DAHLIAS

(New Jersey Grown)

OUR 1927 catalogue is mailed with sincere thanks to our friends and patrons for their support and encouragement as expressed by their many letters. We feel justly proud of our reputation established in the twenty years of growing and selling of dahlias, and assure you that every effort will be made to maintain this reputation and to merit a continuance of your esteemed patronage.

Since my last catalogue it has been my very great misfortune to have lost my dear wife. Mrs. Root, as most of you know, was keenly interested in dahlias and was an inestimable help to me. It seems that I have not the courage to continue with the garden in the home grounds where my wife and I labored and planned and anxiously watched our seedlings.

The display garden hereafter will be at the farm, where the entire stock will be raised. You are invited to visit the farm and inspect the fields of growing plants at MARLTON, N. J., on the Marlton Pike, at the sign "Root's Dahlia Roots," where you will be received cordially. We are describing a few of our new introductions on the following pages and trust you may find among them some that will interest you.

We believe that every dahlia listed here has true merit, regardless of the place or time of its origin.

Dahlias can be grown in most any climate or soil condition, although a light sandy loam seems to be the best. Plant the tubers about four to six inches deep in well-prepared soil, to which only a little bone-meal has been added, later when the buds begin to set, top dress with sheep manure and repeat about every ten days or two weeks until frost.

Do not make the mistake of over-feeding, thereby softening the blooms and reducing the vitality of the plant.

Bear in mind, it is not the size of the tuber planted, but the quick establishment of the new root system that will give the best results.

The prices quoted on the following pages are for field-grown tubers, guaranteed to be healthy and true to name and will be shipped postpaid, at the proper time for planting.

The names are arranged in alphabetical order and the following abbreviations are used: C.—Cactus; H.C.—Hybrid Cactus; D.—Decorative; Sh.—Show; P.—Paeony Flowered; H.D.—Hybrid Decorative.

OUR 1927 INTRODUCTIONS

- Black Cap—D. Dark velvety red, almost black. Not a large flower, but beautiful in color and formation, almost like a piece of velvet. The stems are almost perfect and bush and foliage ideal..... 5.00
- Frederick S. Michell, Sr.—C. Amber seems to be the best color description we can give to this new variety. The flowers are of the American cactus type, well formed and carried on excellent straight stems. The bush is sturdy, of a good open habit and grows medium tall10.00
- Haddon Hall—D. Golden amber shading to amber in the center. The flowers are of good decorative type, large in size and held on fine stems. The bush is healthy, medium in height and very free bloomer 5.00
- Hermosa—D. The coloring of this dahlia is exquisite. The broad pointed petals are pale pink, edged and blended with a darker pink. This coloring and the fine formation of the blossom makes, as the name implies, a beautiful flower. The stem is fair, but not strong enough to hold the large bloom upright..... 5.00
- Marlton—D. A very striking flower of garnet and white. The petals are full and nicely arranged with the center ones nearly white, the outer ones garnet and the intermediate ones tipped white 5.00
- Mrs. Charles H. Geist—D. Creamy white blending to lavender pink with a suggestion of yellow at base of petals. A very pleasing blending of color. Large, rather flat blooms held on straight stiff stems. Bush is medium tall and of an open habit.....10.00
- Resalada—H.C. A very odd and difficult color to describe. An entirely new shade in dahlias. Amber brown or coffee will give some idea of the color, but it is not quite either of these. The graceful formation of the bloom has suggested the name. Stems are straight and stiff holding the blooms perfectly..... 5.00
- Robert Leeds—D. A massive royal purple decorative, fine deep formation with good full center all through the season. The blooms are very large and heavy, but held well on stout, strong stems. The bush is of medium height with heavy dark foliage..10.00
- Temorosa—H.C. A hybrid cactus having very long lavender petals tinting to almost white at the base and lighter to the center of the bloom. The blossoms are beautifully formed and held on fine strong stems, slightly tipped as though timid, which has suggested the name 5.00

OUR PREVIOUS INTRODUCTIONS

- Berenice Hurley—D. Very large scarlet blooms shading darker to the center. Bush, stem and keeping qualities are of the best....$3.50
- Calvin Coolidge, Jr.—D. This variety attracted a great deal of attention in our garden the past season. The very large flowers are borne on a strong, sturdy bush of splendid dark foliage. It is of the decorative type, held on a very good straight stem. The color is rose pink suffused salmon and each petal edged with gold. A very beautiful and stately dahlia..... 5.00
- David Rust—D. A beautiful blending of old rose and yellow, giving a most unusual color effect. The blooms are of a decorative type, with good full centers and pleasing formation. The stems are all one would want in a dahlia and the keeping qualities are of the best 3.50
- Dorothy Potter—P. Very large crimson paeony flowered blooms, held on good stems. Profuse bloomer and tall grower 1.00
- E. J. Titus—P. Color, bright buttercup yellow of true paeony type. The petals are large and have a graceful twist; the inner petals are smaller and nicely curled about the center. Some blooms are almost decorative in type..... .50
- Ellis A. Gimbel—C. An extremely large cactus dahlia of beautiful form. The color is a clear chamois, without tinting or shading. The bushes are strong and vigorous, and the stems are long, with the flowers somewhat tipped, giving it a very graceful appearance 3.50
- Florence Michell—D. A very pleasing combination of creamy white and shell pink. The ground color is creamy white, shading to a shell pink at the tips of the petals. The flowers are large and held on very good long stems and have exceptional keeping qualities. The bush is strong, and a free open grower..... 5.00
- Genevieve Hurley—D. The blooms are of the decorative type, beautifully formed and splendidly held on fine, strong, stiff stems. The coloring is delicate shades of rose madder, shading into a deep cadmium yellow center. A truly beautiful flower..... 3.50
- Helen Potter—D. Magenta blooms of beautiful formation, somewhat resembling a hybrid cactus. Stem is very good and the bush is ideal, producing flowers in abundance..... 1.00

- Henry F. Michell—D. A very large bloom of true scarlet color. This variety attracted immediate attention in our garden the past four seasons. The flowers are not only large in diameter, but very deep, and are held on strong stems. The bush growth is exceptionally hardy and reaches a height of seven feet. This dahlia won the American Dahlia Society's "Certificate of Merit" at Storrs, Conn., and at College Park, Md., in 1923. Also in the California Dahlia Society's "Certificate of Merit," at Berkeley, California in 1923..... 1.50
- Ingleside—H.C. A true pink of the same shade as A. D. Lavoni. Nicely formed flowers of medium size. Ideal for cutting..... 1.00
- J. Otto Thilow—D. A new formation in a dahlia; the extra large blossoms are held very erect on fine stems. The petals are long and pointed, arranged in a very regular manner, reminding one of a double poinsettia. The color is cardinal red, without shading. "Certificate of Merit," Dahlia Society of California Trial Gardens, 1922 1.00
- L. B. Tucker—H.C. A beautiful shade of deep red, with reverse of petals pinkish red. The formation is very unusual and attractive; the long, rather broad petals twist completely over to show the reverse at the tips. The stem is strong and wiry, holding the bloom well up and facing out 1.00
- Miss Eleanor M. Winter—P.D. Large blooms of fine form; a true decorative in the early season, but sometimes showing an open center as the season advances. The color is a rich yellow, with a pinkish cast to the outer petals. The stem is strong and straight, but the flower is somewhat tipped..... 1.00
- Miss Underwood—H.C. Beautiful, pure white waxy flowers, held on good stems. A very pleasing and attractive blossom..... .50
- Mrs. Colman T. Dupont—D. Old gold, tipped and edged with vermillion. The reverse of petals is also vermillion giving a two-tone effect. Blooms are large and very full, almost ball shape. Stems are fine, being straight and stiff and hold the heavy flowers just right. Bush is tall and a strong grower..... 7.50
- Mrs. Geo. W. Elkins, Jr.—D. The flowers are very large (eight to nine inches in diameter) and of perfect decorative type, always full to the center and held on good strong stems. The color is beautiful salmon pink suffused old gold, with faint reflex of rosy pink. It is a perfect garden and exhibition dahlia, with exceptional keeping qualities. "Certificates of Merit," Dahlia Society of California Trial Gardens and American Dahlia Society Trial Gardens, Storrs, Conn., 1922 1.50

- Mrs. James A. Babbitt—D. A deep yellow, with reverse of petals overlaid with crimson, a very unusual combination of color. The blossom is very formal in formation in the early stage, but as it expands, the long petals curve in, showing the reverse, giving a two-tone effect. The flowers are immense in size and very attractive. "Certificates of Merit," Dahlia Society of California Trial Gardens and American Dahlia Society Trial Gardens, Storrs, Conn., 1922 1.00
- Mrs. John M. Root—H.C. An enormous canary yellow hybrid cactus. One of the largest dahlias ever grown. The petals are long, broad and slightly twisted, giving the flower great diameter and depth. The bush growth is remarkable, plants attaining a height of six to seven feet, holding the massive blooms well above your head. It won the Penna. Hort. Society Silver Medal in 1922 for the best two-year-old seedling, and again in 1923, for the best three-year-old seedling, also won first in class calling for the best vase of the twenty-five blooms and repeated this winning at the Collingswood, N. J., Show. At Trevese, Pa., it took a special prize for the largest bloom in the Show. At the American Dahlia Society's Southern Trial Grounds, College Park, Md., it won the "Certificate of Merit," in 1923, with a score of eighty-nine, also the "Certificate of Merit," at the California Dahlia Society's Trial Ground, Berkeley, California, in 1923..... 3.50
- Pensauken—H.C. A beautiful orange salmon flower of a cactus type. The petals are broad and incurved, almost claw-like. Good strong stems and healthy bush growth..... 1.00
- Rancocas—D. The colors in this flower are somewhat similar to those of "Judge Marean," but the flower is larger and has a stiffer and better stem. The formation is of the decorative type and the bush is a strong and vigorous grower..... 1.00
- Wissahickon—H.C. This is a very striking flower, petals are spectrum red and have a graceful curl and twist, exposing the reverse of the petals, which is of a lighter color. A very free bloomer.. 1.00

MRS. JOHN M. ROOT
