Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

62 61

LIBRARY

FEB 2 1926

DAHLIAS

Only the Best

1926 SUPPLEMENT

THE GLORY OF FLUSHING

Awarded Certificate of Merit, American Dahlia Society, in 1923
Dahlia Society of California in 1924

RETAIL ONLY

FLUSHING DAHLIA GARDENS
FLUSHING, LONG ISLAND
NEW YORK

FLUSHING DAHLIA GARDENS

GREETING TO DAHLIA LOVERS

And those we hope will be

A HAPPY NEW YEAR

This is a supplement to our 1925 Catalogue, and will record all changes of prices, and newer varieties we are offering our customers for 1926.

With a hope that we will have a better Dahlia season than 1925.

MAUDE M. WILSON'S NOVELTIES FOR 1926

Tubers

* Glory of Flushing — Hybrid Cactus.
Old Gold. Awarded Certificate of Merit, American Dahlia Society in 1923. Dahlia Society of California in 1924	$10.00
* Mrs. W. Lee Penoyar — Decorative, Rich Velvety Purple. American Dahlia Society Certificate of Merit in 1924	4.00
* My Sweetheart — Peony. Rose Pink	5.00
* Richard Hughes — Hybrid Cactus. Dark Crimson	2.00
* Rev. George Douglas —Hybrid Cactus. Purple to Maroon. American Dahlia Society Certificate of Merit in 1924	3.00
* T. Lynton Briggs — Hybrid Cactus. Cherry Red with Yellow Tips.....	2.50
* Zaida Penoyar — Dark Crimson to Maroon	2.50
* Alice K. Hammerslough — Decorative. Rose Pink	2.50
-

All * varieties, see 1925 Catalogue for description.

Cactus and Hybrid Cactus Dahlia

Alex Waldie. Hybrid Cactus. Cream yellow over delicate pink; free bloomer, on long, strong stems	$1.50
*Ambassador. Cactus	2.50
Amber Glow. Cactus; a bright yellow with orange shading. Petals long, narrow with straight, long stems	1.50
*Admiral Greyson. Hybrid Cactus	2.00
*Attraction. Hybrid Cactus	.75
*Ballet Girl. Cactus	1.00
*Bianca. Hybrid Cactus	.75
*Daddy Butler. Hybrid Cactus	2.50
*Dictator. Hybrid Cactus; rose, lavender with orange shading. Striking flower on long, stiff stems	1.50
Guardian. Cactus; rich crimson, perfectly incurved, a giant on long, straight stems	1.50
Golden West. Hybrid Cactus; old gold. A flower of great merit, good stem and keeper. Medium size; fine for table decoration	.50
*Gee Whiz. Hybrid Cactus	1.00
*La Favorita. Hybrid Cactus	.75
*Mariposa. Hybrid Cactus	3.50
*Mrs. Edna Spencer. Cactus	.75
*Mrs. Ethel F. T. Smith	1.00
*Papillion. Hybrid Cactus	3.00
*Pierrot. Cactus	.50
*Rheinischer Forhsin	.50
Siskiyou. Hybrid Cactus; pink and mauve, blooms are of enormous size, one of the largest, held erect on long, strong stems....	7.50

Decorative Dahlia

*Amun Ra	$2.00
Champagne. Golden champagne; chamois, with copper shading, massive flower on stiff, strong stem	3.50
*C. W. Hayden	.75
Earl Williams. Scarlet and white; deep, well-formed blooms on stiff stems. This dahlia differs from Nobilis, the red predominating	2.00
Ellinor Vanderveer. Satiny rose pink. Blooms are of great depth and substance. Held far above on tall, sturdy stems, one of the largest a perfect flower	7.50
Eliza Clark Bull. White; the very best white at all 1925 shows; form is perfect and petals just irregular, to prevent it being stiff; heavy, firm stems, free bloomer.....	7.50
*Emperor	2.00
Faith Garibaldi. Deep rose with mauve shading. Flower is of great beauty and substance, of perfect form, on long, strong stems; a good keeper	7.50
Jersey Beauty. Erosine pink. A perfect bloom carried high above the foliage on long, wiry stems. One of the most talked of Eastern dahlia	3.50
*Judge Marean	1.50
*Mrs. Carl Salbach	.75
*Mrs. John T. Schapers	2.00
*Mrs. I. deVer Warner	1.50
*Mr. C. H. Dresselhuys	.75

*Nobilis. White and scarlet. This dahlia is a sport of Earl Williams. White predominates	2.00
*Porthos (Wouters). The Blue dahlia	1.00
Porthos (Marean). Dark crimson, very full, perfect blooms on strong stems	1.00
Paul Michael. Pure gold (sometimes called California Gold), with apricot and bronze shading. An immense flower of fine form, on long, strong stems	1.00
Robert Treat. American Beauty Rose color. One of the greatest 1925 prize winners in the East wherever exhibited. Blooms of perfect form held erect on long, strong stems	5.00
*Shudow's Lavender	3.00
Wizard of Oz. Glowing amber, pink shading to soft salmon. A flower of great size. Held well above the foliage on fine stems. In some localities has a tendency towards Hybrid Cactus	5.00
World's Best White. One of the largest and finest; blooms of perfect form, on long, strong stems	3.50

Peony or Art Dahlias

Elizabeth Boston. Deep crimson, shading to old gold at tips. True peony type, one of the best and biggest. Stem long and strong; very tall	$2.50
Lady Winfrid. Yellow, shading to pink, reverse of petals which curl and twist; stem good	1.50
*Pearl Ruggles	1.00

Show and Hybrid Show

D. M. Moore. This is listed as a Decorative. Should be Hybrid Show	$.50
Mrs. C. O. Anderson. Hybrid Show. Crimson with purplish shading. A perfect bloom of fine form and very large	.50

The Pompon or Bouquet Dahlia

Archilles. A very dainty pink	$.25
Charming. Lavender pink	.50
Cleo. Yellow, tipped lightly with red	.50
Eileen. White, heavily tipped with lilac; perfect formation	.75
Elizabeth. Golden, yellow edged with brownish red; long stems	.50
Eva. Pure white	.25
Goldie. Pure gold, dainty and very desirable	.75
Hazel (new). Buff shading to brown	.75
Little Buglar. Rosy purple, long stem	.50
Little Mary. Dark crimson	.50
Marvis. Palest amethyst, a perfect beauty	1.00
Midget. Peachy salmon, small and good	.50
Pansy. Violet, very striking color	.75
Perfect. Yellow, tipped with rosy pink; well named, most attractive	.75
Reno. Beautiful old rose, shading to old gold; attractive new coloring, good	.75
Snow Bird. Pure white, one of the best	1.00

A friendly suggestion for the growing of better Dahlias — Join the American Dahlia Society. They issue a bulletin with dahlia news four times a year.

Dr. J. B. S. Norton's "1926 Dahlia Ratings" can be ordered from us at 75 cents each.