Peony Price List

E. A. RIEHL, Godfrey, Ill.

I grow peonies largely for cut flowers ; having a surplus of some varieties, am offering them to the trade at the within low prices which include packing.

No order accepted for less than $5.00 at these prices.

Shipping season from September first to November first. No orders shipped after November first unless the order is received and paid for before that date.

The prices quoted are for strong divisions, two or more eyes, mostly one or two year transplanted. The quality of plants will be as good as any sent by any other grower. I have customers who have bought every season since I first began selling plants.

- Queen Victoria—One of the best white, productive and excellent keeper----- $10 per 100
- Festiva Maxima—White, tall grower, large flower, very beautiful, there is no finer white----- $15 per 100
- Madam de Verneville—White, similar to Festiva Maxima, plant and flower smaller, very productive, one of the most beautiful peonies grown---$15 per 100
- Marie Lemoine—White, blooms of largest size, later than any other white, a lovely flower-----$20 per 100

Superior Nursery Co.,
 Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 19, 1919.

Mr. E. A. Riehl,
 Dear Sir:

Peonys received in fine conditions. They are certainly fine. I have never bought any better. We thank you for the splendid way you have treated us and assure you of our future patronage.

Respectfully yours,
 N. BYHOWER.

Mr. E. A. Riehl,
 Godfrey, Ill.,
 Dear Sir:

Omaha, Neb., Oct 5th 1921.

The Peonies I ordered of you arrived in good condition several days ago, and I can say I am well pleased with them as they were all good sized roots and did not have to discard any, as I did in one lot I received from another place—(discarded 27 out of 100).

Kindly keep my name on your mailing list and when you have any more Peonies or other hardy plants to offer let me know as I am trying to stock up my 15 acre place gradually.

Respectfully,
 CHAS. L. GOWE,
 Omaha, Neb.

Sullivan, Ind., Sept. 25, 1923

Dear Mr. Riehl:

The shipment of peonies arrived yesterday in fine shape. Extra fine roots, am surely pleased with them.

Sincerely,
 Mrs. PHOEBE GRAVENIER.
