Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

62.97

Baraboo Valley Nursery

C. R. TUTTLE, Prop.

BARABOO,

WISCONSIN

Small Fruit Plants for Spring 1929

These small fruit plants are the best varieties, true to name, shipped to you in the shortest possible time from our nursery post paid. They will grow and please you. Send us your order early.

STRAWBERRY PLANTS

- PROGRESSIVE EVERBEARING—Set this spring, will bear this fall, and then bear again early next summer. Best variety. $1.50 per 100, $10.00 per 1000
- SEN. DUNLAP—For all soils and parts of the country: a heavy bearer, dark berry. $1.35 per 200, $6.00 per 1000
- WARFIELD—A heavy bearer of dark berries, plant with the Dunlap. $1.35 per 200, $6.00 per 1000
- GIBSON—An early berry, big yeilder, early. $1.35 per 200, $6.00 per 1000
- HOWARD—Also known as Premier, a large berry, a good one. $1.50 per 200, $6.50 per 1000

Black Raspberries

- CUMBERLAND—The largest and the best. 75c per doz. $4.50 per 100

Red Raspberries

- BARABOO—The new red raspberry. It's Thornless, free from disease, never winter kills, extra early, heavy bearer, long season, get a start of these. $5.00 per doz. $35.00 per 100
- ST. REGIS—Everbearidg, early, hardy $3.50 per 100
- LATHAM—Large, hardy, a good one. $5.00 per 100

- APPLE TREES—Large three-year trees, true to name. 50c each $20 for 50
- GRAPE VINES—Large two-year, vines, Moore's Early and Worden. 25c each $2.50 per doz.

Prices on Shade Trees, Shrubs, etc. on request.