FROM OUR MAIL BAG

Donora, Pa., Jan. 13, 1930.

Dear Mr. Burd:—Bulbs came all O. K. on the 11th. First I want to thank you for the liberal count, that would have been enough alone. But when you put in the three specials also, that just tickled me to the ends of my toes. Thank you very much.

Yours truly,
Mr. R. D.

Centralia, Wash., Feb. 10, 1930.

Dear Sir:—The Glad bulbs you sent me arrived in fine shape; one would hardly suspect they had traveled 3,000 miles. Thanks for the careful packing.

Yours truly,
Mrs. M. E. R.

New York City, Jan. 9, 1930.

Dear Mr. Burd:—The Bulbs arrived today, have been duly examined and counted and found satisfactory in every way, and I want to thank you for the liberal count, for the generous supply of Extra Bulbs, and the very prompt attention of my order.

Yours truly,
Dr. S. S.

Rockaway, N. J., Nov. 28, 1929.

Dear Sir:—Your package of Bulbs came today. I have bought Bulbs from a number of dealers, but have never received such an extremely generous count of large, healthy Bulbs. Count me as one of your satisfied customers.

Yours truly,
Mrs. G. L. C.

Meriden, Conn., Aug. 19, 1930.

Dear Sir:—The Glads I bought of you did very well, considering the extreme hot dry weather we had this summer. I planted April 11th. The Orchid you sent me as one of the extras, was beautiful and kept nearly two weeks in the house. Taro, Los Angeles and Opalascant all bloomed well and was nice. Please send your literature when ready. I grew over two thousand Bulbs this season.

Yours truly,
Mr. R. B.
