A. GENERAL WORKS ON DANISH HISTORY.

1. FRIDERICIA, HOLM, STEENSTRUP, AND OTHERS.
"Danmarks Riges Historie". Copenhagen. 1897 1907, 6 vol. and index. "This co-operative history of Denmark is an authoritative summary by modern Danish scholars, each of whom is a specialist in his particular field. Volume IV. (1588-1699) is by Professor J. A. Fridericia and Volume V. by Professor Edvard Holm. The latter has paid considerable attention to the East and West India companies and has not hesitated to make use of their records in his study."—Dr. Waldemar Westergaard.
2. HOLM, EDVARD.
"Danmark-Norges Indre Historie under Enevolden, fra 1660 til 1720". Copenhagen, 1885, 2 vol. — "All of Professor Holm's work is based on a careful study of first-hand material. His treatment of economic problems is especially thorough."—W. W.
3. SAME AUTHOR.

D. VIRGIN ISLANDS OF UNITED STATES---HISTORICAL.

I. IN ENGLISH.

1. KNOX, JOHN P.
"A Historical Account of St. Thomas, West Indies . . . and Incidental Notices of St. Croix and St. Johns". New York, 1852. 271 p. Scribners. — "This book has long been practically the only available book in English. The first part of it is really a faulty translation of Høst's work (q. v), the last a loose compilation. The author was a minister in St. Thomas". — W. W.
2. TAYLOR, CHARLES EDWIN.
"Leaflets from the Danish West Indies descriptive of the social, political, and commercial condition of the Islands. London, 1888. 228 p. — "One of the few writers who has made use of archival material for the early history of St. Thomas. The author was a physician and book-dealer in St. Thomas and had access to the Company's archives before their removal to Copenhagen". — W. W.
3. WESTERGAARD, WALDEMAR.
"The Danish West Indies under Company Rule (1671-1754) with a Supplementary Chapter (1755-1917). Introduction by Professor H. Morse Stephens. New York, 1917. Macmillan. Maps and Illustrations. — "The most thorough study yet made of the early period of the history of the Danish West Indies. The author is an American scholar of Danish descent and fills the chair of Assistant Professor of History at Pomona College. The work is based on a careful study of the documents in the Bancroft Collection at Berkeley, California, consisting of orders issued by the first governors, official correspondence, etc., checked up and supplemented by researches in the State, Municipal, and University Archives at Copenhagen, where the author spent a whole year collecting materials for his history. Two other volumes were promised which should bring the narrative up to our time, but these have not yet appeared". — F. MCF.
4. WOODSON, CARTER G. (Editor).
"The Journal of Negro History". Volume II. Nos. 3 & 4. Washington, July and October, 1917. — "The July number contains a brief sketch of the Danish West Indies with interesting extracts from documents relating to the islands. The October number contains the petition addressed by the planters to the Danish Government asking for compensation for the loss suffered by them consequent to the emancipation of the slaves in the Danish West Indies". — F. MCF.

5. TOOKE, C. W.
"The Danish Colonial Fiscal System in the West Indies". Economic Associations Report for 1900".

II. IN DANISH.

6. HAAGENSEN, RICHARD.
"Beskrivelse over Eylandet St. Croix i Vestindien i Amerika". Copenhagen, 1758. 72 p. "Probably the earliest printed book describing St. Croix. The University and Royal libraries in Copenhagen each have MS. as well as printed copies".—W. W.
7. HØST, GEORG HERSING.
"Efterretninger om den Sanct Thomas og dens Gouverneurer, optegnede der paa Landet fra 1769 indtil 1776. Copenhagen, 1791, 203 p. — "This is the first attempt at a chronological history of the Danish West Indies. The author had access to the Company's archives and used some of the documents for his book. From 1769 to 1776 he lived in the islands, first as a member of the Privy Council of St. Thomas and St. John, and later, on the death of his father-in-law, Governor Jens Kragh, as governor ad interim for a few months. During 1760-1767 he had served as an employee in the Danish factory in Morocco, and on his return he became a secretary in the department for foreign affairs under Guldberg. He died in 1794". W. W.
8. PALUDAN, CAPT. C. F.
"Blade af de dansk-vestindiske Øers Historie" in "Museum". Copenhagen, 1894. 341-366. — "An account of the St. John slave insurrection, illustrated by unpublished documents from the St. Thomas archives, copied before their removal to Copenhagen". W. W.
9. PETERSEN, BERNHARDT VON.
"En historisk Beretning om de dansk-vestindiske Øer, St. Croix, St. Thomas og St. Jan". Copenhagen, 1855. "Mainly a translation of Knox's work, checked up by some reference to Høst".—W. W. "It contains supplementary information concerning the insurrection of 1848 and the subsequent labor legislation".
10. WERFEL, JOHANNES.
"Efterretning om de dansk-vestindiske Øer, St. Croix, St. Thomas og St. Jan". Copenhagen, 1801.

Pp. 1-88. — "An article on plantation economy in the Danish islands, based on a brief stay there as rector of a school. This article was expanded into the book "Beskrivelse over St. Croix . . ."—W.

III. IN FRENCH.

12. DU TERTRE, LE R. P. JEAN BAPTISTE.
"Histoire générale des Antilles habitées par les Français. Paris, 1667-1671. 4 vols. in three. "Contains a map of St. Croix under the French (1671); a valuable work for the history of the Danish islands previous to Danish occupation".—W. W.
13. LABAT, JEAN BAPTISTE.
"Nouveau voyage aux îles de l'Amérique. A la Haye, 1724. 2 vol. — "The author was a cheerful, if not very accurate, Jesuit priest who visited St. Croix after its abandonment by the French in 1695 or 1696, and St. Thomas in 1700. He gives a lively description of the Danish and Brandenburg factories".—W. W.

IV. IN GERMAN.

14. SCHUCK, RICHARD.
"Brandenburg-Preussens Kolonial-Politik . . . (1647-1721). Leipzig, 1889. 2 vol. — "A minute exposition of the colonial policy of the Great Elector and his immediate successors, based on an extensive study of the archival materials in Berlin, Emden, and Aurich".—W. W.
15. ROHR, JULIUS PHILIP BENJAMIN VON.
"Anmerkungen über den Cattunbau. Mit einer Vorrede von P. G. Hensler". Altona und Leipzig, 1791-1793. 2 parts. Part 1: "Zum Nutzen der Dänischen Westindischen Colonien auf Allerhöchsten Königlichen Befehl geschrieben".
