

What are you doing in your long Fenn work? What a shock Prof-Eaton's death must have been to you. I supposed that he was an old man, till I saw his portrait. Ah me!!

Shall I not hear from you soon?

My dear Friend
I am
tonight by this date
the is fast passing
I have accomplished
who does so much In the old times
content to do well; but week-age places
shut who log at all winter has been a factory for so much of me socially the
