite wherever grown or exhibited. The coloring is different, a soft cream as the name indicates. The stem is very long, which makes it excellent for cutting, and as for size, it is simply immense. Roots, each, $1 00.

Creation (Decorative). Medium sized, full flowers held well up on strong stiff stems. In color a beautiful shade of light cherry red, becoming still lighter toward the edge and tips of the petals and as the flowers age. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Crystal (Cactus). A splendid exhibition flower of large size and fine form. Long, twisted and incurved petals of silvery pink shading to white in the center. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Diana (Peony Cactus). A Dahlia that it is a real pleasure to grow and one of my favorites. Crimson with violet reflex, but the colors are so soft and so beautifully blended that the effect is more that of a very soft and very rich ox-blood red. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Dr. Tevis (Decorative). A magnificent blossom of a blend of copper, old rose and old gold. Immense flower with the best possible stem and a Californian which it is a pleasure to offer. Roots, each, $1.00.

Dr. Tyrrell (Decorative). A New Jersey Dahlia of much more merit than the modest price would indicate. Color a deep, rich bronze which should make it a favorite with those desiring Autumn colors. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Dreadnought (Cactus). Deep crimson maroon, an excellent dark colored variety. Roots, each, 35 cents.

Earle Williams (Decorative). A new and magnificent giant flowering Dahlia; a wonderful combination of brilliant crimson and snowy white. Only a small number available. Roots, each, $10.00.

Elsa (Peony). Pure white with a big yellow center. A free bloomer with good stems. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Etendard de Lyon (Hybrid Cactus). Color a beautiful shade of purplish crimson. Petals loose and large and stem good. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Futurity (Decorative). The most beautiful Dahlia of its color, a deep old rose. Flowers are medium to large and very regularly formed. Free bloomer. Roots, each, $1.00.

F. W. Fellows (Cactus). One of the finest English cactus. Flowers are of immense size and are composed of a great number of long, needle-like petals. The color is unusual, being a brilliant terra cotta or orange scarlet. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Geisha (Peony). Showy and attractive, unique in form and color, the flowers consisting of curled and twisted petals of an effective, rich combination of scarlet and gold. Roots, each, 75 cents.

George H. Mastick (Peony). Blackish maroon with currant tips to outer row of petals. Brilliant yellow center and a remarkably free bloomer. Roots, each, $1.50.

George Walters (Hybrid Cactus). Always good, always big and always full of flowers; one of the kind that it is a pleasure to grow and to offer. Color salmon shading to orange yellow at the center. Roots, each, $1.00.

Gladys Sherwood (Hybrid Cactus). A giant white hybrid cactus of fine form held erect on a perfectly straight stem. Recommended for garden and exhibition. Roots, each, $3.00.

Golden West (Hybrid Cactus). A beautiful shade of old gold. Large flowers held erect on strong stems. Excellent for exhibiting and unsurpassed for cutting. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Grampion (Decorative). Highly desirable English decorative of recent introduction, shades of deep red not commonly found in Dahlias. A variety that will be in demand when better known. Roots, each, $1.00.

Hampton Court (Peony). Bright mauve pink on a long stiff stem. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Herbert Raby (Cactus). An immense crimson flower of only one or two rows of twisted petals around a big yellow center. Odd and well worth a trial. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Hochsai (Decorative). Geisha colors, scarlet and gold, in a heavy, full centered decorative and borne on a stiff, straight stem. Disbud freely. Stock limited. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Holman Hunt (Peony). A very fine dark-colored flower of a rich dark crimson shaded scarlet. Free bloomer. Roots each, 75 cents.

Hortulanus Fiet (Decorative). Salmon rose, shading to old gold in center. Immense flowers on strong stems. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Insulinde (Decorative). One of the very finest Dahlias I have ever grown or seen. Immense buff-orange flowers, lightly marked with scarlet on a few of the center petals and set squarely on top of a stem like a cane. Roots, each, $2.50.

Jane Selby (Decorative). Large flower of delicate mauve pink, of great depth and substance. Good stem and excellent as a cut flower. Roots, each, $1.00.

J. M. Goodrich (Decorative). Medium to large flower of an exquisite shade of rosy salmon. Roots, each, 35 cents.

John Riding (Cactus). Incurved, interlacing flowers of deep, rich crimson. Roots, each, 35 cents.

Jonkheer Boreel van Hoogenlanden (Decorative). A Dahlia that is as good as the name is long. Solid deep old gold on long stiff stems. Very fine for cutting. Roots, each, $1.00.

Kalif (Hybrid Cactus). A wonderful variety, frequently measuring over nine inches in diameter and borne on a strong stem. Color, pure scarlet. Roots, each, 75 cents.

King of the Autumn (Decorative). Medium to large sized flowers of an exquisite buff orange color with a suffusion of rose. Occasionally reverts to the peony type. Stems straight and stiff and three feet or more in length. Roots, each, 75 cents.

La Favorita (Hybrid Cactus). A massive flower somewhat of the type of Kalif but of a brilliant salmon color, shading from dark salmon in the center to salmon pink at the twisted points of the petals. Good stems and excellent for cutting. Roots, each, $2.00.

Liberty (Peony). A free bloomer of a brilliant coral red. An excellent variety of an unusual color. Roots, each, $1.00.

Madonna (Decorative). Large white with delicate blending of lavender. Long stems and a cut flower variety which when disbudded, will give plenty of flowers eight inches or more in diameter. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Mammoth (Decorative). An enormous flower of soft scarlet shading lighter toward edges and tips of the petals. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Marguerite Bouchon (Cactus). A well known straight petalled cactus. Brilliant rose heavily tipped white. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Mayday (Peony). A striking English variety. Petals marked lengthwise with varying proportions of rose, white and sometimes yellow. Roots, each, $1.00.

Melody (Cactus). One of the most distinct, the color being clear yellow for half the length of the florets, balance pure white. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Millionaire (Decorative). One of the largest varieties grown. Color, lavender shading to white at the center. Roots, each, $1.50.

Mina Burgle (Decorative). Rich cardinal red; a free bloomer with very good stems. Much used for cut flowers. Roots, each, 25 cents.

Mme. Fevriere (Decorative). Lavender and white. Roots, each, 25 cents.

Mrs. A. I. Dupont (Decorative). Ruby, very effective under artificial light. Roots, each, 25 cents.

Mrs. Carl Salbach (Decorative). A large flower of marsh-mallow pink, lighter in center, every petal outlined with deep mauve. Stems are very strong and long holding the blossoms well above the foliage. Roots, each, $3.00.

Mrs. J. C. Vaughan (Peony Cactus). A rather dwarf growing variety which produces an abundance of moderately large flowers on long stems. Color lively lemon yellow. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Mrs. Jessie L. Seal (Peony). The largest flower of its coloring which is a wonderful old rose. The stem is long and straight and the blossom is borne well above the foliage. Roots, each, $1.50.

Mrs. Margaret Stredwick (Cactus). This I believe to be one of the most perfect incurved flowers introduced. The coloring is a combination of tints of pink, softening and deepening at tips and base. Only a few roots, each, $2.00.

Mrs. Richard Lohrmann (Hybrid Cactus). Pure golden yellow of immense size and with broad, curly petals; flowers high above the foliage on long upright stems. Roots, each, $1.50.

Mrs. R. R. Strange (Decorative). Burnished copper with faint shadings of old rose and old gold. One of the better California novelties. Roots, each, $2.00.

Mrs. Warnaar (Hybrid Cactus). A splendid exhibition and cutflower variety of a creamy white with a faint suffusion of apple blossom pink. Roots, each, $1.00.

Mrs. W. E. Estes (Hybrid Cactus). A fine snow white Dahlia. The immense blooms of a multitude of pointed petals are held well up on long stiff stems. Roots, each, $2.00.

Nibelungenhort (Hybrid Cactus). A lovely hybrid of old rose with golden apricot suffusion. Always in demand as a cutflower. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Osam Shudow (Decorative). Old rose and lilac with shading of yellow make this a very attractive Dahlia. Flowers very large and full on strong stems. Roots, each, $5.00.

Pierrot (Cactus). Incurved, amber tipped white; attractive flowers, excellent for garden or exhibition. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Planet (Cactus). White at base of petals changing to rosy pink, spotted and striped with scarlet. One of the best fancy cactus. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Polar Star (Decorative). Very pure glistening white flowers on long stems. Petals long and narrow. Roots, each, $1.00.

President Lincoln (Decorative). New purple decorative just a little darker than Mrs. I. de ver Warner. Roots, each, $1.00.

Pride of California (Decorative). Crimson red with dark, full center; huge flowers on long upright stems. Roots, each, $1.00.

Princess Mary (Decorative). Vivid light pink, margined blush. Very effective under artificial light. Free blooming, but requires disbudding to get best results. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Princess Pat (Decorative). A magnificent decorative of a glorious shade of old rose. Large flowers growing well above the foliage on long erect stems. Roots, each, $2.00.

Raden Kartini (Peony). A new Holland variety, salmon and old gold on long stems. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Red Cross (Hybrid Cactus). One of the best Dahlias in existence, a beautiful combination of red and yellow. It is a very strong grower and the flowers are produced freely on long, strong stems. Roots, each, $2.50.

Rosy Morn (Decorative). Pink, shading to white at the center. Roots, each, 25 cents.

Ruth C. Gleadell (Hybrid Cactus). A fine hybrid of sunburst shades; soft yellow shading to pink on the outer petals. Good stem, large size, excellent formation and a free bloomer. Roots, each, $1.00.

Salvator (Peony Decorative). Deep rose pink which should be better known; try it. Roots, each, 75 cents.

San Francisco (Hybrid Cactus). Immense flowers of reddish bronze, petals broad and twisted; carried on upright rigid stems high above the foliage. Roots, each, $1.00.

Seahorse (Hybrid Cactus). A variety for which the supply will not equal the demand when it becomes better known. An English novelty of splendid erect habit and very free flowering; the blossoms are usually of medium size, though they can be grown larger, golden yellow and each of the broad, tapering petals tipped for nearly half its length with pure white. Only a limited number can be supplied. Roots, each, $3.00.

Seraphine (Peony). Bright, clear yellow. large. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Simplicity (Hybrid Cactus). Soft lilac rose. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Sulphurea (Decorative). Sulphur yellow with petals thrown back somewhat like a Japanese chrysanthemum. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Sweet Brier (Cactus). An excellent, medium sized pink cactus, moderately incurved. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Terra Cotta (Decorative) A very good decorative, full petalled, carried on stiff upright stems and of a beautiful, soft, rosy terra cotta color a little darker than Insulinde, which it strongly resembles. Roots, each, 75 cents.

The Grizzly (Decorative). Dark maroon red of large size and great depth. A prolific bloomer with long, stiff stems. Roots, each, $2.50.

The Lion (Cactus). A large flower of bronze old rose suffused with salmon, good stems and a free bloomer. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Tom Lundy (Hybrid Cactus). One of the largest of this type; the velvety red flowers are carried well above the foliage. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Van Dyke (Peony). A very popular variety with those who have tried it. The flowers of salmon and heliotrope are carried well above the foliage. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Walta Linforth (Peony) A big Dahlia of an uncommon, odd shade of soft, warm carmine. Freely borne on long stems. Roots, each, $1.00.

Weber (Peony). An immense rose pink flower, quite single in type, but almost the size of a dinner plate. Stems slender but long and stiff. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Yellow King (Hybrid Cactus). Chrome yellow flowers with long twisted and curled petals borne on stiff, straight stems. Excellent for garden, cutting or exhibition. Roots, each, 75 cents.

Zouave (Peony). Last in the list but not because of lack of quality. A profuse bearer of rich crimson flowers which seems to excel in dry seasons. Roots, each, 50 cents.

Terms: All retail orders paid for in advance are sent postage prepaid. Other orders are sent C. O. D. with postage added.

Order early and avoid disappointment should the variety desired be sold out.

Substitution: I never substitute without permission; but it is well to mention a few varieties that you are willing to have substituted should any of the varieties ordered be sold out.

Guarantee: I guarantee all tubers sent out to be in growing condition and true to name. Please notify me if any prove otherwise.