Do you wish your moneys' worth if the price has been lowered, or extra money returned?

Otherwise we will be forced to send only your money's worth or to hold your order until the necessary postage is received.

PARCEL POST ORDERS — He wish to call the attention of our customers to present parcel post rules which permit us to send up to 70 pounds in a single parcel in the 1st and 2nd zones. Thus, grass, clover, vetch or other seed ordered in quantities can be delivered to you by parcel post at about 1c per pound postage anywhere in the 1st or 2nd zones. This will be found to be of especial value wherever freight service is slow or uncertain in delivery.

MANGEL WURTZEL BEETS

Giant Yellow or Gate Post.

GIANT YELLOW OR GATE POST.

Write for Prices on 10 Lbs. or More

DANISH SLUDSTRUP. New kind from Denmark. Highly recommended by the Danish government. Long, oval, reddish-yellow. Grows well above ground, and easy to pull. After growing them for years, we find the Sludstrup to be very productive, large, smooth, uniform shape, and very sweet and solid, and of high nutritious value. They much resemble the Giant Yellow, or Gate Post, but are sweeter, containing more sugar. Lb., 45c; $\frac{1}{2}$ lb., 25c; $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., 15c; oz., 5c. Five lbs. or more at 40c per lb.

If you are in need of 10 lbs. or more of this variety of mangel, do not fail to write for prices, as we can make you very attractive quotations on this variety.

BRUSSELS SPROUTS

TALL FRENCH. Produces numerous compact sprouts of good quality. Oz., 25c; pkg., 5c.

BROCCOLI

Broccoli is a variety of cauliflower, but is more hardy and requires a longer period for development. It is often called "winter cauliflower" and should be treated the same as late cauliflower.

ST. VALENTINE. An excellent variety, which forms large, solid, white heads and is well adapted for shipping. Oz., $1.25; pkg., 15c.

AUTUMN WHITE CAPE. A splendid variety, with large white heads of good flavor. Oz., 60c; pkg., 10c.

See page 13 for description and prices.

BORECOLE or KALE

This is grown quite extensively for greens and for gardening wherever the climate will permit. As a rule kale will stand a temperature of nearly zero and can be used as winter greens wherever the thermometer does not fall below that point. The flavor is improved by frost. In the Northwest it gives good results if planted from June to August.

GREEN CURLED. The plants of this variety are two to four feet in height and bear an abundance of long plume-like leaves. The leaf edges are deeply cut and very curly. Very seldom injured by freezing in Western Washington or Oregon. Oz., 15c; pkg., 5c.

DWARF CURLED SCOTCH. A finely curled, low growing and hardy variety, well adapted for making greens. This variety is used largely for garnishing, as the leaves are of a beautiful light shade of green. This variety is also very hardy. Oz., 15c; pkg., 5c.

THOUSAND HEADED KALE. Lb., 50c; ¼ lb., 20c; oz., 10c; pkg., 5c.

For description and prices on larger quantities, see page 29.

CABBAGE

Our seeds are tested for purity and germination, and none are sent out that will not grow if soil, weather and cultural conditions are right.

EARLY CABBAGE

EARLY JERSEY WAKEFIELD.

This is the earliest and best cabbage not only for market gardeners but for the family garden. Its great resistance both to frost and other unfavorable condition makes it the surest header of all the early cabbages. The heads are very solid, uniform, medium sized and of excellent quality. $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., \$1.00; oz., 30c; pkt., 5c.

CHARLESTON WAKEFIELD. This is a strain of Wakefield which is just a little later and larger than the Early Jersey Wakefield. The leaves are large, smooth and rather thick. The plant is very hardy and vigorous. The heads are blunt pointed, broad at the base, and in general very uniform. Price, $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., \$1.00; oz., 30c; pkg., 5c.

EARLY WINNINGSTADT. A very solid, pointed head, medium in size and earliness. If planted late, makes a good winter cabbage. Heads well on land too poor to head other kinds. $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., \$1.00; oz., 30c; pkg., 5c.

COPENHAGEN MARKET. This is the earliest of the round headed type of cabbage yet introduced. The heads are quite large and very fine quality. Although this is not quite so hardy as the Early Jersey Wakefield it will be found an excellent sort both for the home garden and the market gardener. $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., \$1.25; oz., 40c; pkg., 5c.

HENDERSON'S EARLY SUMMER. A little later and larger than the Wakefield. Heads flat and stand longer without bursting. $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., \$1.00; oz., 30c; pkg., 5c.

ALL SEASONS or SUCCESSION. A fine new cabbage a few days later, but much larger than the Early Summer; sure heading and of finest quality. Good to plant early or late. $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., \$1.00; oz., 30c; pkg., 5c.

CABBAGE—Continued

LATE CABBAGE

PREMIUM LATE DUTCH. Best for winter use; round or slightly flattened heads; stands freezing well. A good keeper and of excellent quality. $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., \$1.00; oz., 30c; pkg., 5c.

GENUINE SELECTED SUREHEAD. One of the most reliable main crop or late cabbages for the Northwest. It is very hardy and a very sure header. The heads are compact and while of the same type as the Drumhead are somewhat thicker. It is a good keeper and in some localities is used for the home market and for shipping. $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., \$1.00; oz., 30c; pkg., 5c.

LATE AMERICAN DRUMHEAD. Large, late heads, hard and solid, very desirable for fall and winter use. Sure heading and a good keeper. Smooth, uniform heads. $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., \$1.00; oz., 30c; pkg., 5c.

HOLLANDER or DANISH BALL HEAD. A medium-sized, very solid head. Is a long keeper and a good one to ship. The small heads weigh more than large heads of other kinds. Should be planted on good soil, with good cultivation to secure good-sized heads. On poor soil it makes too long a stem. $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., \$1.25; oz., 40c; pkg., 5c.

RED DRUMHEAD. A large, very solid, late red cabbage, much used in pickling. Good keeper and a favorite with the ladies. $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., \$1.00; oz., 30c; pkg., 5c.

NETTED SAVOY. This is the finest of the Savoy cabbages, and a general favorite; of excellent flavor, surpassing that of any other late cabbage. Stands freezing well. $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., \$1.00; oz., 30c; pkg., 5c.

CAULIFLOWER

CULTURE — A good, extra rich soil is essential for the successful cultivation of this most delicious vegetable; our most experienced cultivators, however, acknowledge the advantage of a cool, moist season. Pursue the same general directions as recommended for growing cabbage, watering liberally during the dry weather. An occasional application of liquid manure is beneficial.

HENDERSON'S EARLY SNOWBALL

The best known and most used of all the early cauliflowers. A great favorite with the market gardeners; for both early and late planting. Produces beautiful snow-white heads of the most delicious flavor. Oz., $2.00; pkg., 10c.

CELERY

For garden culture we would advise making two plantings where wanted for either home use or market. For the earliest crop the seed should be sown in hotbeds during February or March, and the young plants set in rich soil as soon as large enough. For the fall or main crop, seed may be sown in the open ground as early in the spring as the soil can be worked in a good condition, and the plants should be set in the rows during July.

CELERIAC

CELERIAC (Turnip-rooted Celery). This is distinct in growth from the tall celeries. The edible portion is the large, swollen root, which somewhat resembles a turnip, and is highly esteemed for boiling or for flavoring soups, stews and other dishes. The plants should be started in the same manner as other celeries, and when of sufficient size, transplant to stand eight to ten inches apart each way in rich soil, hoeing frequently to promote a strong growth. As roots are produced entirely below the surface, plants do not need earthing up. Oz., 30c; pkg., 5c.

FODDER CORN

PRIDE OF THE NORTH. This is one of the earliest and best of the yellow dent varieties of field corn, growing about eight feet tall on an average. The kernels are long and closely set on the cobs. Due to the large yield, earliness and the quality of the corn produced, it has long been one of the standard sorts recommended by agricultural stations as especially adapted for use in Washington, Oregon and Idaho. Prices — Postpaid, per lb., 15c; 10 lbs. or more, 12c per lb. Write for prices on 50 lbs. or more.

MINNESOTA NO. 13 (Dent). This corn is the earliest and most productive of all yellow dent corn. Besides being adapted to a wider range of climate and soils than any other corn, it will produce the greatest amount of ensilage of any of the kinds now grown with success west of the Cascade Mountains. Our stock is grown from finest selected stock and carefully tested for germination. Prices — Postpaid, lb., 15c; 10 lbs. or more at 12c per lb. Write for prices on 50 lbs. or over.

FARM SEEDS FOR FORAGE CROPS

SPRING VETCH

The name "Spring Vetch" when applied in Western Washington is misleading in that this variety of vetch can be sown equally well either in the spring or fall. For this locality it is superior to the more expensive "Winter Vetch" whether grown for hay, silage, pasture or green manure. It is especially fine when grown for silage, as it is not only a great milk producer, but it also builds up the land on which it is grown. Should be sown at the rate of sixty to eighty pounds of vetch and forty to fifty pounds of either oats, wheat or rye. Can be sown until about November 1st.

PEAS—CANADA FIELD

Valuable for green fodder, also the ripe dry peas are very fattening hog feed. Peas and vetches are very enriching for the ground when plowed under green. They draw nitrogen from the air and give it to the soil. Sow 100 lbs. to the acre.

DWARF ESSEX RAPE

Dwarf Essex Rape, while used largely as a pasture crop for hogs and sheep, is also good for cattle and poultry. In the Northwest it may be sown any time from early spring till early fall. It should be allowed from six to eight weeks' growth before being pastured. Rape does well on moist land and slough banks, provided that the soil is not sour. Seed should be sown at the rate of 5 lbs. per acre.

THOUSAND HEADED OR COW KALE

Thousand Headed Kale is one of the most valuable of all winter crops for dairymen and poultrymen. It is a very hardy plant belonging to the cabbage family, which grows, in many cases, well over four feet in height, while the central stalk produces an abundance of long, broad leaves which are of great value as a green winter feed. Many poultrymen use it almost exclusively as a source of green feed during the winter. It is also largely used by the dairymen of this section, but should not be fed just before milking time.

Best results in growing Cow Kale are obtained when the plants are raised in a plant bed and transplanted in May, June or the first part of July, in rows about 4 feet apart and with the plants about 3 feet apart in the row. Owing to its rapid growth and large size when grown, it requires only a very moderate amount of cultivation if the ground is in good condition when the transplanting is done.

WINTER RYE

Winter Rye is rapidly becoming a great favorite in this section of the country as a cover crop for soiling purposes and for green feed. As rye will grow well all winter in the mild climate of the Northwest, it is being used more and more widely for soiling purposes on land which has already produced a crop of vegetables, corn, or other produce which can be removed in time for early fall plowing or discing. Rye can be sown with perfect safety until nearly the first of November.

Nitragin now comes in Bushel sizes instead of acre sizes. This means that it costs you less per acre than inferior imitations. If you sow 12 pounds of seed to the acre it will only cost you 20 cents for your Nitragin. It means that
