DARWIN TULIPS

Outdoors: The Darwin Tulips come into bloom after the Early Single varieties have finished flowering. They are stronger in growth, a few inches taller, and the flowers are considerably larger. The Tulip lover should plant large quantities of this type to continue the display after the Early Single Tulips have passed their prime. Darwin Tulips are easily grown and they look well if planted in formal beds, or grouped irregularly among shrubbery or perennials.

In the House: For forcing indoors, the Darwin Tulips are unsurpassed because of their strong growth and large size flowers. Within late years the value of Darwin Tulips as cut-flowers has been more and more realized, and large quantities of them are now grown during the winter for this purpose. They bloom indoors shortly after the Early Single varieties, and their fine range of good colors greatly adds to the number of colors that can be had at that season of the year. Planted in pots, they will bloom for nearly two weeks.

BREEDER TULIPS

Of all Tulips, the Breeders are without question the most striking. In their tall majestic growth and truly enormous blooms, they are rivals to the finest of the Darwins. 9252 Apricot See illustration. Ruddy apricot edged with a bronzy buff seam. The base of the petals is yellow, shading into an olive halo. A magnificent flower of a quaint and artistic color combination. Those who like the unusual will include this showy and free-blooming variety in their planting; 25 inches tall. 3 for 32¢; 6 for 60¢; 12 for $1.10; 50 for $4.10; 100 for $8.00.

COTTAGE TULIPS

The May flowering or Cottage Tulips resemble in general habit and growth the Darwins. They also bloom at the same time. This is an advantage because it permits the planting of both types together in a bed and having the varieties in bloom all at the same time. The Cottage Tulips we list are of strong upright growth with handsome flowers carried on thick substantial stems. As bedders, to be planted either alone or in clumps placed in the foreground of shrubbery or in the perennial bed, they are unsurpassed. The Cottage Tulips are planted extensively for winter blooming because they are easily forced and grow very large. The purpose of combining the two types of Tulips is to take advantage of the wider range of colors available, particularly since there are no good clear yellow shades found among the Darwin Tulips.

9206 Fairy Queen Soft rosy lilac flowers with a margin of bright amber yellow. The combination of colors is quaint and artistic. The blooms are of large size and very good form. They are carried upright on strong stems. Fairy Queen is a lovely garden variety of excellent and stately habit; 20 inches tall. 6 for 35¢; 12 for 65¢; 50 for $2.35; 100 for $4.50.

9210 Gesneriana Major This is a lovely variety with rich crimson-scarlet flowers having a brilliant blue base. The flowers are made up of long narrow petals. A very effective garden variety and excellent for cutting; 23 inches tall. 6 for 40¢; 12 for 70¢; 50 for $2.60; 100 for $5.00.

John Ruskin

Salmon-rose, edged
lemon-yellow

9216 John Ruskin See illustration. Mammoth flowers carried on strong stems. The color of the flowers is a beautiful blend of salmon-rose edged with soft lemon-yellow. The inside of the petals is a rich lilac shaded rose with a broad margin of yellow on the inside and a touch of yellow at the base. It is a beautiful variety and a strong grower; 16 inches tall. 6 for 50¢; 12 for 95¢; 50 for $3.60; 100 for $7.00.

9214 Inglescomb Pink See illustration on the front cover. It is one of the most popular of all Cottage Tulips because of its attractive color and excellent habit. The flowers are a pleasing soft rosy pink. When they begin to open they show a tinge of salmon evenly cast over the whole flower, but as the flowers age they turn to a pure rose shade. The flowers are large and nearly round. Excellent for borders and easily forced. A stately plant growing 20 inches tall. 6 for 40¢; 12 for 70¢; 50 for $2.60; 100 for $5.00.

Inglescomb Yellow
An exceptionally fine variety

9215 Inglescomb Yellow Illustrated on the front cover. This is the leading yellow Cottage Tulip and it is planted extensively together with all the different colors of the Darwin varieties because the latter class does not contain any bright yellow shades. The flowers are of largest size and perfect form. They are heavy, bold, and of massive appearance. The heavy texture of the petals makes it one of the most lasting of all Tulips. The color is an intense and glistening golden yellow. No planting of late Tulips is complete without this variety. The flowers are a shade that combines well with all other colors found in the Cottage and Darwin Tulips. The heavy blooms are carried on fine long substantial stems 19 inches tall. 6 for 40¢; 12 for 70¢; 50 for $2.60; 100 for $5.00.

9221 Moonlight This excellent variety is a lovely shade of soft canary-yellow. The flowers are of an oval shape with the outer petals reflexing at the tips. A strong and sturdy grower which makes a fine display in the open and is also grown extensively for late forcing indoors. The flowers look their best when the petals recurve completely, forming a beautiful and graceful star of rare beauty. Those who are attracted by graceful habit of flowers will be delighted with this variety. 6 for 40¢; 12 for 70¢; 50 for $2.60; 100 for $5.00.

9220 Mrs. Moon This is an excellent flower of a shape often called Lily Tulips. The blooms when closed are quite long, but when they begin to open the fairly narrow petals spread out so that the flower resembles a typical lily in form. The color is a deep lemon-yellow of great appeal. When the flowers begin to open, just the tips of the petals are reflexed. When fully developed the flower appears as a great star. A free bloomer and strong grower; 25 inches tall. 6 for 45¢; 12 for 85¢; 50 for $3.10; 100 for $6.00.

9233 Sir Harry See illustration. This is an unusually fine shade of soft laven-der-pink. The inside of the petals is relieved by a yellow base and a steel-blue halo. The flowers are large, with pointed petals and broad at the base. They are carried upright on long stems and the color looks its best if planted alongside of yellow or orange shades; 26 inches tall. 6 for 45¢; 12 for 85¢; 50 for $3.10; 100 for $6.00.

9234 The Fawn A well-shaped flower of artistic proportions and wonderful size. When the flowers begin to open they are a lovely and cheerful shade of rosy amber. Later when they open up more fully they change to a warm cream shade, artistically splashed with a faint delicate shade of rose. The texture of the petals is substantial yet with a wax-like or satiny finish. The fine large flowers are carried upright on long graceful stems; 18 inches tall. 6 for 40¢; 12 for 70¢; 50 for $2.60; 100 for $5.00.

9236 Cottage Tulips, Mixed A fine assortment of all the best Cottage Tulips which will give excellent results. This mixture will give a fine show if planted in masses, or clumped amid perennials or to supplement the planting of shrubs. All varieties included are large-flowering, of substantial texture, and the blooms are carried on long, strong stems. We recommend the planting of this mixture where a natural and colorful effect is wanted. CROCUS

Outdoors: Hardly any other flower is so well adapted for naturalizing in the lawn or the meadow as the Crocus. The graceful form of the bright flowers when they bashfully lift their heads just as if to peep and see if anyone else is out yet makes the Crocus one of the loveliest of all spring-flowering bulbs.

Crocuses look best when planted in masses either in the lawn, among shrubbery, in the woodland, or in beds or borders. They bloom early and will have finished flowering before the grass is ready for the first cutting, to come up again early the following spring. When the bulbs are planted, they should be covered with about 2 inches of fine soil. They will last almost indefinitely.

In the house: It is easy to raise fine Crocuses indoors during the winter. The bulbs may be planted in shallow pans, pots, or boxes filled with any good garden soil. They should be planted closely together, with the bulbs almost touching one another, covering them so that just the very tops of the bulbs show above the surface. Water the pots or pans thoroughly before placing them in an airy, cool but frost-proof cellar and where mice cannot reach them. In three to five weeks' time the bulbs will have made a large number of fine roots and they are then ready to go in a bright, sunny window, where they will bloom profusely. The room where the bulbs are placed to flower should be reasonably cool.

9504 Baron Brunow A very fine deep purple. The best one in this color. The flowers are of largest size. 6 for 25¢; 12 for 40¢; 50 for $1.45; 100 for $2.75; 1000 for $25.00.

9515 Golden Yellow A particularly fine variety with intense golden yellow flowers of large size and fine shape. The most outstanding yellow. It is a hardy and free-flowering variety. 6 for 25¢; 12 for 40¢; 50 for $1.45; 100 for $2.75; 1000 for $25.00.

9523 Mont Blanc Purest white, with attractive large, orange anthers. The texture of the petals is white and wax-like, and forms a sharp contrast against the rich green foliage. 6 for 25¢; 12 for 40¢; 50 for $1.45; 100 for $2.75; 1000 for $25.00.

9526 Pallas The bicolor varieties like Pallas are most attractive, especially if grown in shallow bulb pans for early indoor blooming. Pallas has large well-developed blooms with a white ground striped and splashed with a lovely lilac shade. The rich orange anthers form a sharp but pleasing contrast. 6 for 25¢; 12 for 40¢; 50 for $1.45; 100 for $2.75; 1000 for $25.00.

9533 Sir Walter Scott White, striped with pale lilac. It is the delicate combination of the soft lilac upon the waxy white background which accounts for the popularity of this variety. 6 for 25¢; 12 for 40¢; 50 for $1.45; 100 for $2.75; 1000 for $25.00.

9535 Purpurea Grandiflora This is a most distinctive variety of strong sturdy growth. The flowers are remarkably large. They are easily forced and come into bloom very early. Scilla—Bluebell Scillas play an important part for planting in borders and for use as cut-flowers. They bloom in the open during March and April, when planted in October or November. The tops of the bulbs should be covered with about three inches of fine soil and the bulbs should be spaced four to five inches apart. During real winter weather a covering of straw is advisable. For mass effect plant the bulbs in quantity. Let them remain for several years in the same place and they will increase in number, size, and beauty.

For pot-culture, place three to five bulbs in a pan and treat the same as you would Hyacinths or Tulips. Water sparingly until the buds appear, and give them a place where they can get all the sunlight possible. Whether planted indoors or outdoors, a soil with good drainage, containing a liberal quantity of sand, should be chosen. Grown indoors the blooms develop best if the plants are kept in a frost-proof room where the temperature keeps within 35 to 48 degrees Fahrenheit.

9490 Sibirica A popular variety on account of its intensely rich blue flowers, which appear about the same time as the Crocuses and Snowdrops. 6 for 40¢; 12 for 70¢; 50 for $2.60; 100 for $5.00.

9491 Campanulata The beautiful bell-shaped flowers are borne on slender stems during May and June. They are a bright sky-blue color. 6 for 35¢; 12 for 65¢; 50 for $2.35; 100 for $4.50.

SCILLA SIBIRICA

Scillas are splendid for naturalizing because they thrive in shady places where most all other flowers will fail 9496 Snowdrops (Galanthus nivalis) Snowdrops are the earliest of all spring-flowering bulbs. They do well in any kind of garden soil and are most suitable for naturalizing in the lawn and among shrubbery. In a warm, sunny place the flowers will come through the ground as early as February, long before all the snow has gone. By making plantings in locations with different exposures, blooms will be had for two or three months. Usually the flowers begin to appear about two weeks before the first Crocuses.

The bulbs do best if planted in masses in a cool, moist, and shady place. Under such conditions they will increase rapidly with every year. Yet Snowdrops will make a fine show in almost any kind of soil and they can stand harder treatment than most other bulbs.

The bulbs should be planted as early in the fall as they can be had. In planting the bulbs cover them with an inch or two of fine soil and set them from three to four inches apart. Early every spring the bulbs will send forth their slender stems, each holding the gracefully drooping white flowers which are heralded as the first messengers of spring. 6 for 40¢; 12 for 70¢; 50 for $2.60; 100 for $5.00; 500 for $24.00.

SNOWDROPS

Snowdrops are so easily grown that no garden is complete without them. They are the first flowers of spring

Grape Hyacinths

Grape Hyacinths look well either naturalized, planted among the perennial borders, or set as edgings to beds of Hyacinths, Tulips, Narcissus, and other spring-blooming bulbs.

They do best in a medium heavy soil which is well drained and porous. The graceful flower-spikes appear early in April. The flower-stems are six inches or more in length and are covered with miniature bells. Plant in the fall as soon as the bulbs can be had. Cover them with an inch or two of fine soil, setting the bulbs three to four inches apart. During particularly severe winter weather a covering of straw or strawy manure is necessary to protect them against severe frosts.

Grape Hyacinths are also grown extensively for winter-blooming indoors. They require a cool temperature to develop properly and cannot be forced into bloom by heat. Plant ten to twenty bulbs closely together in a shallow pan filled with sand and give the same treatment as you would to Crocuses.

9485 Heavenly Blue This is by far the most beautiful of the blue shades, with many fine small bells on a stem. 12 for 50¢; 50 for $1.85; 100 for $3.50; 500 for $16.50.

9486 White This is a white-flowered variety of the popular Grape Hyacinth. In freedom of bloom and attractiveness it vies with Heavenly Blue, and the two look very well planted together. 12 for 55¢; 50 for $2.05; 100 for $4.00.

GRAPE HYACINTHS

These hardy little bulbs should be planted in masses

NARCISSUS and DAFFODILS

Outdoors: All Narcissus are perfectly hardy with the exception of Paper White and Soleil d'Or, which must be planted deeply to live over our winters in the open. Jonquils are wonderful for naturalizing in the woodland or the meadow, but they are just as easily forced in pots for winter blooming. HYACINTHS

First Size Bulbs

Outdoors: Hyacinths are wonderfully well adapted to planting in beds outdoors, and the attractive display of colors early in the spring is a source of great pleasure to the flower lover. They are easily grown outdoors, planted in the fall, and covered with straw or strawy manure.

In the House: Hyacinths can be had in full bloom in pots, pans, or boxes throughout the winter and until late in the spring. Their delicate perfume and rich, gay coloring are always welcome. There are no bulbs easier to raise indoors for blooming during the winter than Hyacinths.

They can be grown either in pots filled with soil or in glasses filled with water. Success with both methods depends on getting the bulbs to make a strong root growth before the top growth begins. This is accomplished by setting the pots or glasses in a cool, airy, and dark place for a period of from 4 to 8 weeks. Afterward they are brought to light and kept at a temperature of from 50 to 60 degrees Fahrenheit until the flowers begin to open up.

Grand Maitre

9009 King of the Blues Illustrated on the inside front cover. This out-classes all other deep blue varieties on account of its purity and richness of color. The individual flower-spikes are long and they are fully set with large bells of a rich dark blue color. It is most useful if planted together with any of the lighter shades to bring out its rich color.

King of the Blues is a very good late forcing variety and also makes a fine show in the flower-bed. Of even height, with all flowers coming into bloom at the same time. 25¢ each; 3 for 70¢; 6 for $1.30; 12 for $2.50; 100 for $19.00.

9007 Grand Maitre

See illustration. A glorious spike of large bells closely set on a long and strong stem. The color is a rich deep porcelain-blue of unusual appeal and lasting quality. Excellent for bedding, but just as useful as a forcing variety. It is somewhat slower than other varieties when forced indoors. Because of its compact habit and solid spike of color it is used very widely for pot-plants. 25¢ each; 3 for 70¢; 6 for $1.30; 12 for $2.50; 100 for $19.00.

9014 Lady Derby

Illustrated on the inside front cover. Those who prefer rich pink shades will be delighted with this. The flower-spikes are long and strong and they are closely set with large bells of a beautiful clear rose-pink.

Grown in the open as a bedding variety, it is simply beautiful, but it is also easily forced, making fine pot-plants. Grown indoors the flowers are of a slightly deeper shade. The illustration shows the wonderful habit of the plants and the glorious spikes of flowers they make. It is a sturdy variety with a delightful and refreshing fragrance. 30¢ each; 3 for 85¢; 6 for $1.60; 12 for $3.05; 100 for $23.50.

Lady Derby

Illustrated on the inside front cover. A lovely Hyacinth with long and attractive flower-spikes. The individual bells are closely set on the stem, completely covering it. They are of a beautiful light delft-blue shaded with a somewhat deeper blue.

Enchantress is an early bloomer, valuable for bedding, and fine for forcing in pots or in special Hyacinth glasses. It is a standard variety which has been grown and carefully selected for many years by the best Dutch Hyacinth growers and our present strain is noteworthy for the uniformity of the flower-spikes. This is very important where Hyacinths are grown for bedding purposes, as the plants must be all of the same height and bloom at the same time to give a perfect display.

25¢ each; 3 for 70¢; 6 for $1.30; 12 for $2.50; 100 for $19.00.

We offer large size bulbs, 2¼ to 2⅝ inches in diameter, the size best suited for forcing as well as for outdoor planting.

9006 Gertrude See illustration. Gertrude is a pretty and charming variety of a rich carmine-rose shade. It is a great favorite for outdoor bedding because the plants make a uniform growth and come into bloom all at one time. This is very important in varieties which are grown for bedding.

Gertrude is also a very fine forcing variety, easily grown either in pots or water. The spikes are strong and sturdy and are closely set with large, well-shaped bells. When in full bloom a spike is just a solid mass of color, standing out sharply from the rich green foliage. Gertrude remains in full bloom for a long time. 25¢ each; 3 for 70¢; 6 for $1.30; 12 for $2.50; 100 for $19.00.

9019 La Victoire Illustrated on the inside front cover. One of the earliest of all Hyacinths to come into bloom. It is an excellent bedding variety, with long stems, staying in full bloom for an exceptionally long time. The color of the flowers grown outdoors is a brilliant scarlet. When grown under glass it is somewhat lighter. La Victoire is used extensively as a pot-plant, as it forces very easily and makes a very large spike. 25¢ each; 3 for 70¢; 6 for $1.30; 12 for $2.50; 100 for $19.00.

Gertrude

9023 L'Innocence Illustrated on the inside front cover. L'Innocence is the best of all white Hyacinths for all purposes. It is an extra-early variety, bearing long spikes which are closely set with magnificent white bells. Grown in beds it makes a beautiful display, but it is also used extensively for growing in pots or in water for winter and early spring blooming in the house. One of the earliest and most dependable for Christmas and early spring forcing. 25¢ each; 3 for 70¢; 6 for $1.30; 12 for $2.50; 100 for $19.00.

9027 Marconi The color of this splendid variety is a shade deeper than Lady Derby. It is a bright deep rose, attractively flushed with white. Marconi is highly recommended particularly for outdoor planting, where it develops handsome and heavy spikes, carried on strong, heavy stems. 25¢ each; 3 for 70¢; 6 for $1.30; 12 for $2.50; 100 for $19.00.

9031 Yellow Hammer It is easily forced and forms large compact spikes, well set with rich creamy yellow bells. Blooms early and is fine for forcing or bedding. 25¢ each; 3 for 70¢; 6 for $1.30; 12 for $2.50; 100 for $19.00.

Second Size Bulbs of Hyacinths

The bulbs of the Second Size Hyacinths are about 2½ inches in diameter. Many gardeners prefer this size for forcing. Excellent for bedding purposes and the bulbs are sure to bloom if they are given average care. Full descriptions of all these varieties are given above and on the opposite page.

PEONIES

What looks prettier than a well-grown Peony plant covered with a mass of gigantic flowers? The Peony comes into bloom at that time of the year which makes it an extremely desirable flower for use in connection with our national holiday, Memorial Day. With ordinary care the plants will bear their massive, fully double flowers in great profusion from year to year. Plant the roots during August, September, or early October in a bed well prepared and enriched with plenty of well-rotted manure. Cover the crowns with not more than 2 inches of good soil. The flowers, when cut, will last a long time in water. Most varieties as soon as they begin to open up are exquisitely scented and those offered below are the best in their color classes. Hardy Phlox may be used to good advantage in front of shrubbery or among the perennials. The plants are a mass of blooms all during the spring and early summer.

8955 Lily-of-the-Valley

Few flowers are as well known and as much appreciated as the Lily-of-the-Valley. After once being planted in a suitable place they will increase in number and will produce their graceful and sweetly scented blooms every spring for an almost indefinite time.

We offer strong, field-grown clumps which must not be confused with the Lily-of-the-Valley pips that are used for forcing by florists. These clumps are intended for garden growing and will give immediate effect. 55¢ each; 3 for $1.45; 6 for $2.80; 12 for $5.50; 25 for $10.90.

Freesias Freesias are superb. They are highly valued as cut-flowers during the winter and are easily grown in pots or pans, blooming during the winter and early spring. Plant the bulbs any time after the middle of August. For Christmas flowering start the bulbs the end of October. Allow as much space between the bulbs as possible and just cover the tops of the bulbs with fine soil. Water sparingly and keep in a cool, shady place where they are protected against frost until the grass-like foliage appears. They should then be put in a light room where the temperature is about 50 degrees, where they will flower freely.

9550 Purity See illustration. Glistening pure white flowers which are carried in long racemes composed of five to eight large tubular florets. Purity is a very profuse and free bloomer that can be forced easily in any dwelling. The bulbs are tender and cannot be planted outdoors where the winters have a freezing temperature. Chionodoxa—Glory of the Snow

9480 Luciliae See illustration. Chionodoxa is a perennial for the open ground and is also largely planted for pot culture. Any kind of good well-drained garden soil will do. Plant the bulbs three inches deep and as close as one inch apart. They make a fine show during March and April. The flowers are more or less deeply tipped with blue at the ends of the petals, shading to white toward the center. The bulbs are perfectly hardy.

For indoor flowering during the winter a cool room is needed. They require fresh air, plenty of light, a moderate temperature, and regular watering without keeping them too wet at all times. The flowers are borne in clusters of as many as twelve blooms on a single stem, coming out of the center of a rosette of rich green, grass-like leaves. 3 for 17¢; 6 for 30¢; 12 for 55¢; 50 for $1.95; 100 for $3.75.

Ixia 9488 Mixed See illustration. The mixture contains pink, rose, crimson, orange, yellow, white, and many other intermediate shades. They have been successfully grown outdoors on Long Island and in Massachusetts. For indoor culture plant six to eight bulbs in a flower-pot filled with a good, porous garden loam containing some leaf-mold and clean sand. Cover the tops with one inch of fine soil. Place the pots in a cool dark place where the temperature hovers around 45 degrees Fahrenheit. If the soil has been fairly moist when planted, no water is needed until top growth begins. After the leaf growth has started give them a place in a sunny window, but keep them at about 50 degrees Fahrenheit. When in full bloom they need plenty of water. If grown outdoors, protect with straw or strawy manure during severe weather. 6 for 30¢; 12 for 55¢; 50 for $1.95; 100 for $3.75.

Ranunculus 1980 French Mixed See illustration. Ranunculus are not hard to grow. The bulbs should be planted as soon as they can be had in the fall or any time up to the end of January. Bulb pans or boxes 3 inches deep are well suited for planting, and a loamy, sandy soil, which must be well drained, will give the best results. When planting, cover the bulbs with 2 inches of fine soil. Keep the planting cool, around 45 to 50 degrees, as too much heat is sure to interfere with the proper development of the flowers.

Ranunculus are tender and must not be subjected to freezing weather. They may, however, be planted in October and kept in a frost-proof cold-frame until the end of February, when they should be brought into a bright room and kept at 45 degrees, where with regular watering they will make a quick growth and bloom freely.

The French Ranunculus are particularly attractive. They come in many bright colors, with the individual blooms measuring 2 inches and more in diameter. The flowers are fully double and represent nearly all shades except blue. Some of the flowers are attractively striped and variegated. The stems grow 6 to 12 inches tall, some carrying as many as 4 blooms. 3 for 25¢; 6 for 45¢; 12 for 85¢; 50 for $3.10; 100 for $6.00.

Amaryllis—
Giant
American
Hybrids

plants are easily grown.

These wonderfully showy plants are easily grown. Plant a number of bulbs together in a large pot, as they grow more satisfactorily in this way than if planted singly. Cover the neck of the bulb with three inches of fine soil. Keep the planting dry until the flower-stems break through the ground, then water regularly but not in excess. After the flowers have appeared the leaves will begin to grow. To keep the bulbs over for another season gradually withhold water when the foliage begins to turn yellow. When the soil is fully dry and the leaves have died down, keep in a dry place until a few weeks before planting time in the fall, then take out the bulbs, clean them, and keep dry and warm until the sprouts show signs of breaking through. They are then replanted.

8903 Johnsoni This is the Giant Amaryllis with large, trumpet-shaped crimson flowers marked with a broad white stripe. It is very easily grown and makes a fine show. 75¢ each; 3 for $2.15; 6 for $4.10; 12 for $8.00.

Anemone

8909 St. Brigid See illustration. These beautiful Anemones contain a remarkable range of fine colors, including pink, rose, purple, lavender, violet, scarlet, crimson, and many intermediate shades.

St. Brigid Anemones are easily grown. They bloom profusely from early March until late in May. Autumn is the right time for planting, placing the bulbs from 2 to 3 inches deep and 5 to 6 inches apart. It is necessary to firm the soil around the bulbs in order to get a satisfactory growth. Where the weather does not drop below zero no special shelter will be needed, but during very severe weather a cover of straw or strawy manure is needed. Anemones do best in a porous, well-drained, moist, and fairly shaded soil. For winter blooming in the house treat the bulbs the same as you would Hyacinths or Tulips. Start planting late in August and keep at a temperature of 45° F. Keep moderately moist until the plants are in bloom, at which time water should be given freely.

St. Brigid Anemones grow 6 to 12 inches tall, each stem carrying a large flower measuring nearly 2 inches in diameter. There are single, semi-double, and double flowers represented. Excellent for the garden, for pot-plants, or cutting. 3 for 25¢; 6 for 45¢; 12 for 85¢; 50 for $3.10; 100 for $6.00.

LILIES

Lilies are the symbol of beauty. They are easily grown and the varieties we list are perfectly hardy. With every year they will increase in size and attractiveness. Lilies do best in a well-drained sandy soil which should be fairly rich. The plants need plenty of water during periods of drought. Plant the bulbs as early in the fall as they can be had. It is important to plant deeply. As a general rule, the top of the bulb should be located three times as deep as the greatest diameter of the bulb. The distance between the plants should be from 12 to 18 inches. To provide the necessary drainage dig the hole which is to hold the bulb and place the bulb at the bottom on a layer of sand, filling in fine sand all around it until completely covered. On top of this is placed ordinary garden soil. Many bulbs are late maturing and cannot be shipped before November first. Where the ground is likely to freeze before the bulbs arrive cover it with a mulch of straw, manure, or leaves several inches deep to keep the ground in condition for planting as soon as the bulbs are received. These late plantings are usually very successful.

Callas

Callas, or Calla Lilies, as they are often called, will live outdoors all the year round where the temperature does not reach the freezing-point. In our northern climate Callas are planted mostly indoors for cut-flowers. For best results rich fertile soil should be chosen. A mixture of $\frac{1}{2}$ good garden loam, $\frac{1}{4}$ leafmold, and $\frac{1}{4}$ good clean sand suits the plants particularly well. Also see to it that the Callas have plenty of water without keeping the soil too wet.

For winter blooming a moderately warm room should be chosen, starting the tubers in small pots and shifting them as they begin to grow larger. The temperature should run around 55 degrees Fahrenheit. They prefer a sunny window and a watering should be given every day provided the soil has proper drainage.

Calla
Ethiopica
(Lily of the Nile)

8919 Ethiopica (Lily of the Nile) See illustration. This is the well-known white Calla Lily, with its attractive white flowers carried on long stems above the rich green foliage. It is easily forced in pots for winter. 35¢ each; 3 for 95¢; 6 for $1.80; 12 for $3.50.

8918 Elliottiana (Yellow Calla)

This is a most attractive variety, with rich golden yellow flowers, contrasting sharply with the variegated foliage of deep green splashed with white. For March and April flowering, the bulbs should be started the latter part of October. The bulbs are easily kept over from year to year. They require a few weeks' rest and should be dried off when the leaves begin to show signs of turning yellow. 35¢ each; 3 for 95¢; 6 for $1.80; 12 for $3.50.

Aquilegia 8900 Long-Spurred

Hybrids (Columbine) See illustration below. This is one of the loveliest early spring-flowering perennials in existence.

The plants send forth, early in the spring, a large number of delicate but strong flower-spikes which carry the quaintly artistic flowers. The colors of our hybrids are particularly noteworthy. Many are self colored in pink and light blue, but others again combine blue with white, rose, pink, and red. Others combine yellow shades with contrasting pink and blue tints.

Aquilegia is suitable for small as well as large plantings. The plants make a fine display in the garden and make lovely cut-flowers. Aquilegia deserves to be used more extensively as a pot-plant. It is easily grown and does best in a sandy loam-soil either in the full sun or in a semi-shaded location. 30¢ each; 3 for 85¢; 6 for $1.60; 12 for $3.05; 25 for $6.00; 50 for $11.90.

Rudbeckia
Golden Glow
A magnificent fall
blooming plant

Rudbeckia 9629 Golden Glow

See illustration. The plants are perfectly hardy and grow from 4 to 7 feet tall. They delight in rich moist soil.

Golden Glow is particularly fine for mass effects and among shrubbery. Its rich golden yellow flowers will blend with many other colors. The flowers are fully double and measure $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches across. 20¢ each; 3 for 50¢; 6 for 90¢; 12 for \$1.70.

Bleeding Heart 9610 (Dicentra spectabilis)

See illustration. The Bleeding Heart is one of the earliest blooming of all perennials. The plants are of sturdy, bushy growth. They may be used either as specimen plants, mixed in the perennial border, or for planting in the foreground of shrubbery. The Bleeding Heart requires plenty of moisture during the growing season and a moderately heavy soil. A semi-shaded or a sunny position is to be given preference. The plants may also be grown in pots indoors, keeping them moderately warm and in a sunny place, so that they will bloom during February and March. The heart-shaped, rose-pink flowers are borne freely above the fern-like foliage. The roots will be ready for shipment in October. 55¢ each; 3 for $1.45; 6 for $2.80; 12 for $5.50.

Achillea

8911 Ptarmica, Perry's White This lovely Achillea is a decided improvement on the well-known variety, The Pearl. It is an excellent variety for border plantings and very useful for cutting.

The plants grow two feet tall and bear a profusion of fine double white flowers on long stems. Achillea does well in almost any kind of garden soil.

Burpee's Lawn Grass

FOR SUMMER and FALL SOWING

6145 Burpee's Fordhook Finest Lawn Grass

We believe that our Fordhook Finest Lawn Grass is unequalled in every respect. Careful experiments have proven that best results with the lawn depend upon the use of the proper mixture of the right kind of grasses with high germination.

Fordhook Finest contains a well-balanced blend of various American and foreign fine-bladed and deep-rooting varieties which have given best results under the varied conditions of soils and climate met with in America. Fordhook Finest will make a smooth, green, velvety sod with a thick bottom. It is free from common grasses which produce clumps and knots in the lawn, greatly spoiling the desired smooth deep effect.

Fordhook Finest Lawn Grass contains no chaff and weighs 25 to 27 pounds per measured bushel. A small quantity of white clover is included in Fordhook Finest Lawn Grass, but only sufficient to help thicken the bottom of the sod. Those who prefer much clover could add White Dutch Clover, offered below, at the rate of 4 ozs. for each 5 lbs. of grass seed.

One pound of seed is sufficient to sow a plot 15 x 20, or 300 square feet. One hundred pounds per acre are sufficient for careful seeding, but it is better to use 150 pounds per acre where it is desired to have a good close turf from the start.

Ask for a free copy of the Burpee leaflet, "How to Establish a Lawn." Lb. 60¢; 2 lbs. $1.10; 5 lbs. $2.50; 10 lbs. $4.75, postpaid. By express or freight, 25 lbs. $10.50; 50 lbs. $20.00; 100 lbs. $38.00; 250 lbs. $90.00; 500 lbs. $175.00.

6147 Golf Links This mixture is composed exclusively of fine-bladed grasses which will withstand frequent close cutting and trampling. It is free from weed-seed and contains no white clover, the latter not being suitable for the closely cut golf lawn.

We have made a special study of this subject to make Burpee's Golf Link Mixture the standard. Sow 150 lbs. per acre. Lb. 65¢; 2 lbs. $1.20; 5 lbs. $2.75; 10 lbs. $5.00, postpaid. By express or freight, purchaser paying for transportation, 25 lbs. $10.75; 50 lbs. $20.50; 100 lbs. $40.00; 250 lbs. $95.00; 500 lbs. $185.00.

6158 Putting Greens A mixture of many varieties of Bent grasses with a preponderance of Creeping Bent. These grasses are the most satisfactory for putting greens, as they make a smooth even growth which will withstand frequent close cutting and intense trampling. The seed we offer is of the highest quality. Lb. $1.35; 2 lbs. $2.55; 5 lbs. $6.00; 10 lbs. $11.75, postpaid. By express or freight, at purchaser's expense, 25 lbs. $27.00; 50 lbs. $50.00; 100 lbs. $95.00.

6146 Sunny South Lawn We have prepared a special mixture that is particularly suited for the hot, dry sections of the South. With care and regular watering, Sunny South Mixture will produce satisfactory lawns under the most exacting conditions of weather and soil. Lb. 50¢; 2 lbs. 95¢; 5 lbs. $2.35; 10 lbs. $4.25, postpaid. By express or freight, purchaser paying for transportation, 25 lbs. $9.50; 50 lbs. $18.00; 100 lbs. $35.00; 250 lbs. $85.00; 500 lbs. $160.00.

6149 Shady Nook We have prepared this mixture, which is composed entirely of choice, clean seed of the finest and most costly grasses adapted for semi-shaded locations. It will make a fine lawn where trees or large buildings prevent the ordinary mixtures from growing satisfactorily.

Sow 150 lbs. per acre. Lb. 65¢; 2 lbs. $1.20; 5 lbs. $2.75; 10 lbs. $5.00, postpaid. By express or freight, purchaser paying for transportation, 25 lbs. $10.75; 50 lbs. $20.50; 100 lbs. $40.00; 250 lbs. $95.00; 500 lbs. $185.00.

6144 Terrace Sod The terrace is oftentimes a source of a great deal of worry and trouble. This is largely due to the fact that the right grasses are not used in the making of the terrace sod. We have prepared a Special Mixture containing only those grasses that are best adapted to embankments and terraces. These grasses are all deep-rooted.

Sow 100 to 150 lbs. per acre. Lb. 65¢; 2 lbs. $1.20; 5 lbs. $2.75; 10 lbs. $5.00, postpaid. By express or freight, purchaser paying for transportation, 25 lbs. $10.75; 50 lbs. $20.50; 100 lbs. $40.00; 250 lbs. $95.00; 500 lbs. $185.00.

6113 White Dutch Clover While our mixtures, except Golf Links, Putting Greens, and Sunny South, contain a small quantity of White Dutch Clover, many gardeners like to sow an additional quantity of it. Use at the rate of one pound of Clover for 20 pounds of grass seed. Pkt. (4 ozs.) 30¢; lb. 80¢; 2 lbs. $1.55; 5 lbs. $3.75; 10 lbs. $7.00, postpaid. By express or freight, at purchaser's expense, 100 lbs. $60.00.
