DAHLIAS OF MERIT

LYNDORA GARDENS

1927

FOREWORD

We aim to carry about one hundred of the leading Dahlias, our practice being to add each year the outstanding new varieties and to discard an equal number of the less desirable older ones.

Our descriptions in the following list are based upon the performance of the different varieties as grown in our gardens and as seen in the gardens of our neighbors and friends.

The past season was very unfavorable for Eastern Dahlia Growers due to weather conditions and the large numbers of insects.

We feel that more emphasis should be laid upon the vigor of varieties as effecting their resistance to attacks of Leaf Hoppers. If the Dahlia is to hold its present position with flower fanciers, we feel that breeders should be careful that only novelties of considerable resistance be offered to the Public.

We are, this year, offering six Lyndora Seedlings, all of which have been excellent performers from the standpoint of growth and blooms in our trial garden. Many others have been carried on for several years only to be finally dropped because they did not measure up to the standard we are attempting to apply and believe necessary if public confidence is to be established.

At the 1926 Dahlia Show we were again successful in winning the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society Gold Medal for the best collection of fifty varieties, this being our fourth consecutive winning of this trophy. At the New Jersey Dahlia Show, held at Camden the past season, we were awarded eleven first prizes, four second prizes and one third prize, including two Gold Medals, three Silver Medals and three Silver Trophies.

CULTURAL NOTES

Dahlias will grow to perfection in almost any soil provided proper care is given to the method of planting, fertilizing, cultivating and watering.

Put out tubers or plants from June 1st to July 1st. Those planted early will produce the largest tubers.

Prepare soil by spading or plowing 12 to 18 inches deep. Work into the soil well decomposed stable manure or vegetable matter, such as partly decomposed leaves, lawn trimmings, etc. Scatter $\frac{1}{4}$ pound of Ground Bone about each hill at planting time and $\frac{1}{2}$ pound per plant applied about August 1st. As a substitute for Bone, good potato fertilizer or sheep manure may be used to advantage.

Plants are usually set 3 by 4 feet. Strong growing varieties, if well fed, may need more room. Thorough and frequent cultivations during the first two months after planting, with moderate side dressings and very shallow cultivation and mulching the remainder of the season is recommended. As a general practice water only during very dry weather, when it should be very thoroughly done. Little watering will be necessary if soil has been spaded deeply and contains a liberal amount of humus and is well mulched after August 1st.

To produce large blooms begin training plants when small by leaving from four to six of the strongest laterals as low down on the main stem as possible. Remove all side shoots and buds excepting the main or terminal bud on each of the laterals.

During the past season, Leaf Hoppers and Thrip were quite troublesome in some sections of the country, checking the growth and causing stunted plants. The best known remedy to prevent the attacks of this insect is spraying or dusting with nicotine solution or dust. In the case of Thrip, which is usually found in the terminal growths, the solution or dust should be applied from above, especially at the growing points; while for Leaf Hoppers, the application should be made to the lower side of the leaves. We had splendid control of Leaf Hoppers last season by treating them as follows: Soon after plants were put out in the field a thorough application of nicotine dust (not tobacco dust) was applied to the under side of the leaves and this operation repeated twice a week until plants were two or three feet in height. After this stage, although the Hoppers were present, the plants apparently were unaffected. Some varieties show the effects of this insect much more than others. Thin leafed varieties are especially susceptible.
