Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

69.67
LIBRARY

RECEIVED

★ MAY 7 1928 ★

U. S. Department of Agriculture

PRICE LIST

of

DAHLIAS

For 1928

Grown and For Sale by

H. P. WINTER

Lane Road

Perry, Ohio

Acorn Printery, Palmsville, Ohio

WINTER'S

Price List of Dahlias

1928

Explanation of Abbreviations, Etc.

D. stands for decorative, H. D. for hybrid decorative, C. cactus, H. C. hybrid cactus, B. ball or show, P. peony, S. single, Pom. pompon, Coll. collarette. Italics show my own seedlings.

My terms are cash with order. Prices include delivery charges. I thank you all for liberal patronage of 1927. Come and see my fields in September or October. I expect to have something still better to show you.

Yours for the Dahlias,

H. P. WINTER.

Adaline Winter —H. D. A hardy, most fascinating, vermillion carmine cut flower variety	$.25
Attraction—H. C. Very large lilac rose. Strong, long stems	.50
Achievement—Coll. Velvety maroon with white collarette	.25
A. D. Leovni—B. Reliable warm pink	.25
Alight—C. Deep lilac. Fine	.25
Amber Queen—Pom. A beautiful tan and a good cut flower	.25
Ager—C. Reliable scarlet	.25
Amon Ra—D. Very large, stiff stems, reddish bronze and gold. Plants only	1.00
Black Brook —D. A dwarf, rich lilac crimson. Splendid for bedding. Very early and free	.25
Bedina—C. Yellow with red suffusion	.25
Brownhilda—D. Chestnut color, symmetrical flower	.25
Bonnie Blue—D. A desirable good stem cut flower, near blue variety	.25
Catharine Duer—D. Tall bright red	.25
Countess of Lonsdale—C. This salmon pink dahlia is still one of the very best	.25
Carmonita—D. A striking variety. Yellow and red. Plants only	1.00
Cream Century—S. Large cream colored	.25
Cleopatra—P. Duplex. Showy red and gold	.25
Cigarette—H. C. Orange and cream color. A changeable novelty. Large flowers on good strong stems. Splendid. Plants only	1.00
Delice—D. A desirable shade of pink	.25
Darkness—Pom. The darkest pompon. Fine to mix with lighter colors. Plants only	.25
Dreer's White—B. A large flowering pure white quilled variety	.25
Floradora—C. An old free flowering crimson	.25
Flora C.—Pure white	.25
Gold and Silver —D. A large free flowering golden yellow. Often splashed with white	.50
Golden Queen—Pom. A large yellow pompon	.25
General Butler—C. A fine dark lilac cactus	.25
Generosity —H. D. A brand new free flowering salmon rose seedling. Unusually floriferous and gorgeous flowers 6-7 in. Plant narrow, 3 feet high. Needs staking to support the heavy flowers	1.00

Gorgeous—P. A well named very large dahlia. Yellow shading to red. Plants only	1.00
Geo. Walter—H. C. Pinkish salmon	.50
Hornsfield—P. A fine large salmon pink Holland dahlia	.25
Hortulanus Fiet—D. A Holland dahlia. Salmon with yellow center. Plants only	.50
Ida May Carleton—Duplex Tyrian pink and white. Tall, hardy plant. Striking flowers. Will sell on sight	.25
Insulinda—D. A fine large Holland dahlia. Golden yellow and tan color. Plants only	1.00
Jack Rose—D. An old favorite bedding variety. Splendid color	.25
J. J. Harrison—D. The showiest bedder of all my seedlings. Orange- red flowers	.50
J. H. Jackson—C. The darkest cactus. Almost black	.25
Josephine Burr—H. C. Rich velvety red. Large flowers	1.00
Jersey's Beauty—An extraordinary good pink cut flower dahlia for flor- ists. A good keeper with perfect stems. Tubers $1.50. Plants	1.00
King of Commerce—D. Tango and gold color. Perfect flowers and stems. Ideal cut flower	.50
Kalif—C. Extra large perfect cactus. Bright red color	.50
Lawine—C. A good white cactus	.25
La Fussy—Coll. Red white collarette. Cut foliage	.25
Lavender King—P. A large beautiful lavender and white. Very desirable	.50
Little Bobby—Pom. Rich plum color	.25
Lolo Deferis—D. A very dark velvety seedling. Extra fine	.50
Little Beauty—Pom. A small ball variety. Fine pink for cutting	.25
Lane—D. A rich mahogany color. Seedling	1.00
Madam Lumier—D. Showy white tipped with lavender	.50
Maud Adams—B. A good free flowering dahlia. White purple center	.25
Mrs. Dexter—B. A fine tan colored flower	.25
Marguerite Buchon—C. Deep rose, white center. One of the best	.25
Madaline—Pom. White or cream with pink tips	.25
Maurice Revere—Coll. A French collarette. Crimson, white collar	.25
Mrs. Wellsley—D. White, tipped crimson	.25
Marcella Gill—D. Splendid pink. Similar to Delice	.50
Minnie McCullough—D. A rich yellow and red variety. Late	.25
Mrs. Salbach—D. A large lavender pink. Plants only	1.00
Mrs. Roosevelt—D. A giant pink variety	.50
Mrs. I. D. V. Warner—D. A very large light purple dahlia. Extra large. Plants only	1.00
Marie Louise Shade—D. A 1924 seedling I am offering for the second time. It has long pointed petals of a delicate lavender and white color. Large flowers and good stems	1.00
Negro—Coll. A red and white collarette with blue tubers	.25
Novelty—Pom. A red and white changeable pompon	.25
Ohio Giant—D. I consider this the most wonderful dahlia I have ever introduced. Flowers, beautiful rosy tan, 8-10 in. in diameter, on long stiff stems. Plant 6-8 ft. high. Free flowering and good tubers	1.00
Oriental—S. Yellow. Striped red	.25
Perryite—D. Another 1924 seedling I put out last year. Very free flowering, tan and yellow. Large flowers on good stems	1.00
Paul Michael—D. One of the largest to date. Color buff shading to old rose	1.00
Painesville—D. This has got to be a popular cut flower variety where known. Flowers large, lavender and white	.25
Pearl De Lyon—H. C. White	.25
Princess Juliana—D. A good early white	.25

Pope Pius X—P.	A salmon and pink variety. Large flowers -----	.25
Prince of Yellows—C.	One of the best yellow cactus -----	.25
Pride of Winterhaven—P.	Coral pink, old gold and yellow. A good cut flower this season -----	.25
Polar Bear—D.	A splendid pure white dahlia. Very large, good stems. Plants only -----	1.00
Queen of N. Mentor—D.	A valuable seedling. Pale yellow, free flowering and hardy. Good cut flower -----	.25
Romantic—S.	A fine single. Better than Scarlet Century. Of same color -----	1.00
Red Cross—H. C.	A large showy Geisha type dahlia. Red and gold -----	.50
Red Huzzar—B.	An old fiery ball variety. Good -----	.25
Sagmore—A	An exceptionally fine exhibition or cut flower variety of a golden color shaded toward the center with a warm salmon rose. A wonderful keeper with stiff stems. Tubers $2.00. Plants -----	1.50
Scarlet Century—S.	A very good large single scarlet -----	.25
Snowclad—Pom.	A fine white -----	.25
Surprise—S.	A hardy single -----	.25
Snowball—B.	A good variety. White turning to pink when old -----	.25
Sunbeam—P.	Bright scarlet -----	.25
Standard Bearer—C.	A good all around dazzling scarlet cactus -----	.25
Souvenir De Paris—S.	A large white -----	.25
Sylvia—D.	A good old pink and white cut flower -----	.25
Seedlings—A	mixture of single and double. Fine for massing. Per doz. -----	1.00
Tiger—Coll.	Bright scarlet, white collar -----	1.00
Showers of Gold—D.	A very free flowering large yellowish tan dahlia. Fine. Plants only -----	1.00
Wm. Agnew—D.	A true old scarlet variety -----	.25
Winsome—C.	White cactus -----	.25
Wm. Slocum—D.	A splendid light yellow dahlia. Plants only -----	1.00

Dahlias in Collections

I am offering the following collections for the benefit of those who are not familiar with the different kinds and prefer to have me select for them. I often have surplus of some very choice kinds which I use in this way and am able to give my customers a real bargain.

Collection No. 1

Ten varieties, no two alike; different colors and different types. My own selection. Price $1.00.

Collection No. 2

Two cactus, different colors; two decorative; one variegated; one collar-ette; one single; two pompons; and one peony flowered; ten in all. Price $1.50.

Collection No. 3

One each of red, white, pink and yellow cactus type; one each of red, white, pink and yellow decorative type; one pompon; and one single; ten in all. Price $2.00.

Collection No. 4

Made up of ten of the newer kinds, all named and no two alike. Different types. Price $3.00.

Offer No. 5

I will send all four collections, all charges prepaid for $6.00.

Dahlia Seed

I am offering a good grade of Hybrid dahlia seed, all varieties mixed. A package will produce at least 25 plants. Price 25c per package.

Extra choice selected California grown seed. Per package $1.00.

Pompon Seed, per package 50 cents.

I grow many varieties not on this list. Send me your wants.

H. P. WINTER

Lane Road

Perry, Ohio