

EOBRACONUS, A SUBSTITUTE NAME FOR EOBRACON
RASNITSYN (HYMENOPTERA, BRACONIDAE)

A few years ago I erected Eobracon as a generic name for a fossil braconid wasp (Rasnitsyn, 1983). This generic name, however, was previously used by Cockerell (1920) for another fossil braconid wasp. Since Eobracon Rasnitsyn is, therefore, a junior homonym of Eobracon Cockerell, I herein propose Eobraconus Rasnitsyn, new name, to replace Eobracon Rasnitsyn, 1983. The only species affected becomes Eobraconus inopinatus (Rasnitsyn), new combination.

I am grateful to Professor Frank M. Carpenter for drawing my attention to this homonymy.
