JOHN WILK & Co.

151 WEST 33RD STREET

NEW YORK, N. Y.

We take pleasure in presenting our Dahlia List for 1930.

Within the pages of this list you will find novelties and prices to suit your requirements.

In the future, as well as in the past, it will be our constant endeavor to give our patrons the utmost satisfaction.

Although every possible care is taken to buy and supply seeds and bulbs which are true to name and description, we do not give any warranty, express or implied, and will not be in any way responsible for the crop. If the purchaser does not accept the goods on these terms, they should be returned at once. Prices quoted are subject to change without notice.

Yours truly,

JOHN WILK & CO.

THREE NEW DAHLIAS

Jersey's Glory. (Decorative). The flowers are large and of good form, well placed on the stem. The color is best described as a yellow hue of orange. The stems are long and stiff, but sometimes arch gracefully. It is a robust grower and the flowers are produced very freely; the leaves, thick and leathery in texture. The long stems branch freely from the base and the stems may be cut as long as that of Jersey's Beauty	7.50
Jersey's Jewel. Mallow pink, perfect stems with large long petaled flowers	1.75
Jersey's Monarch. A very large flower of a deep salmon shade with yellow at base of petals	2.50
Jersey's Ruby. (Decorative). The habit of the plant is ideal, being medium in size and the stems so stiff that the plant does not need staking. Growing naturally, one can have a perfect shaped bush, carrying from 20 to 25 perfect blooms all over 6 inches in diameter. The flowers have a very pleasing formation and the color is dark ruby with very little signs of fading	5.00
Jhr. Borreel. A fine formed flower, full to the center, deep rich orange, terra cotta	1.00
John Lewis Childs. Yellow splashed and striped scarlet	1.25
John M. Merritt. Creamy white, free bloomer and perfect formation	1.25
Judge A. B. Parker. A combination of golden buff. Splendid exhibition variety	1.25
Judge Marean. Very large flower of perfect type. Color most difficult to describe, sort of a rich color, composing salmon pink, red iridescent orange, yellow and pure gold. Good bloomer, strong stems	1.25
*Long Island Sunset. Deep golden apricot. One of the best garden dahlias in existence	3.75

*Mannetto Gold. A blending of orange and gold	1.50
*Mannetto King. (Decorative). A rather stunning flower of a rare color. Best described as lilac rose. An exceptionally free bloomer. Its blooms and foliage are gigantic and substantial. A most suitable variety for exhibition or commercial purposes	3.75
*Mannetto Pride. Very dark crimson	1.00
*Mannetto Purity. (Decorative.) A large pure white flower, produced on perfect stems. Its bush is elevated and is a mass of blooms throughout the season. Its keeping qualities as a Cut-flower are unsurpassed	3.75
*Mannetto Queen. (Hybrid Dec.) An exceedingly large and well formed bloom. Color, a striking shade of deep rose pink. One of last season's much admired novelties.....	7.50
*Mannetto Rossette. Beautiful shade of old rose	3.75
*Mannetto Rose. Rose shading to carmine, one of the largest grown	1.00
*Mannetto Sport. Variegated—red and white.....	3.75
*Mannetto Sunbeam. (Decorative). A rather odd color and difficult to describe. When season first opens it appears as old rose but turns brown as season advances. This delightful dahlia is well deserving of a space in the garden.....	3.75
Manitou. Immense flower of amber and bronze	1.25
Marcella. Fine pink	1.00

Yellow Beauty. (Decorative). This splendid new yellow Decorative will, we predict, be in the yellow class, what Jersey's Beauty is in the pink. We have watched it closely for the past three years, and it has all the attributes of a perfect Dahlia. This Dahlia while primarily a commercial Dahlia, yet can be grown to exhibition size. We have seen many 9 inches across and from 4 to 5 inches in depth. It has the long, free branching habit of its parent Jersey's Beauty, and a plant pinched once or twice can carry eight to twelve perfect flowers, none less than 6 inches. The stems are more slender than Jersey's Beauty, yet always stiff, holding the flowers erect and at a proper angle for vase work.....	10.00
Watchung Sunrise. A rich golden yellow, suffused amaranth pink towards outer petals.....	5.00
