GROWING OVER-THE- GARDEN- WALL

1928

Mrs. L. W. Kellogg
Owner'11

60 No. Main Street
West Hartford, Conn.

It's Almost Iris Time Over-The-Garden-Wall!

Some varieties will surprise you with their wealth of bloom; a few will prove a disappointment, because of the loss caused by the open winter. The stock of some Irises has been so depleted, by the same cause, that you are receiving this brief price list, instead of the longer descriptive catalogue first planned.

You and your friends are most cordially invited to visit Over-the-Garden-Wall as often as possible — acquiring the habit of getting acquainted with the Irises, and planning your gardens after seeing the mass plantings. The dwarfs should be blooming early in May; the intermediates next, and the profusion of tall bearded varieties during the first of June. If you bring this list with you, it may prove of assistance as a check list.

The new varieties added last summer promise an interesting display. For the convenience of customers these have been grouped by originators. In the American section you will find from Mr. Berry, Mauna Loa. From the Longfield Gardens (Mr. Williamson): Dolly Madison, Avatar, Brenthis, Lerema, Nathalis, Vesper Gold, Yellow Rail. The Mohr-Mitchell collection embraced all the '27 introductions, and William Mohr and Frieda Mohr. All but the last two have lost their blossom tips. The Sass section has Buto, Eventide, King Tut, Midgard, Nebraska, Omaha, and Twilight. Miss Van Name's Van Clive should bloom; as also Miss Sturtevant's Arzani, Asphodel, Autumn Glow, Cameliard, Lamia, Naomi, Snow White.

From the English growers you will find Mr. Bliss' Gabriel, Grace Sturtevant, Romola, Swazi, Zulu. Amber and Peerless come from the Dykes' garden; Theseus from Sir Arthur Hort. The planting of the Perry introductions includes Cassandra, May Sadler, Mrs. E. T. Viesseux, Mrs. Edward Harding, Mrs. Robert Emmet, Olive Murrell, Robert W. Wallace, and Silver Queen.

From France come Cayeux' Belisaire, Gloriae, Mme. Abel Chateney, Mme. Henri Cayeux, Phyrne, Rene Cayeux, Solferino. M. Denis' Renee de Laborde, with the Denis-Millet Louis Bel, and Millet's Mme. Cecil Bouscant and Yolande should give a glimpse of the best of the new French.

There are also two from the German firm, Goos & Koenemann — Iduna and Thorsten. Prices on these will be furnished if desired.

Orders for at least a few of all the following list can be booked — of many the stock is sufficient for any demand. Where limited, it is necessary to reserve the right to change price, or withdraw varieties from sale.

Terms of Sale

Orders will be booked in rotation, and filled as soon as possible after June 20, unless customer prefers some later date. Early spring delivery is possible on low- and medium-priced varieties. No substitutions will be made — money will be refunded for any Irises that cannot be furnished. Prices are for strong, single rhizomes. These are washed and dried before being shipped, and are packed in excelsior. Plant dry, as received, according to directions with shipment. If any root is not firm when received, please return immediately, and another will be sent, or money will be refunded.

Terms

Money with order, for all orders that are to be shipped. Customers calling for their plants may pay at that time, except that any order of less than $5.00 must be paid for in advance. A saving on bookkeeping means better service and lower prices! Checks may be made payable to Over-the-Garden-Wall, or to Mrs. L. W. Kellogg.

OVER-THE- GARDEN-WALL

is located just north of West Hartford Center
