Gentlemen:

JAPANESE LARCH, LARIX LEPTOLEPIS

For the past two years, the crop of the Japanese Larch has proven a failure. This year, however, there will be a fine crop of this seed.

Knowing that you are interested in this seed, it is a pleasure to notify you that it can be supplied. Of course, it is advisable to place your order at once, so the seed can be secured for you and sent as soon as it arrives. The demand is great because of no supply being obtainable for the past two years.

Mark the quantity you desire and return this letter in the enclosed envelope. The seed will be sent as soon as it is ready.

Also place a check for my advance list of Evergreen, Tree, and Shrub seeds, Bulb List, or Perennial seed list.

Very truly yours,

Conyers B. Fleu Jr.
