USE IN CONNECTION WITH OUR DESCRIPTIVE
CATALOGUE OF 1926

To all of our customers of past seasons we offer our sincere thanks; we trust you have been fully satisfied with Metzner's Gladiolus and that we may merit your further favors.

We receive many complimentary letters from various sections of the United States and also from Canada, Australia, England and other countries. This is very gratifying. If, however, you have been disappointed in any way, let us hear from you; as we appreciate criticism quite as well as praise, because it is our ambition and our purpose to improve our standard of quality so that we can justify our claim that,

You make no mistake when you accept his judgment.

Our Offerings for 1927

- DAISY FARVER—Flesh overlaid with pure orange; lower petals light golden orange blending with scarlet and burnt orange. Very large open flowers, well placed on tall spike. Each $5.00.
- EVENING (reinstated)—Light cattleya purple with lower petals of dark cattleya purple, rich color tones, very velvety. Large open flowers on tall spike. Each $3.00.
- EVERIL—Light coral blending to orange, lower petals bright yellow; faintly sprinkled orange, good keeper. Each $2.00.
- HAZEL SHATTUCK—Cream tinged lavender pink; lower petals touched faint lavender with central stripe of pale yellow. The outer edge of all petals very delicately and evenly ruffled. Extra large flowers well placed on tall spikes, splendid keeper as a flower. A perfect orchid. Probably the choicest gladiolus introduced by Metzner Floral Company. Bulbs each, $50.00. (limited)
- LASSEN FLAME (reinstated)—A brilliant clear cherry scarlet with throat markings of pure white. Large flowers on tall spikes. Bulbs each, $1.50.
- PINK ORCHID—A delicate shell pink blending to cream white; lower petals light primrose; edged light pink; slightly ruffled. Large flowers, good spike. Bulbs each, $2.00.
- ROYALE—Dark blue purple, rich color tones. Not a large flower but well placed on a long spike. Bulbs each, $1.00.
- ROYAL ROSE—A deep clear rose, lower petals rose scarlet; good flower, splendid spike. Bulbs each, $1.50.
