New and Select GLADIOLUS

FALL PRICE LIST
Simcoe, October 1st, 1926

THIS list is issued in response to many requests from customers who wish to place their orders early. I shall probably omit for this season my Annual Gladiolus Guide Book promised for Feb. 1st.

I am extremely well situated to supply the demand for high class gladiolus varieties which is today stronger than ever before. The soils of this district are admirably suited to this purpose and the long season of our Lake Erie region is likewise most favorable indeed.

I guarantee my stock true to name, free from disease and strictly first class in every respect.

Bulletin, No. 3, issued by the Canadian Gladiolus Society, March, 1926, contains a Variety Symposium, which is the best guide to Gladiolus varieties to be found in print. Also an important and complete paper on Gladiolus Diseases which every glad grower should read.
