AN AMAZING BULB OFFER

DEAR FOLKS:

You who have been buying bulbs from us for so many years, have been so loyal to us again this season, that we want now to show our appreciation by making this very unusual offer to you and to any receiving this list.

On any orders you may send in from now till March 10, 1932, you may select for each $5.00 of your order, one item from the following list free. Or for any $3.00 of your order you may select half of any item free. You to pay transportation on these items; we to pay for boxing and packing.

Now to make this more clear, if your order should be for say $18.00 you may select 3½ items free, or for say $33.00 you may select 6½ items free. By an item we mean anything priced on one line of this list. For example: Marietta has three separate items.

You will find many of the finest Glads in the world listed here. However, if you prefer, instead of selecting any of these items, you may take a straight 15% discount from your order if your order amounts to $3.00 or more.

To date we have had a very unusual selling season. Thus far this season we have done no magazine advertising whatsoever, not even circularizing our entire mailing list, sending our lists only to those who have bought from us and such friends as they might recommend or who have written in for the lists. And in spite of the times, we have already sent out nearly three times as many orders as during the same period a year ago. Our bulbs have indeed given satisfaction.

This coming season we will devote more time to the propagation of Ellis Originations and less time to other varieties. That is one of the reasons also why we can be so liberal in this offer. Otherwise we would want to keep more of the planting stock.

It might interest you to know that already Mr. and Mrs. Ellis have sent out more new originations which have attracted national attention and which have won more Blue Ribbons in the various State Shows, and also in other countries, than any other hybridizers in the Northwest and have many more fine new seedlings coming on. Ellis Originations already have a wide distribution and the demand for a goodly number of them is more than we can supply.

It will be to your advantage to order early, before the big rush, and while stocks are more complete. Please designate second choice and whether money should be returned for shortages; or otherwise we may substitute with similar or better varieties. You may also order any of these items at price indicated.

Mail either one of these Coupons you prefer with your order, but not both with the same order.
