G. H. WILSON SEED CO., Downs, Kansas

We maintain these gardens especially for improving and developing new varieties of vegetables and flowers, where we hand-pollenize the blossoms of kindred plants, producing new varieties, then by years of careful selection we develop them until they are perfected. When we have absolutely proven them to be superior to all others, we offer the seeds to our customers.

We have developed a number of new varieties which we are offering you a few for this season and we can especially recommend. The Wilson's Black African, The Wilson's Black and the Golden Oval Muskmelons, and Wilson's White Seeded Tom Watson Watermelons. We have proven these and cannot endorse them too highly to our customers. Through their superior quality and long-keeping they sell readily for high prices when there is no market for other melons. Include these seeds in your orders. We guarantee them to be true to name and of high germination.

Wilson's Black African Muskmelon—

A hybrid cross of several varieties, producing the most luscious, thick, green meated melon that we have ever seen. It is oval shaped, has dark green netted rind and sells at a high price even when market is glutted with other melons. Make money by planting these melons. Very fragrant and long keeper. A very heavy bearer. Pkt. 20c, oz 75c, $\frac{1}{4}$ lb. \$1.75, 1 lb \$6.00.

Wilson's Black Muskmelon—

It is oval shaped with a very dark green netted rind with very thick, red meat of the most highly sweet, delicious flavor—melting in your mouth. Will sell at a high price when there is no market for other melons. It is a good keeper and will lay for days in the patch after being ripe before it gets soft. We believe you could ship this melon from New York to San Francisco and back again to New York without ice and it would still be in good condition. There cannot be too much said in favor of this melon. The average melon weighs about $3\frac{1}{2}$ to 4 pounds each. Packet 20c, oz 75c, $\frac{1}{4}$ lb \$1.90, 1 lb \$6.50.

Wilson's Golden Oval Muskmelon—

Named for its beautiful oval shape and cream colored rind with thick, golden colored flesh, which is delicious in flavor. Very solid and thick. Is a good keeper and a wonderful market melon. Slightly larger than Rocky Ford. A cross between Solomon Giant and Rocky Ford. Include a package in your order. Pkt., $1.

Muskmelon Hearts of Gold, (Pure Strain)—

Pkt 10c, oz 20c, $\frac{1}{4}$ lb 35c, 1 lb \$1.25

Muskmelon—Ordway Pink Meat—

A fine melon. Pkt 10c, oz 20c, $\frac{1}{4}$ lb 35c, 1 lb \$1.25.

Honey Ball Muskmelon—

New and very highly recommended. The seeds are pure. Pkt 15c, oz 25c, $\frac{1}{4}$ lb 70c.

Wilson's Solomon Giant—

It is a giant indeed, both in size and quality. We do not know its origin as we found it growing in our patch among other melons. Pkt 40c.

Wilson's White Seed Tom Watson Watermelons—

A very large, dark green netted, thin, tough rind melon. Ships well; very sweet in flavor with white seed. A cross of Tom Watson and Irish Gray, combining the good qualities of both. A long melon, uniform in size and shape. A heavy bearer and great drouth resister. Will make the grower big money. Pkt 25c, oz 60c, $\frac{1}{4}$ lb \$1.60, 1 lb \$5.00.

Angel's Kiss Watermelon—

Pkt 5c, oz 10c, $\frac{1}{4}$ lb 30c, 1 lb \$1.

Ray's Jumbo or James Mammoth Squash—

Largest squashes grown. Pkt 10c, oz 25c.

Carrots—

Dawvers half long, one of the best oxheart. Very hardy, of good quality. Pkt 5c, oz 10c, $\frac{1}{4}$ lb 30c, 1 lb 95c.

Sweet Corn—

Breaky sweet corn. This is a winner! Extra early Malcolm, the earliest and we believe the heaviest yielder. Pkt 5c, $\frac{1}{2}$ lb 20c, 1 lb 30c.

Chinese Cabbage Pe Tsai—

Pkt 10c, $\frac{1}{2}$ oz 30c, oz 50c, $\frac{1}{2}$ lb \$1.25

above the new kinds is outlined these are of our own. Origination

Following is a list of new varieties being developed by us. They all have promise and will be a valuable addition to any garden; being in a pliable state they adopt themselves very readily to new soils and climates, and those marked early will ripen as far north as melons are grown. Be sure to try some of them. We specialize in developing new varieties of good quality earliness and good keepers. Wilson's Black, Black African and Golden Oval sold for 50 cents a dozen more money this year than any other varieties and we could not supply the demand. There was still some variation in them this season, but they all sold readily. We gave them such rigid selection this season we can scarcely believe there can be much variation in the future. You will find description and prices of these melons on opposite page.

We are creating by hand pollination many new crosses, to secure sweeter better varieties with better keeping qualities, which will arrive at the markets of the world in better condition, therefore selling at higher prices, giving the grower bigger profits for his labors.
