OUR NEW INTRODUCTIONS FOR 1932

WANDEL'S RED BIRD—(Benedict & Corbett) Formal decorative. Large flowering, brilliant spectrum red with light silvery reverse. Small yellow florets scattered throughout blooms. A tall robust plant with excellent habits, foliage and stems. A seedling of Jersey Beacon. A basket or Red Birds won first prize for effect at the Atlantic City Show September 1931. One of the Roll of Honor Dahlias in 1931.

Roots $5.00

Plants $2.50

WANDEL'S PURPLE MONARCH—(Benedict & Corbett) Formal Decorative. A seedling of Jersey's Beauty, inheriting about every good quality of its famous parent except color. Its color, as its name implies, is rich rose purple, light reverse, blooms carried on stiff stems, often three to four feet in length.

Roots $10.00

Plants $5.00

WANDEL'S LAVENDER—(Benedict & Corbett) An immense informal decorative. Stems long and stiff, foliage luxuriant and heavy. Growing habits excellent. Color: A light mallow purple or lavender. Unusual and attractive.

Roots $10.00

Plants $5.00

WANDEL'S BRIDE—(Benedict & Corbett) Semi-Cactus, the formation of which is hard to describe and do justice. Blooms, whose large petals are tubular with serrated or stag horn ends gives the flower a loose shaggy appearance. Color: Shell pink shading to white. Foliage, stem and habits of the best. A flower that has to be seen, before its beauty can be appreciated.

Roots $10.00

Plants $5.00

WANDEL'S SMOKY CITY—(Benedict & Corbett) Formal decorative. Blooms are of exhibition size and of best formation. A deep full center to end of the season. Stems long and stiff. Growing habits of best. Color: (Ridgeway) Jasper pink shading to empire yellow at base of petals.

Roots $10.00

Plants $5.00

WANDEL'S FIRE BALL—(Benedict & Corbett) Formal Decorative. Seedling of Jersey Beacon. A robust growing bush of medium height, covered with big attractive blooms to the end of the season. Color: Grenadine red shading to bright yellow. Stems long and stiff. Foliage heavy and rough. As near insect proof as any dahlia that grows.

Roots $10.00

Plants $5.00

NEW INTRODUCTIONS OF OTHER GROWERS

ACHIEVEMENT—(Ballay) Informal Decorative. A huge flower of gold with bronze shadings. A great prize winner west of the Rockies. Petals curl and twist into a huge ball as deep as it is wide. Long sturdy stems. Splendid for exhibition work.

Roots $10.00

Plants $5.00

CHAMPOEG—(Crites-Kemp) Formal Decorative. The color effect is like a sunrise with the base of the petals an amber gold shading to a bright rose pink near the outside of the flower, then back to golden amber.

Roots $10.00

Plants $5.00

EAGLE ROCK FANTASY—(Broomall-Success) Informal Decorative. Spotless mallow pink. Huge flowers, splendid stems and vigorous growth.
Roots $15.00 Plants $7.50

★EAGLE ROCK WONDER (Success). S. C. For tremendous size and perfection of form we have grown no variety that will surpass this one. The color is orange shading to orange-buff with tints of coral pink, giving the effect of a bright autumn colored dahlia. Plants grow very tall and produce many flowers with long stiff stems.
Roots $7.50 Plants $3.75

FLOYD GIBBONS—(Viele & Mendham) Informal Decorative. Winner as Best Undisseminated Seedling at Asbury Park, also as Best Dahlia Originated Outside of New Jersey, at the Trenton Show. The color is a bright copper on a long petaled, very deep flower. Free bloomer and clean grower.
Roots $10.00 Plants $5.00

GOLDEN GOBLIN—(Goodacre) Formal Decorative. Flower of solid formation, rather oval in form, the petals folding back right to the stem when fully open. Color: Rich golden-ocher. Stems can be cut three feet long. Foliage rich deep green and insect resisting.
Roots $10.00 Plants $5.00

IMPERIAL PINK—(Hall) Informal Decorative. Light, clear rose-pink with gold shades at the base of the petals near the center. Blooms are large and deep, and a healthy and vigorous grower. Stems excellent.

Roots $10.00

Plants $5.00

JERSEY'S CYNTHIA—(Lauer-White) Informal Decorative. Very large, well formed flower, produced on long stiff stems. Color: Pleasing mallow purple.
