

Clifton, N. J.,
Nov. 20/89.

Mr. Sereno Watson,
Cambridge, Mass.,

Dear Sir:— You will probably remember the "Bellis Nashii", Thurber, "who called upon you some days ago.

Several weeks ago Mr. Thurber told me you wanted an assistant, and asked me how I liked it. I have been thinking over the matter since.

Before I could decide as to the matter it was necessary for me to see Cambridge and yourself. I have seen both, and was pleased. The only matter on my part yet is as to salary, hours of work, &c.
Please let me have informa-on this subject.

Nash, George V. 1889. "Nash, George V. Nov. 20, 1889 [to S. Watson]." Asa Gray correspondence
