DAN WERT, OHIO

BULLETIN NUMBER TEN

LEE R. BONNEWITZ, Proprietor
LEE A. SHIMER, Business Manager
C. D. PENNELL, Field Superintendent

Peony planting is one of our favorite fall sports. We find in it all the excitement, all the action and all the team opposition which make football so popular, and "Take it From Us" it demands real "class spirit" or "firm loyalty" to score a good planting record in face of weather opposition before Old Man Winter calls the game. Rain scored for the opposing team in the first quarter of the game this year, but conditions are more favorable now, and our entire force is tackling the work with a determination to win and finish with a good planting record for 1926. The last of this week will see our first planting well underway. WE'RE OFF FOR A TOUCHDOWN!

"READY TO SCORE"

In arranging and allotting the planting space at our new farm, we find that we will have a surplus of some varieties, which we have decided to offer at SPECIAL WHOLESALE PRICES, in small lots in order to favor the small grower.

Note this week's list on the sheet next attached. You will readily recognize the bargains offered. The prices on these varieties we believe are as low, if not lower, than any quotations we have yet seen on large quantities, but as we wish to meet the needs of the small grower, we are offering these weekly planting specials in lots of not less than five, none more than ten. In order to scatter the bargains as much as possible we will limit all orders to ten each of as many varieties as you wish until November 1st. Naturally many varieties will sell out very quickly, so it might be well to indicate a second or even third choice, which you would be glad to have, if the first varieties are sold out. HOWEVER, WE WILL NOT SUBSTITUTE ON ANY ORDER UNLESS INSTRUCTED TO DO SO, AND WE WILL PROMPTLY REFUND ANY MONEY RECEIVED FOR VARIETIES WE CAN NOT SUPPLY. After November 1st, we will accept the first order we have received for the balance of our surplus of any variety on the list. Note your wants on the order form attached. FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED. We promise prompt delivery of good healthy stock.

These offers are made only to our Wholesale Trade, and we wish to add that these special prices are not to be considered "established prices". We may never have another surplus of these varieties, and these special prices are made to move our surplus stock for the benefit of the small grower.
