REDUCED PRICES ON IRIS

Any iris listed here $.15 each, two for $.25.

One each of the above, 27 in all, $3.25.

Any twelve your selection, $1.50.

Irises can be planted any time of the year, provided the soil is not frozen, in fact, I believe that May is about the best time, as at that time of the year the soil is always more moist than in the hot dry days of July or August.

No garden is complete without them. In the description below, S stands for standards or upright petals; F for falls or drooping petals.

A. E. KUNDERED; S, bronze; F, magneta red.

ALBERT VICTOR; S, blue; F, lavender.

AUREA; S and F bright yellow.

ARNOLDS; S, rosy bronze; F, purple.

NEUBONNER; golden yellow.

QUAKER LADY; S, lavender; F, blue.

QUEEN OF MAY; lilac rose.

QUEEN EMMA; white suffused blue.

ROSE UNIQUE; soft blush rose.

SHERWIN WRIGHT; golden yellow.

W. F. PETERS; a true bronze.

JAPANESE IRIS IN MIXTURE

These irises, though resembling the common iris listed above are broader and flatter; each $.25; five for $1.00.

HARDY PERENNIAL PLANTS

Ever since we have been publishing this list it has been our habit to list numerous plants under this heading, with a short and rather vague description. A complete description would be financially impossible, so therefore we are no longer going to attempt to describe them but merely state color and height.

We wish to remind you here that we will gladly plan your hardy garden for you, send us a sketch of the space you want to plant as well as the surrounding territory, how much money you would like to put into it and anything else you think would help us in conceiving your taste.

The plants listed below are all strong, field grown clumps, and unless otherwise stated are one year old. Those marked with an asterisk (*) are suitable for rock gardening.

PRICES

One year plants, $.20 each, three for $.50; $1.50 per dozen.

BIRD BATH

There is nothing like a bird bath to put a final touch on your garden. It will attract a great number of birds in the hot summer months and turn your garden into the loveliest spot on earth, to you.

The bath illustrated above is very ornate, it is made in two colors.

PRICE: Dull Brown, $10.00; Blue Gloss $14.00

Both these baths are 27 in. high

SUN DIAL

This sun dial, 32 in. high, is of the same high quality as the bird bath. It is made in dull brown only.

PRICE: $10.00

Both the bird bath and sun dial are made of high quality earthenware and are so far superior to concrete in beauty and durability that they can not be compared.

These will be sent direct from the pottery in Illinois, so please state whether you want them by freight or express, freight will take two or three weeks and will cost about $.75, express of course will cost considerably more.
