Village Dahlia Gardens

SAYLESVILLE, RHODE ISLAND.

EACH IN HIS OWN TONGUE

By William Henry Carruth

A fire-mist and a planet,
A crystal and a cell,
A jelly-fish and a saurian,
And caves where the cave-men dwell;
Then a sense of law and beauty
And a face turned from the clod—
Some call it evolution,
And others call it God.

A haze on the far horizon,
The infinite, tender sky,
The ripe rich tint of the corn fields,
And the wild geese sailing high—
And all over upland and lowland
The charm of the golden-rod—
Some of us call it autumn
And others call it God.

Like tides on a crescent sea-beach,
When the moon is new and thin,
Into our hearts high yearnings
Come welling and surging in—
Come from the mystic ocean,
Whose rim no foot has trod,—
Some of us call it longing,
And others call it God.

A picket frozen on duty,
A mother starved for her brood,
Socrates drinking the hemlock.
And Jesus on the rood;
And millions who, humble and nameless,
The straight, hard pathway plod,—
Some call it consecration,
And others call it God.

GREETINGS

To our customers and to every human being who takes pleasure in planting:

It is with pleasure we present our garden roll in an entirely new frock. Some of the older varieties have been dropped and some of the newer ones have been added.

Our first dahlia tubers were presented to us by a flower-loving minister friend. They were grown in our village back yard. Aside from giving us much pleasure they supplied many beautiful bouquets for our village neighbors. Each year as our stock of tubers increased they were gladly contributed to the growing stock of friends and neighbors.

All gardens have their limits of capacity; so had theirs. But the stock of tubers kept on increasing. So we conceived the idea of listing our stock for the market. We have enjoyed the work and feel that we have made many garden friends.

We believe that a satisfied customer is our best advertisement and we aim to do our best to please. We express to you our deepest appreciation of your patronage—both past and future.

We thank you!

HINTS ON ORDERING

ORDER EARLY to prevent disappointment. The stock of varieties is often limited and the cheaper varieties are in great demand.

SUBSTITUTION—No changes or substitutions are made in any order unless requested to do so.

PRICES quoted are for field grown divided tubers.

FORWARDING—Tubers shipped at planting time unless otherwise requested.

TERMS—Cash with order or in advance of shipment. All retail orders delivered postpaid.

GUARANTEE—We guarantee all tubers to be true to name. All prices and quotations are subject to stock being unsold.

CULTURE—Planting and growing instructions will be enclosed with each order.

ADDRESS—Write name and address plainly, give street number or P. O. Box.

This list cancels all previous prices.

DAHLIAS

GENERAL LIST ALPHABETICALLY ARRANGED

- AMUN RA (Decorative) $1.50

OUR OWN INTRODUCTIONS

DR. HUEY (Decorative) $1.50

This is a large decorative similar to Judge Marean. Center deep and full. Color, bronze shading to salmon.

LESLIE CLARKE (Decorative) $1.50

Very large with deep full center. Color, deep rose pink shading to silvery pink. Colors are hard to describe. This dahlia was first exhibited at a local show this year and won first prize.

ROBIN HOOD (Peony) $.75

This dahlia's name was suggested by its jaunty appearance. The colors—a bright red and white—seem to throw out a challenge to the whole world. Size medium with petals curled in a very attractive manner. Took first prize when exhibited at a local dahlia show last year for the first time.

OUR INTRODUCTION FOR 1927

E. M. CLARKE (Decorative) $2.50

This is a very beautiful dahlia. The center is full and deep. Color shading from apricot to a delicate shade of pink. A pleasing combination. We feel sure this dahlia should have a great future.
