GLADIOLI

GEMS

1928

J. Herbert Alexander

Dahliatown

Middleboro, Massachusetts

Dear Dahlia Friends:

AS I feel that you are bored to death with a cut and dried catalog introduction, I should rather, merely chat with you for a little.

True to my previous principles, I am again offering you selected "Dahlia Aristocrats" and "Gladioli Gems," which I can safely guarantee to give perfect satisfaction.

You may note a reduction in the number of different varieties of dahlias listed this season. This is due to the fact that I am aiming to eliminate some varieties and am working up and trying out new things for you for 1929.

My "Gladioli Gems" are worthy of mention here, and, in fact, merit a prominent place in every garden. Careful selection on my part, during the last four years, has resulted in my offering you a complete list of this justly famous and beautiful member of the "cut-flower family."

Thanks to your patronage and good-will, business is increasing in amazing proportions, and I shall strive to continue my policy of conscientious service, and hope to receive your order again for the coming season.

As always you can depend upon plump, fully-matured tubers that I can guarantee to give good satisfaction.

Cordially yours,
J. HERBERT ALEXANDER.

GLADIOLI GEMS

New Gladioli for 1928

This collection includes the Ten Best New Gladioli to my knowledge. Each variety is an outstanding creation worthy of a place in the gardens of the most particular. Every one in this collection is far superior to the Glads commonly grown, and varieties like Dr. Bennett and Mr. W. H. Phipps are among the very choicest Gladioli in existence.

Rosy Glow, lavender-pink, $3.50 per dozen.
(For description see page 10)

Three bulbs of each of the following TEN EXCEPTIONAL NEW GLADIOLI, thirty bulbs, for $10.00 postpaid, or nine bulbs of each, ninety bulbs, for $25.00 postpaid.

Albania. Its flowers are correctly placed on the spike. and set just close enough together to close up the intervening spaces, making an ideal spike. It is of purest glistening white, unquestionably the most pleasing of the white varieties yet developed. $3.50 per dozen, three for $1.00.

GLADIOLI GEMS

California Giant. An exceptionally tall grower, with strong vigorous habits; each spike has from fifteen to twenty-five flowers, which is remarkable. Light mallow purple flowers make this one of the most outstanding of the new creations from California. I won first prize at Brockton Fair this past Fall with this variety in the class for the best three spikes of lavender against strongest competition. $3.50 per dozen, 3 bulbs for $1.00.

Dr. F. E. Bennett. Developed where the blazing sun would almost seem to scorch it, this new California creation seems to outrival the most brilliant Poppies. It is a deep flame scarlet, of most dazzling brilliancy. Its throat markings are of deep peach red, speckled ruby and white. Its flowers are the largest imaginable, with many open at one time. Named for the President of the American Gladiolus Society, and one that I can highly recommend. Truly a remarkable creation. 50c each, three for $1.50, $5.00 per dozen.

Fontaine. One of the daintiest shades among Gladioli. A very clear pale apple-blossom pink, with slight tints of salmon. Very exceptional. $3.50 per dozen, 3 for $1.00.

Marie Kunderd. The grandest of all ruffled white creations, winner of the bronze medal of the American Gladiolus Society, and a variety of exceptional merit. In addition to its great beauty, it has another important quality, as it blooms very early making it a great addition to the Glad family. Its flowers are of purest white with an almost invisible soft pink line in the center of its lower petal. $3.50 per dozen, 3 for $1.00.

Mrs. John Hays Hammond. Very odd and unusual shade of red, between cardinal red and flaming old-rose, with faint yellow throat markings. $3.50 per dozen, 3 for $1.00.

Mr. W. H. Phipps. An exceptionally fine new creation, in fact, one of the finest yet developed, and one that stands far above most of the best Glads we know today. La France pink overlaid with rose-salmon, lighter towards the center. Lower petals are very faintly striped and speckled with ruby. Flowers enormous. 50c each, 3 for $1.50, $5.00 per dozen.

Salmon Plume. Very deep salmon, with ruffled edges. One of the earliest to bloom. $3.50 per dozen, 3 for $1.00.

Sheila. One of the earliest to bloom, a beautiful light coral, somewhat similar to the well known "Alice Tiplady" but more toward the salmon shades than the orange. $3.50 per dozen, 3 for $1.00.

Violet Beauty. A very tall, large cerise-violet, with red throat blotches. Very fine. Should be in every garden. $3.50 per dozen, 3 for $1.00.

GLADIOLI GEMS

The Aristocrats of the Gladiolus

This collection of Fifteen Super-Glads includes the very largest and finest creations in Gladioli. They are the cream of the latest developments, the Fifteen Aristocrats of the Gladioli-World. Their flowers are of gigantic size, produced on very long spikes, and are unquestionably the finest.

Loella, smoky old-rose, 75c each.

Three bulbs of each of these FIFTEEN ARISTOCRATS of the Gladiolus World, 45 bulbs for $15.00 postpaid, or six bulbs of each, 90 bulbs, each a wonder for $25 00 postpaid. This is the most phenomenal collection of Gladiolus in existence; every one is of exceptional size and beauty.

Catherine Coleman. A most exquisite shade of coral pink, with very large flowers, produced on an exceptionally long spike. Fifteen to twenty buds on a spike are very common, with four to five flowers open at a time. 50c each, $5.00 per dozen.

Chateau Thierry. Brilliant coral red of tremendous size and exceptional qualities. Long strong spike, and very sturdy grower. Very distinct and much desired. $3.50 per dozen. 3 for $1.00.

GLADIOLI GEMS

Fern Kyle. Introduced at $25.00 per bulb, one of the finest ruffled creations, flowers of large size, great beauty and lovely refined form. A most beautiful creamy white, as beautiful as a lily. 75c each, 3 for 2.00, $7.50 per dozen.

Giant Nymph. A giant among giants; most beautiful La France pink. $3.50 per dozen, 3 for $1.00.

Golden Measure. Gigantic blossoms of rich golden yellow, with no markings. Strong vigorous grower; should be in every collection of exceptional Glads. 6 for $1.25, $2.50 per dozen.

Loella. This creation ranks among the finest of the rare and most unusual color combinations in Gladiolus. A very odd, yet pleasing shade; smoky old-rose, with occasional flecks and markings of a deeper old-rose. Exceptionally fine. 75c each, 3 for $2.00.

Mrs. Frederick C. Peters. A most beautiful shade of rose-lilac with a soft blotch of rich crimson, making it one of the most unusual. Very late bloomer, which makes it a good addition to the Gladioli-world, because it comes into bloom after most other Glads have finished. $2.50 a dozen, 6 for $1.25.

Mrs. Leon Douglas. Truly an aristocrat, the giant of the Gladioli family, its phenomenal flowers growing from four to six inches across, and produced on an enormous spike. In addition, to its crowning glory, its size, it has exceptional coloring; a beautiful begonia rose, effectively marked and striped with flame and brilliant scarlet. It has a lip of pale lemon, slightly speckled ruby. 75c each, 3 for $2.00, $7.50 a dozen.

Purple Glory. An extraordinary Glad, that is beautifully ruffled and the largest ruffled Glad. Deepest velvety maroon-red, with almost black blotches. $2.50 per dozen, 6 for $1.25.

Pink Wonder. Of phenomenal size, a dainty shell-pink occasionally flaked and splashed geranium-pink. Many flowers 6½ inches in diameter. $2.50 per dozen, six for $1.25.

Pythia. A most brilliant crimson-scarlet, the best of the bright red Glads and the largest. 3 for $1.00, $3.50 a dozen.

Richard Diener. In this sensational Gladiolus we have a color blending that is rare among Glads; a clear pure geranium pink with a delicate sprinkling of ruby on creamy yellow center. Some would call it a live salmon-rose. 50c each, $5.00 a dozen.

Rose Ash. Corinthian red shading to ashes of roses on the outer edges; lower petals light yellow speckled red. Very large, strong spike. $2.50 per dozen, 6 for $1.25.

Rosy Glow. A very much desired color in Glads, and one that everyone welcomes; a pure lavender-pink with crimson-red markings on the lower throat petals. Very strong vigorous grower. $3.50 per dozen, 3 for $1.00.

Scarlet Wonder or Majestic. Giant flowering rich glowing scarlet-red. The most vivid and rich of the self-colored Glads. 50c each, $5.00 a dozen.

A Cordial Invitation to visit my gardens, whenever you have the opportunity, is extended to you. You are invited to come and bring your friends,—the more the merrier. I assure you I will strive to make your visit as pleasant as possible, and that I will show you over my entire farm.

My gardens are located on the State Road from Boston to Cape Cod, between the towns of Bridgewater and Middleboro, five miles south of Bridgewater.

You will be able to enjoy over twentyfive acres of dahlias, which are in bloom from late July until frost, and are usually at their best during late August. Thousands of Gladioli, bordering the State Road near my new road-side stand, will interest you I am sure. My planting of them for 1928 will be considerably increased. For an early Spring attraction, I will have two acres of Tulips, which for this part of the country, will be a very unusual sight. The Darwin Tulips, which are the "Aristocrats of Tulipdom," will be at their best just before Decoration Day.

A half-mile auto drive thru my garden, with flowers on both sides, which was completed this past year will make it convenient for you to drive among my "Aristocrats of the Dahlia-World."

A large advertising sign at the corner, which says, "You are now in Dahliatown" will help you to locate my gardens. You are welcome at all times.
