Autumn Specials

From our Complete Lists

Evergreens, trees and shrubs
best adapted for Autumn planting. Special prices for Fall 1931—in small sizes as well as large.

Kelsey Nursery Service

Fifty Church Street, New York City

We can make immediate shipment of Evergreen stock—from now up to October 1st with perfect safety. On Deciduous varieties, the best shipping time is from late September to late November. Orders will also be gladly accepted now for delivery next spring if desired.

KELSEY NURSERY SERVICE

1. We furnish high quality stock. Kelsey Nursery stock is grown where it grows best; always of course, with regard to shipping convenience. Of more than seventy nurseries with over twenty thousand acres of stock we select the nearest nursery growing the material of the quality and grade you may want.

2. We furnish our stock at the lowest prices made possible by mass production. Prices of nursery stock vary greatly. One nursery grows stock on land worth, say, $4,000 or $5,000 per acre. The stock is no better than that grown at a nearby nursery where land is worth perhaps $400.00 per acre. Nature has no partiality in this respect. We are, therefore, enabled to sell excellent stock at very low prices.

3. We are an entirely responsible source of supply. Established Fifty Years ago, in 1878, we still have among our customers many who have been patrons for forty years or more. In all our dealings we are always willing to make things right on any errors or just causes for complaint.

4. Our Guarantee—Stock to be in good condition when furnished. We will, however, replace any and all losses at half price.

5. Scarce and rare varieties: Why look through a dozen nursery catalogues for them? Send us your list and we will quote promptly. This Short Guide is necessarily confined to standard varieties, but with our facilities we can furnish almost any variety or size grown in the United States.

6. The policy of this Company is to make and keep good will by careful and prompt service.

PRICES—net, packing at cost. Five will be supplied at the 10 rate, 25 at the 100, and 250 at the 1000 rate.

Claims for errors or shortage to be made within ten days.

GOOD trees for street planting have been extremely scarce. This Autumn we offer a good supply of them in the best varieties. Such sizes as we offer here are at real bargain prices. Other sizes available and will be gladly quoted on request. Most of the varieties on these pages can be shipped either from the East or from the Middle West, representing a considerable saving in freight. We will gladly estimate delivery costs in advance. Not in years has such an offering of deciduous shade trees been made.

THE CHINESE (OR SIBERIAN) ELM—ULMUS PUMILA

Where screen or shade is wanted in a hurry—and yet permanent screen and pleasing shade—page the new Chinese Elm. Phenomenal tales of its speedy growth and hardiness are told and most of them strangely enough seem to be true. It has few troubles. The only one seems to be a distaste for heavy or poorly drained soils. It grows slowly on such land, and does best on sandy or dry situations. Each tree, upon planting, should be trimmed back. These trees offered below are grown for one season or more in New England and were raised from hardy North China Seed.

4 to 5 feet.....	7.50	65.00	500.00

Small sizes of one-year-old grafted varieties at very low prices will be found on page 10. Red-flowering Dogwood, Japanese Bloodleaf Maple and many other beautiful trees appearing on these pages may be found there.

AND BEAUTY

THE Dogwood, Flowering Cherries, Crabs, Hawthorne and Mountain Ash are only at their best when seen in masses and if properly arranged such a mass planting can be a riot of color from earliest spring until July.

FLOWERING CRABS (Malus)

These superb trees are effective for lawn specimens, but even more important when used plentifully in woodland and mass planting.

There is a wide range of size and shape and color of bloom and the following list includes only a few of those we are in a position to furnish. The quantity prices are real bargains.

Atrosanguinea—Carmine Crab.

INTERESTING NATIVE TREES

WITH so many varieties from other lands to choose from, the planter of trees and maker of gardens is in danger of forgetting the beauty and value of many of our native types. American trees include some of the most beautiful in the world and are moreover adapted by their very nature to our climate. They grow easily, in other words. Kelsey Nursery Service makes available very many of the native varieties (a few of which are listed on this and other pages). We are always glad to quote on varieties or sizes not here mentioned. Generally speaking, the Autumn is an excellent time for planting deciduous varieties—from middle September until late November. There are a few exceptions, due not to the season but to the nature of the trees—such are Beech and Hickory—which we therefore quote with a ball of earth. Everything else in this list may be planted with every bit as much success as during the spring season.

Vase-shaped American Elm

Identical with the American Elm, but grown by budding from selected well shaped parents. A sensible precaution against your Elm trees turning out to be unsightly or unshapely, at maturity.

WE wish to announce that we are in a position to make quotation upon large trees—planted and guaranteed—of practically all varieties and for any location in the Eastern United States. The work is done by thoroughly trained men and only the finest specimens are planted. The terms are more reasonable than generally demanded for this sort of work. Inquiries are solicited.

EVERGREEN TREES

EVERGREENS are essentially things of beauty both in Winter and Summer.

But it is in Winter that their effectiveness is most appreciated. Now as the leaves of Deciduous trees and shrubs are beginning to lose their green and drop off, consider the advantage of evergreen trees and shrubs. They do not grow quite so quickly, but for many positions this is a great advantage. Like so many other commodities in this Modern Age—"they cost more and they're worth more." On the next few pages and again at the back of this brief price-list are a very few of the many beautiful and useful varieties we have to offer. They can safely be planted at this time—up to the end of September or later. Why not enjoy their fragrant beauty this winter? Larger specimens—up to twenty or thirty feet in height—may safely be moved all Autumn and Winter. We are in a position to quote prices for such trees, planted properly and Guaranteed to live.

PINES AND SPRUCES

THESE are the hardiest, easiest-to-grow evergreens there are. And the fastest growing, as well—except for a few dwarf varieties such as the Mugho Pine. Generally speaking, Pines like gravelly or sandy soil and Spruce likes good loam—will grow well in shallow soil also, whereas the Pines are deep-rooting trees. All trees here dug with Ball of earth and burlapped. (B. & B.)

THE NORWAY (Red) PINE

This variety, (Pinus resinosa) is deservedly the most popular evergreen for the East. Practically free from disease or insect pests, it is a vigorous grower and makes a fine specimen, or a dense hedge. Stands wind and exposure well—as do all Pines.

RIGA TYPE SCOTCH PINE

A beautiful tree. The trunk is tall and straight with reddish branches. Never grows straggly like ordinary Scotch Pine. As great an improvement over the type, in its way, as Koster Spruce is over Colorado.

EASTERN WHITE SPRUCE

By far the best of the fast-growing Spruces for the East. A beautiful frosty green, and of dense shapely appearance.

THE BLUE SPRUCES

The Colorado Spruce is the source. It varies in color from green to blue. The Blues are sold as Colorado Blue Spruce. Special super-blue types are grafted. One of the best is Koster's Blue Spruce.

Englemann Spruce also runs from green to steel blue. We offer in this, however, only unselected trees of all colors in small sizes. See page 16 for prices.

HARDY HYBRID RHODODENDRONS

The listed varieties are the most satisfactory. All plants below are shapely and budded to bloom this spring.

Amphion—clear pink with white eye.

Catawbiense album—pure white.

Catawbiense grandiflorum—rosy lilac.

Mrs. C. S. Sargent—deep rose-red.

Roseum elegans—clear rose. A compact grower.

Everestianum—rosy lilac. Compact.

President Lincoln—lilac pink with brown eye.

And for economy, smaller sizes 2-year old grafts about 12 inches high. Ten for $25.00.

THE DAINTY DAPHNE

(Daphne Cneorum—Garland Flower)

A dwarf evergreen shrub delightful above all other garden subjects. Now in its marvellous second blooming—for it is covered with fragrant pink flowers in May and again in September. Requires a sunny position. A charming border-plant.

PACHYSANDRA—Living Carpet

A charming ground-cover of evergreen leaves about six inches high. So dense as to really hide the ground. Enormously useful in dense shade, where grass will not grow well.

	(10)	(100)	(1000)
2 yr.-old from pots....	$2.10	$15.00	$125.00

NATIVE RHODODENDRON IN CARLOTS

Rhododendron is splendid for thick mass planting.

For years we have specialized in these fine evergreen shrubs. We offer some extremely low prices for collected Rhododendron Maximum and Kalmia latifolia (Mountain Laurel). The plants are dug with a good ball and packed in the car carefully for delivery in good condition. Strong clumps with several branches. Fine for mass planting. Carloads only. Freight extra from nearby Pennsylvania.

YOUNG ARISTOCRATS

Red-Leaf Japanese Maple Viburnum Rhytidophyllum Purple Beech Red-flowering Dogwood

Photographed on Long Island, August 1, 1931—now ready to ship.

UNUSUAL and rare varieties . . . true to name because they are grafted . . . easy to grow because they have already passed a season out-of-doors. Some winter protection is desirable, but no other special treatment. Many of the sizes are offered Balled and Burlapped for still easier handling. Where so noted, please remember that Dutch burlap is used and can be planted without removing from the plant. This is an amazing opportunity to plant rare and delightful kinds at little cost.

Or we will accept trial orders for ten trees of five different kinds—two of each—at the same prices. Otherwise, 25 of a kind is a minimum order.

EVERGREENS IN THE SHADE

The Hemlock (Tsuga canadensis)

A glorious tree. Its soft drooping branches are quite similar to the famous Deodar Cedar of India, yet it is absolutely hardy. Requires protection from the wind. Makes a beautiful sheared hedge.

15 to 18 in.....	$17.00	$135.00
18 to 24 in.....	20.00	160.00

BEAUTIFUL and useful evergreens can be grown in the absence of sunlight if care is taken in selecting the proper varieties. The best of all such types are the Hemlock and the Yew.

TAXUS—The Yew

Japanese Yew (Taxus cuspidata)

The most common form. A spreading bush, about twice as wide as high. Very hardy. Responds eagerly to shearing as for a hedge, although the upright form is better for this purpose. (Taxus cusp. capitata).

2½ to 3 feet.....	8.00	70.00

Dwarf Japanese Yew (Taxus brevifolia or nana)

Extremely slow growing and with denser, shorter needles than ordinary Japanese Yew. The one finest rock garden specimen—picturesque form.

	(Each)	(10)	(100)
12 to 15 inches.....	$3.75	$35.00
15 to 18 inches.....	4.50	42.00
18 to 24 inches.....	7.50

Improved Japanese Yew (T. cuspidata intermedia)

A cross between the Japanese and dwarf Japanese. We offer two forms, the type—intermedia—and an upright form—columnaris. Both are pictured below.

T. Cuspidata intermedia

We have available many other kinds of Yew. Write for prices on special varieties.

THE JAPANESE YEW IN PICTURES

Upright (Capitata)

Japanese Yew (Cuspidata)

Columnaris

Intermedia

Dwarf Japanese Yew (nana)

WE suggest reforestation of waste lands with nut trees. Not for the sake of nut crops at all—as a matter of fact these ARE of considerable value—But consider nut trees from the point of view of lumber alone:

- Hickory—very valuable special purpose wood.
- Walnut—a slow crop, but very profitable.
- Beech—A valuable special purpose wood.
- Oak—Always in demand.
- Chestnut—Durable, popular lumber.

Consider also the fact that while these trees are not very fast growing as compared with Elms and Maples, they are considerably faster growing than the fastest of the evergreen varieties now so commonly used for reforestation—Spruce, Pine, Fir, etc. Nut trees may be planted during October and November. Many hardy varieties are priced on these two pages. Special prices in large quantities.

Consider the value of nut trees for reforestation of waste land. They grow on soil too poor for evergreens. Although, aside from the pleasure and value of yearly crops of nuts, the wood is extremely valuable as timber—more so than any other class of tree that can be grown. Mass methods of production allow prices which make immediate forest planting practicable now—this Fall.

LESS fruitless talk about "feathered friends" and more sanctuaries—that is what is needed if we are to preserve and increase our treasures of bird life. A group of shrubs bearing attractive fruits and berries is the surest way to bring the birds to your home grounds. We have selected five kinds of shrubs and trees that seem to be best adapted. Plant some this autumn. The best time is during October and November. More detailed information gladly furnished.

NEW DAWN

AN EVERBLOOMING CLIMBING VINE

A miracle has happened to the Van Fleet Climbing Rose—already famous as the best of the hardy climbers. Vigorous, free from disease, producing fragrant shell pink flowers in abundance, equal in size and shape to many ordinary bush roses—but, like all climbers, blooming only in June.

And now the miracle!—A sport from this variety that blooms like a hybrid tea—all summer long! This rose is patented and our supply comes from authorized sources. The greatest boon to gardens in years! Absolutely hardy.

EVERGREEN HEDGES

WHEN winter winds blow, how much protection does your Privet hedge give, bare of leaves? Evergreen hedges are of permanent beauty. They can be obtained in many textures and colors—in various heights and widths. But the little-understood factor is that they need not be expensive. Kelsey Nursery Service offers evergreens in a special hedge size. They are economically grown for a special purpose. Unless otherwise stated, they are shipped without a ball of earth (B. & B.) the roots being instead wrapped in damp moss and shipped by express. More and more every year this method on small sizes is proving to be a sound one. Less than ten percent loss may be expected—and the cost is so enormously less than shipping the roots in earth, that this loss is nothing. Even shipped with balled roots evergreens normally show some loss. The method is not recommended for trees of larger size.

A HEDGE OF UPRIGHT YEW

Taxus cuspidata if raised from seed and not from cuttings makes, according to the late Dr. Wilson of the Arnold Arboretum, the best evergreen hedge for permanent use. It is absolutely hardy and densely branched. This has hitherto been expensive. But look at these prices:—

RED PINE

(P. resinosa)

Evergreen Seedlings and Transplants

EVERYWHERE—in all walks of life—are men with vision. They are working and planning for conservation of our fast-diminishing forests. Incidentally they are enjoying, if they are wise, one of the most fascinating hobbies possible to an American. The thrill of watching a few hundred or thousand baby evergreens grow into a forest or, if you prefer, into splendid specimens for your estate, increases with the years. The value to the country is beyond estimating. All the small trees here offered are healthy and nursery grown from selected seed.

RIGA SCOTCH PINE (Pinus sylvestris var. Rigensis)

This has long been known among foresters as a type altogether superior to ordinary Scots Pine.
Where the type grows straggly and with a crooked leader, the Riga variety puts up a straight clean trunk.
