

It does not seem as though anyone would take it.

I do not know how to remunerate the man to whom it belongs.

B-K - I feel badly enough.

I expect to be

Oct 119 Vol -

West Avenue,

Boston - High - lands - in early

Winter for the winter, with the Mrs. Batten, my friend, whom you send to 2 Dunstable - Pl. - July 1891.

Mr. G. E. Davenport,

Dear Friend, I have been on the point of writing to you for some time, and I cannot tell whether I have written to you since July 1st - when I left here for Reno, to work on my Flora. I did not return to B-K till Sept. 1st since which time I have been away for a week. I was unusually well and I did a large summer's work, securing more than 30 new plants besides Grasses and Sedges - I found a very rare plant at Mt. Kinross - and found several at Bon-Harbor (Not new to E. L. Rood, but to my list.) I am still sketching odds and ends wh. I need. I need, much material aid from the Professors of the State College, I do not know how to thank you as you

Furbish, Kate. 1891. "Furbish, Kate Oct. 16, 1891 [to G. E. Davenport]." Asa Gray correspondence
