GREETING—

I TAKE PLEASURE in presenting my 1928 Catalogue and at this time express my thanks for your kind patronage and hope to be again favored with your orders, which, I assure you, will receive the same careful attention that I have always enjoyed showing my customers.

My own introductions I am sure have met with the approval of all that have tried them. Each year I try and add to my collection only dahlias of quality and distinction that are most satisfactory from a standpoint of garden cutting and exhibition. Our prize winning exhibits show the outstanding merit of our own origination.

ANNOUNCEMENT

IT IS with great pleasure that we inform our friends and customers that our show gardens will in the future be on the estate of Alden H. Vose, Esq., in Westport, Conn., which was formerly the Marean Estate, where we shall continue to conduct our rapidly growing business in the same high manner.

We have many new originations which I am sure will interest all dahlia lovers. A cordial invitation is extended to all dahlia lovers to visit the gardens, where you will see thousands of beautiful plants in blossom.

Yours very truly,

JOHN HARDING.
