Special Message

Montbretia and Tigridia bulbs are of lighter weight, and the delivery charges will be less accordingly. Therefore, I can offer you 5 percent discount either in cash or extra bulbs, from the price of the Montbretias and Tigridias as listed.

LIBRARY
RECEIVED
FEB 17 1932

I will prepay delivery charges on all orders of $3.00 and over, also on all ~~order~~ seed orders. On any orders of less than $3.00 kindly add 10 per cent for delivery.

Owing to our winter being very open this year, it will necessitate our digging lily bulbs within the next few weeks. The sooner you can plant these bulbs, the better it will be, but if you do not wish your order shipped until the middle of March or the 1st of April, and you have not the storage facilities, kindly notify me and I will endeavor to hold back the growth by placing the bulbs in a cold-storage warehouse, if you will add 50 cents to assist in the expenses of same.

We urge that you mail your order at once. It will give us a better idea of just what variety and size of lily bulb you wish, and we can lift them before growth begins.

Kindly send cash with your order.

Cultural suggestions shipped with all orders.

Hardy Lilies for Your Garden

ONE of my customers said, "I wish lilies could be grown and sold at a price so every garden could have them." So with this in mind, I'm offering you the smaller sized bulbs and making the price as low as possible, hoping it will afford an opportunity, not only for those who as yet have grown no lilies, but that it will inspire those who have already purchased, to add many more to their collection. And although I'm offering the smaller sized bulbs, every bulb has bloomed at least once.

MARTAGON ALBUM—white Turks-cap Lily. Very dependable, particularly in the New England States. Plant in groups of 3 or 6 among your Blue Canterbury Bells. Blooms June-July. Height 3-5 Ft. I offer 4-6 inches Cir.

3 bulbs, $2.10; 12, $7.85; 25, $15.00; 50, $28.00

SULPHUREUM—sulphur-yellow with deeper yellow throat tinged claret without. A wonderful large lily bringing almost the joy of Regal in August and September, after the Regal is gone. Plant in groups with the Montbretias as a color scheme. Height 4-6 Ft. Large blooming size.

1 bulb, $1.15; 6, $6.20; 12, $12.35; 25, $23.85.

TIGRINUM—Everyone knows the large improved Tiger but have you seen it in groups of three or more among Delphiniums—the orange of the Tiger, the blue of the Delphinium? Blooms August-September. Height 3-5 Ft. I am offering size 5-7 inches cir.

3 bulbs, 50c; 12, $1.85; 25, $3.50; 50, $6.00.

REGAL—The popularity of this lily is not a passing fancy. It is and will remain for years to come. one of the most beautiful garden lilies. The hardiness of its bulbs; the readiness with which it adapts itself to the varied climatic and soil conditions; its love of either sunshine or shade; the ease with which it combines with any background; the pure ivory-white blossoms with clear yellow throat, pink tinged without; and its rich perfume, gives it a welcome accorded to no other lily. Blooms June-July. Height 3-6 Ft.

WILLMOTTIAE—Many beautiful orange-red flowers. Splendid for cutting because of their graceful stems. Height 3-4 Ft. Blooms July-August. Special price for 4-6 inch cir.

3 bulbs, $1.25; 12, $4.55; 25, $8.75; 50, $16.25.

What My Customers Are Saying About My Bulbs

4-4-30—From Haverford, Pa.

"The Regal lilies you sent me have been and still are perfectly beautiful. I counted more than a hundred blooms, some measuring 5½ inches, great clusters of them on stems four to five feet high."

10-6-30—From Evanston, Ill.

"The Candidum I bought three seasons ago, were and are still very fine."

7-21-30—From Penllyn, Pa.

"The Regal lilies have been beautiful—as fine as any I have seen and I'm sure my gardening was not responsible for their excellence."

7-19-30—From Palo Alto, Calif.

"The Muscari you sent me last year have been very fine, and they have been warmly recommended to my friends."

6-28-30—From Bryn Mawr, Pa.

"The lily bulbs I bought from you last year were so successful I'm placing another order with you."

6-21-30—From Chestnut Hill, Pa.

"I never saw anything more beautiful than the lilies which a friend of mine bought from you. Will you please fill the enclosed order."

8-19-30—From South Orange, N. J.

"My lilies bought from you last year were perfectly beautiful. I used them two different times for church decorations."

7-24-30—From Haverford, Mass.

"You sent me some fine bulbs of Regal lilies last year and I am so pleased with them, I want 50 more of the largest. I want to say that all the lilies you sent me last year are greatly admired."

9-23-30—From Saginaw, Mich.

"Thank you greatly for the very generous dozen of unusually large and fine looking bulbs you sent me a few days ago. I inclose P. O. Order for which please add the following bulbs to my order. If they are as nice as the Grape Hyacinths I received, they will be highly satisfactory I know."

1-31-31—From Peapack, N. J.

"I highly recommend your bulbs. I bought Regal lily bulbs from other dealers and yours were so superior that there was no comparison, and I think they were lower in price."

8-27-30—From Hempstead, L. I.

"Your lilies, the Candidum and Testaceum went in today. Magnificent bulbs. I am thrilled over your lilies."

The following conversation was overheard by a friend of mine at a garden party, and she sent it in to me. She did not know the names of the parties, but I wish I knew.

Two ladies were discussing lilies. One of them asked where the other lady bought hers, and the reply was:—"There is only one place to get lilies and that is of Julia Clark of Canby, Oregon."

HYBRID MONTBRETIAS

Earlham Large-Flowered

These are the new Montbretias which gained the Gold Medal at the Royal Horticultural Society Shows, and are the result of hybridization carried out by Mr. Sidney Morris of Earlham Hall, Norwich. They are an enormous advance on the ordinary Montbretias in commerce, being generally much taller and more robust in growth, and having flowers of great size and beauty, some of them measuring 3 to 4 inches in diameter. They are of splendid value for cutting.

GOLD FINCH—bright yellow with small maroon blotches at center, outer petals heavily shaded brilliant cherry-scarlet, very decorative.

25 cents each; 12, $2.50; 25, $4.50; 50, $8.00.

HIS MAJESTY—a glorious variety, measuring 4 inches or more across, very broad petaled, deep velvety scarlet shading down to gold, reverse of petals dark crimson. Height 4½ Ft. The largest flowered of all Montbretias. First class certificate R. H. S. and Glasgow.

30 cents each; 12, $3.00; 25, $5.50; 50, $10.00.

JAMES COEY—rich, deep vermillion-scarlet with golden-orange lustre, center yellow with crimson blotches. Very handsome. Height 3½ Ft. Award of Merit Haarlem and R. H. S.

30 cents each; 12, $3.00; 25, $5.50; 50, $10.00.

LEMON QUEEN—creamy-yellow, pale center and deep orange buds, very attractive flower and of great decorative value.

20 cents each; 12, $2.00; 25, $3.75; 50, $6.75.

MARJORIE—large open, orange-yellow flowers with crimson center. A beautiful flower, perfectly flat when fully open. Height 3 Ft.

20 cents each; 12, $2.00; 25, $3.75; 50, $6.75.

POCAHONTAS—red coppery-scarlet, with golden lustre, center orange with small blood crimson blotches, flowers large and handsome. Height 3 Ft.

30 cents each; 12, $3.00; 25, $5.50; 50, $10.00.

Hybrid Montbretias--Continued

QUEEN ALEXANDRA—a choice variety with erect habit of growth, chrome-yellow with carmine blotches at the base of petals, late flowering. Height 4 Ft. Award of Merit R. H. S. and Haarlem.

25 cents each; 12, $2.50; 25, $4.50; 50, $8.00.

UNA— flowers rich apricot with carmine blotch, a well shaped flower of good substance. Height 2½ Ft. Award of Merit R. H. S.

20 cents each; 12, $2.00; 25, $3.75; 50, $6.75.

HYBRIDS MIXED—12, $1.85; 25, $3.50; 50, $6.50; 100, $12.25.

“OREGON GIANT”

PANSY SEED

I purchased these packets of pansy seed direct from the field of the originator of this wonderful pansy. Seeds planted this spring will give splendid bloom in late summer and autumn, after the mid-summer hot weather is gone.

A woman who sells pansy plants on the market in Portland called at my home the other day and in speaking of pansies, she remarked, “I have tried every pansy seed I have seen advertised on the market and nothing has compared with the ‘Oregon Giants.’ I have stood in my stall on the market and heard both men and women, as they saw my pansies, exclaim, ‘Oh, here they are—here are the big ones—this is what we are looking for,’ and in every instance,” said this caller of mine, “it has been the ‘Oregon Giants.’”

1 Packet of 600 seeds	$1.00
6 Packets of 600 seeds, each.....	$5.00

TIGRIDIA

(Mexican Lily)

A very showy flower with its large quaintly shaped blooms.

"But isn't this the bulb whose flowers die each day?" I'm asked, and I reply, "Yes—but each day a new one is born; not a reopening, fading bloom, but a brand new fresh blossom each day."

I can offer you these three varieties—the standard bright red for a showy bed, or for a corner which, in spite of its sunshine, is dull.

3 bulbs, 40 cents; 12, $1.50; 25, $2.85; 50, $5.40.
100, $10.00.

Two of the newer varieties, which are indeed lovely hybrids

Ruby Queen (Lilacea), soft-ruby rose large handsome flowers.

Giant Rose lovely bright rose, very fine.

3 bulbs, 85 cents; 12, $3.00; 25, $5.85; 50, $11.10;
100, $21.00.

Three Gladiolus Combinations

The list of gladiolus from which to choose is long and the choice is very uncertain when there is no opportunity to see them blooming in the field. So I have chosen three combinations, whose color scheme will make pleasing summer and autumn gardens.

Some of the bulbs are higher priced than others, but I have selected them for the beauty of the flower and I am shipping the size bulb often chosen by exhibitors to produce their best exhibition blooms.

An itemized planting arrangement for each group purchased will be enclosed with the bulbs.

Combination No. 1—Lavender and Pink.

8 varieties—60 bulbs
20 Purple, 26 Lavender, 14 Pink
Price $4.20

Combination No. 2—Lavender and Yellow.
