DAHLIAS

PRICE LIST

SEASON 1925-26

R. F. D. 2

LAUREL, MD.

WE guarantee all stock to be true to name, free from disease and to reach you in good growing condition. We will cheerfully replace any that prove otherwise. The color descriptions in this list are intended to give only the general color effect. Detailed descriptions of the newer varieties will be furnished on request.

Prices quoted are for strong divisions—field grown stock only. We will not substitute unless requested but suggest that second choice be given.

TERMS—Tubers selected at shows or in the field to the amount of $5.00 or over will be reserved until May 1st upon payment of a deposit of at least 25%. We will give extra value on orders paid in full at such times. Field orders under $5.00 and mail orders should be accompanied by cash in full. All orders are taken subject to stock being unsold and will be filled in rotation as received. We prepay carriage charges.

In addition to the varieties listed we grow many others in small amount in regard to which we solicit correspondence.

For those who wish to leave the selection to us we will prepare collections from $5.00 to $40.00 per dozen, in which cases extra value will be given.

Goldie M. Pappe

Theo. F. Pappe

We also grow the finest of Iris and Gladioli.

INTRODUCTIONS FOR 1926

SOME years ago we entered the field of hybridizing with certain definite ideals in view. These were based on the well-known deficiencies in the modern dahlia, namely, lack of keeping qualities and poor stems, which we have earnestly tried to better. It has been intensely interesting work, but as a result we expect to have our seedlings make a name and place for themselves in the gardens of our dahlia-loving friends, who demand the best that are grown.

This year we take great pleasure in introducing to you three of our new dahlias which we consider distinctive and beautiful enough to please the most fastidious. You will find their coloring, habit of growth, stems, size, keeping qualities and, may we add, distinctiveness in keeping with the high ideals we have set for ourselves.

MARION MELIDA PAPPE,

(named for our young daughter) is a hybrid cactus, and, without exception, the finest, showiest dahlia in our gardens. At this writing one plant bears seven gorgeous blooms, held on long, strong stems, none of them under eight and one-half inches in diameter, and the largest ten and one-half inches—and this without forcing. In color it is a blending of lemon and apricot shading to peach pink. The reverse is suffused with aster purple, which shows on the twisted tips of the outer petals. It is a beautiful, softly-blended bloom by artificial light and a wonderful keeper. Easily a prize-winner at any show.....$25.00

is a decorative that is universally admired. The color is apricot yellow tinged with grenadine red and showing an almost scarlet reverse on the opening petals. The beauty of the bloom lies in a play of colors that cannot be described. The bushes are extremely vigorous in growth, well branched, and each branch topped with a great, beautiful bloom that looks you proudly in the face. Since we greatly admire this latter trait in people as well as in dahlias, we have named it for the Governor of our State.....$10.00

MARGARET SAYRE is a decided acquisition to any garden. In form it is a decorative of immense size on long stems. Its foliage is an odd shade of green, very much like holly. Can you picture this large, deep rose pink bloom very slightly tipped and blended gold? It is exquisite, without a single fault to mar its beauty. And, best of all, it is extremely free flowering—a regular “cut and come again” dahlia $7.50

SOME years ago we suggested to some of our customers the idea of giving dahlia tubers for Christmas gifts. This idea was enthusiastically received and each year we have the pleasure at Christmas time of notifying these favored ones of the treat in store for them through the thoughtful kindness of loving friends. Can you think of anything that would give your friends more pleasure for the amount invested than bulbs of these beautiful dahlias?

* * *

We believe you will be interested in a publication by Prof. J. B. S. Norton, the well known dahlia judge, entitled "Dahlia Ratings for 1926". This pamphlet lists a large number of the finer dahlias and gives the average rating of each as received from a large number of well informed judges, growers and amateurs. It is invaluable to one desiring to pick out the best in the dahlia world. You will find that we grow most of the high rating dahlias in this list. We can furnish you a copy of this publication for 75 cents post paid.
