History

BY DR. GEORGE L. FIELD

Early in May, 1872, William C. Colburn, E. B. Smith, N. D. Lapham, A. M. VanDuser and Dr. George L. Field met in the book store of E. B. Smith and Company, then located under the old Russell House, and decided to form an organization with the view of building a Club House at the St. Clair Flats. A subscription paper was accordingly prepared, which is reproduced on the opposite page. One day's soliciting among congenial friends who enjoyed fishing and duck-shooting, resulted in $1,325 being subscribed.

The name chosen for the new organization was "The Lake St. Clair Fishing and Shooting Club of Detroit." It was organized under the provisions of "An Act for the incorporation of Societies of Marksmen," passed by the Michigan Legislature of 1869, which provides, "that corporations may be organized under the provisions of this Act for the improvement and perfection of marksmen."

At that time there was no shelter at the St. Clair Flats with the exception of the houses on the east bank of the South Channel, erected by men employed in building the ship canal for the United States Government. Therefore, the first step was to build a dock, at an expense of $630, in order that the lumber for the Club House might be landed. The Club House was next erected under the direction and supervision of Dr. George L. Field, at a total cost of $1,514.33, including a few extras.

Twenty-six boat houses, each with a frontage of eight feet on the channel bank, were then built, twenty-four being for individual members, and two for the general use of the Club. Later the dock was extended toward the east and a new house to provide additional room was erected; but even this was not sufficient for the growing needs of the Club, and after a few more years had passed a demand for still better accommodations led to the erection of the present Club House, which was completed and opened in the year 1887.

When the original charter of The Lake St. Clair Fishing and Shooting Club expired in 1902, it was re-incorporated under the name of "The Old Club," a title by which it had gradually become known, owing to its being the first club to own a house at the Flats.

The original Articles of Association of the club provided for one thousand shares of stock of the par value of $25 each, giving the club a total authorized capital stock of $25,000. The total actual membership, however, was never allowed to exceed 300; and in 1888, the capital stock was reduced to three hundred shares of $25 each par value. During the succeeding years the market price of the stock had a phenomenal rise, one share having been sold for $1,000, and many bringing over $500. The present membership is limited to 225 names.

A remarkable feature in the history of the Club is the fact that during its entire existence of forty years it has had but four presidents, the first of whom was William C. Colburn, who held that office from the time of the Club's organization until 1898. He was followed by Rufus W. Gillett, Thomas S. McGraw and Richard P. Joy, the present incumbent.

But few of the original members of the Club remain. However, a comparison of the present enrollment with the Club's roster of thirty years ago will show that many of the old names have been succeeded by those of a second and third generation, thus showing a spirit of genial fellowship and loyalty in the past and insuring a prosperous future for The Old Club.

ARTICLE I.

MEETINGS.

SECTION 1. The annual meetings of the Club shall be held on the second Wednesday of January of each year.

SEC. 2. Special meetings may be called by the President, or by any five members of the Club, at any time. Upon the request of the President, or such five members, the Secretary shall cause notices to be mailed to all the members of the Club at their usual place of residence, at least three days before the day appointed for the meeting, stating the time and place and general object of the meeting.

SEC. 3. Ten members of the Club shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 4. Each member shall be entitled to cast one vote. No member shall vote by proxy.

ARTICLE II.

DIRECTORS.

SECTION 1. The Board of Directors shall consist of nine members who shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the Club. They shall have the general management of the business and financial affairs of the Club. Provided, however, that no contract shall be for a longer period than one year, and they shall not involve the Club in debt beyond the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) without express authority by vote of the Club. They shall determine the method of auditing bills against the Club and of approving the same for payment.

SEC. 2. The Board, annually, on or before the Wednesday next after the annual meeting of the Club, shall elect from its number by ballot a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer.

SEC. 3. The Board of Directors and officers of the Club shall hold their offices until the next annual meeting of the Club, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified.

SEC. 4. A resignation from the Club by a director shall operate ipso facto as his resignation as a director. Vacancies in the Board of Directors may be filled by election by the remaining members of the Board at any meeting.

ARTICLE III.

OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The duties of the President and Vice-President shall be such as usually pertain to such offices.

SEC. 2. The Secretary shall keep a full record of the proceedings of the Club, and a record of the name and residence of each member. He shall give all necessary notices of meetings and perform such other acts as may be required by the by-laws.

SEC. 3. The treasurer shall give bonds for the faithful performance of his duties and the safekeeping of funds received by him in an amount and with sureties to be approved by the Board of Directors and shall notify the members each year of the time when annual dues are payable. He shall collect all moneys due the club from any source and shall pay all claims against the Club when the same have been properly audited and approved for payment. He shall pay over to his successor in office the balance in his hands when so directed by the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other acts as may be required by the by-laws.

ARTICLE IV.

MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. The number of active members in the Club shall be limited to two hundred and twenty-five (225).

SEC. 2. Any resident of Wayne County, Michigan, and non-residents of said County, not exceeding ten (10) in number, of the age of twenty-one (21) years, may be elected to active membership in the Club, by the Board of Directors, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 3. Applications for membership shall be made in writing and filed with the Secretary, and the applicant shall be recommended by at least two members.

SEC. 4. On receipt of an application for membership the Secretary shall forthwith send notice thereof to all members of the Club with the name of the applicant and his endorsers. Objections to an applicant may be filed with the Secretary or made orally to any member of the Board. The Board of Directors shall vote upon such application by ballot, after the expiration of ten days from and after the date of giving notice of the filing of the application. No person shall be elected to membership against the vote or objection of two members of the Board. Not less than five members of the Board shall constitute a quorum at any meeting to act upon applications for membership, and not less than five votes shall elect to membership.

SEC. 5. No person elected to membership as hereinbefore provided shall be deemed a full member, or be entitled to the privileges of the Club, until he shall have acquired, and had transferred to him, a certificate of membership.

SEC. 6. The unmarried sons of members between the ages of twenty-one (21) and thirty (30), shall be entitled to the privileges of the Club, as provided in the by-laws, upon payment to the Treasurer of the sum of ten dollars ($10.00) yearly dues.

Persons between the ages of twenty-one and thirty years, who are unmarried, shall be eligible to election as Associate members of the Club, in the manner provided in Section 4 of this Article. Associate members shall pay annual dues of $25.00 and shall not be required to pay any transfer fee. Such members shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Club for themselves personally, but shall not be entitled to vote nor be eligible for election to the Board of Directors. The arrival of an Associate member at the age of thirty years shall terminate his membership.

SEC. 7. Membership in the Club shall be non-assignable except to a person who has been elected a member of the Club, and in the case of transfer to a person having been elected a member, the assignee of such membership shall pay to the Treasurer of the Club the sum of one hundred dollars for transfer fee; provided, however, that in case of the death of a member, the certificate of such deceased member may be transferred to any male member of the deceased's family upon his election to membership in the Club, without payment of such transfer fee. The personal representative of any deceased member shall have the same right to assign such membership as the deceased member possessed in his lifetime.

No certificate shall be transferred, except upon the full payment of all indebtedness to the Club upon the part of any former holder.

SEC. 8. Upon the death of any member, his family as specified by Sec. 2 of Article VII. shall be entitled to all the privileges of such membership, excepting voting, so long as the Club dues of such membership shall be paid and the certificate of membership of the deceased remains untransferred by the personal representative of the deceased.

ARTICLE V.

DUES AND TRANSFER FEES.

SECTION 1. Each member shall pay into the treasury of the Club during the month of May in each year the sum of seventy-five ($75) dollars as yearly dues, and if any members shall neglect to pay said dues within the time herein specified a collection fee of five per cent. shall be added.

SEC. 2. Transfer fees shall not be used for ordinary Club expenses, but shall constitute a special fund to be used only for the payment of the bonded indebtedness, unless otherwise ordered by the vote of the Club.

ARTICLE VI.

SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION.

SECTION 1. If any member shall remain in arrears for dues for sixty (60) days after the same shall be due and payable, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to remind such delinquent of such fact by written notice and to post the name of such delinquent upon the bulletin board in the Club House; and such delinquent may be suspended by the Board of Directors from all the privileges of the Club. If any member shall continue in arrears for dues for ninety (90) days after the same shall be due and payable, the Treasurer shall report such fact to the Board of Directors, who may thereupon expel such delinquent from the Club without further notice.

SEC. 2. All bills other than for dues shall be rendered weekly, and mailed to the last known address of the member owing the same, and shall be payable immediately. The names of all members who are delinquent in the payment of such bills for more than seven days after the same are rendered, shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the Club House. No credit shall be given to members who are delinquent in the payment of such bills for more than seven days after their names have been posted as herein provided, and thereupon each such case shall be referred to the Board of Directors, who shall have power to suspend or expel such delinquent members from the Club without further notice.

SEC. 3. Members may also be suspended or expelled for any violation of the laws or rules of the Club, or for any offense against morality, decency, or the laws of the land, in manner following:

(a) The Board of Directors of its motion may, and upon the complaint in writing of three members shall, enter a resolution upon its records for the investigation of charges against any member, which shall specify the charges and fix a time and place for the hearing of the same.

(b) It shall be the duty of the Secretary to cause a true copy of such resolution, certified by him, to be served upon such member, either personally or by mailing the same to him at his last known place of residence, at least ten days before the time fixed for the investigation. Proof of such service, by affidavit or otherwise, shall be made before action is taken.

(c) At the time specified in such resolution the Board of Directors shall meet at the place named and shall then and at such other time or times thereafter as they may adjourn to, hear and determine the matter of the charges. The member complained of shall have full opportunity to be heard upon such charges, and the Board shall prescribe the mode of procedure upon such hearing. The Secretary shall keep a substantial record of all the proceedings. If the Board shall adjudge by a vote of not less than six members that the charges alleged are proved, and come within the meaning of Section 1 of this Article, they shall enter a resolution that the member be suspended or expelled.

SEC. 4. Within thirty days such expelled member may appeal to the Club from the decision of the Board by filing a written claim of appeal from the Secretary signed by himself. The Secretary shall thereupon call a special meeting of the Club for the purpose of hearing said appeal. At such meeting the Club shall hear said appeal in such manner as it may determine, and may restore said expelled member by a vote of a majority of the members present or voting. Such vote shall be by ballot. The member claiming such appeal shall not be entitled to any of the rights or privileges of the Club until he is restored to membership.

ARTICLE VII.

BUILDINGS.

SEC. 1. The buildings of the Club shall be kept for the use of members and their families exclusively; provided, however, that members may be at liberty to invite to them their friends who do not reside within the limits of the County of Wayne in the State of Michigan, or of the County of Essex in the Province of Ontario; provided further, that no member shall invite more than two persons to the Club House at any one time, nor shall any person to whom the hospitalities of the Club may be extended under this by-law be permitted to remain at the Club House longer than six days during any one year; and provided further, that members may invite two friends above excluded for a day—that is, from morning until evening—when accompanied by the member inviting them, or a member of his family.

SEC. 2. "Families" of members shall be held to consist of the wife of a member, his daughters, any female who is actually a member of his family, his sons under the age of twenty-one who are members of his household, and the parents of himself and his wife who are sixty years of age and upwards and residents of Detroit.

SEC. 3. In extending hospitalities, under this article, to persons not members, it must be understood that it is for sport and recreation only, and that the Club House is not to be used as a "summer resort," nor as a base of operations for shooting or fishing for market.

SEC. 4. No person, being of the family of any member of this Club, and under the age of sixteen years, shall make any stay at the Club House of more than one day—that is, from morning until evening—unless accompanied by a parent or legal guardian.

ARTICLE VIII.

LAND LEASES.

SECTION 1. The Board of Directors is authorized to lease the upper 500 feet of the New

Land, so called, to Club members, in fifty-foot lots, upon the following conditions:

1st. That the front twenty-five feet facing the river be reserved from each lot as a thoroughfare for the use of the Club.

2d. That the front line of all buildings erected upon such leased lands shall be, at least, twenty-five feet distant, in the direction of Cicotte's Bay, from the inside line of the sheet-piling retaining said land.

3d. That such lease shall be for a period of twenty years, at a rental of $25 per lot of fifty feet per annum, payable yearly in advance on the first day of May, with the privilege of renewal at the expiration of said term.

Provided, That at the expiration of said term of twenty years the Club shall have the option of terminating the lease, upon payment to the lessee of the then value of the improvements, such value to be ascertained, if the parties cannot agree amicably, by arbitration in the usual manner.

Provided, also, That the Board of Directors shall also have the right to terminate a lease at any time upon payment to the lessee of the then value of improvements, to be ascertained as above provided, if in any way the lessee shall so use such premises as to be objectionable to the Board or detrimental to the interests of the Club.

4th. That no building shall be erected upon such leased land except cottages, and the necessary appurtenances thereto, and no cottage to be erected shall cost less than $2,500.

5th. That the occupants of such leased lands and their guests shall be required to board with the Club.

6th. That the lease shall be valid only during the membership of the lessee, and transferable, in whole or in part, only to members of the Club. Nor shall the said leases be assigned or said premises sub-let without the written consent of the Club.

SEC. 2. The Board of Directors are further authorized to lease boat-house and cottage sites to Club members on such portions of the Club property and upon such terms as they shall deem best.

ARTICLE IX.

RULES.

All rules made by the Board of Directors shall be of binding force until rescinded by the Board or until abrogated by a vote of the Club, which may be done by a majority present at any regular meeting.

ARTICLE X.

AMENDMENTS.

These by-laws may be amended, altered or repealed at any regular meeting of the Club, or at any special meeting called for that purpose, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present and voting; provided, that due notice of the proposed amendment, alteration or repeal shall have been mailed by the Secretary to each member with the notice of the meeting.

The Old Club

Rules for Yacht Harbor

I.

The Yacht Harbor above The Old Club shall be for the use of the larger yachts belonging to members of the Club and such yachts shall have the privilege of making fast at any point on either side of the dredged cut within said harbor.

II.

Power boats, launches, sail boats and other small craft under forty feet in length, shall, in all cases, use the small yacht slip just above the steamboat dock.

III.

Any yacht using more space in the yacht harbor than is necessary, thereby excluding or inconveniencing another yacht, shall, when directed, drop back or pull ahead so that other yachts desiring to use the harbor, may do so.

IV.

No yacht shall work its engines while tied to the west bank of the harbor, on account of the possibility of undermining the sheet-piling, unless said yacht is getting under way or making a landing.

V.

All yachts while in the harbor are requested not to ring bells between the hours of 8 P. M. and 8 A. M., and are also requested not to make fast in front of occupied cottages provided there is plenty of room elsewhere.

The Manager, or such employee of the Club as the Directors may designate, shall have the power of enforcing the foregoing rules.
